VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!
"Adopt the Church Walkways"

We are looking for more volunteers to adopt a weekend for snow removal. What do you do when you adopt a weekend? It is simple -you just keep an eye on the weather and be sure our sidewalks are safe, free of snow and ice, before people arrive for each of the Masses on that weekend. There is a sign-up sheet on the table in the back of the church. Please consider this opportunity to give back by offering up a weekend.

Eucharistic Adoration

Eucharistic Adoration is every Wednesday 9 am - 3 pm. All are invited to stop in to spend some time with the Lord in prayer. For those who can devote an hour, we have a sign-up sheet in the back of the church to assure that there is always someone in attendance during the time of Exposition.

From the Desk of Father Steve: Seeing God in Everyday Life

This week, I'd like to start a new series of bulletin articles called: "Seeing God in Everyday Life." I think it's very important for us to learn to see God's fingerprints in many of the things that we do and encounter in our daily lives. For example, at both of our parishes, as we know, we are working through building projects: St. Mary's has just finished its front wall project, while Holy Spirit is in the midst of the first phase of its building project. Building projects are an interesting time- extra work for many of our staff and some inconveniences for our parishioners; but it's also a time of coming together, of growth in community, an opportunity for generosity, and of course, an exciting time of renovation and renewal of our sacred Houses of God. And here, we can learn a spiritual lesson: remember, we believe that through our baptism, we have become temples of God the Holy Spirit.

God literally comes to dwell within us. So, what can we learn from the process of a building project in our church about the spiritual life? Maybe more than we might first think. Here, I'd like to share with you a portion of a homily from a saint in our Church's history that we might not be familiar with: St. Caesarius of Arles, a bishop from Arles, France, who died in the year 542 AD. He gave a homily on the feast of the anniversary of the dedication of the Pope's home church, the Basilica of St. John Lateran, in which he compared our desire to have a beautiful, clean house of worship with a desire that we should have to keep clean the temple of the Holy Spirit that we ourselves are.

Enjoy! ~ Fr. Steve

"My fellow Christians: today is the birthday of this church, an occasion for celebration and rejoicing. We, however, ought to be the true and living temple of God. Nevertheless, Christians rightly commemorate this feast of the church, their mother, for they know that through her they were reborn in the spirit. At our first birth, we were vessels of God's wrath; reborn, we became vessels of his mercy. Our first birth brought death to us, but our second restored us to life.

Indeed, before our baptism we were sanctuaries of the devil; but after our baptism we merited the privilege of being temples of Christ. And if we think more carefully about the meaning of our salvation, we shall realize that we are indeed living and true temples of God. God does not dwell only in structures fashioned by human hands, in homes of wood and stone, but rather he dwells principally in the soul made according to his own image and fashioned by his own hand. Therefore, the apostle Paul says: The temple of God is holy, and you are that temple.

When Christ came, he banished the devil from our hearts, in order to build in them a temple for himself. Let us therefore do what we can with his help, so that our evil deeds will not deface that temple. For whoever does evil, does injury to Christ. As I said earlier, before Christ redeemed us, we were the house of the devil, but afterward, we merited the privilege of being the house of God. God himself in his loving mercy saw fit to make of us his own home.

My fellow Christians, do we wish to celebrate joyfully the birth of this temple? Then let us not destroy the living temples of God in ourselves by works of evil. I shall speak clearly, so that all can understand. Whenever we come to church, we must prepare our hearts to be as beautiful as we expect this church to be. Do you wish to find this basilica immaculately clean? Then do not soil your soul with the filth of sins. Do you wish this basilica to be full of light? God too wishes that your soul be not in darkness, but that the light of good works shine in us, so that He who dwells in the heavens will be glorified. Just as you enter this church building, so God wishes to enter into your soul, for he promised: I shall live in them, and I shall walk the corridors of their hearts."

Men of Faith - Men Bearing Witness

Register today for the Men's Conference scheduled for Saturday, March 9 at Marshall School in Duluth. Paul George of Adore Ministry will be the featured speaker. Paul is the author of Rethink Happiness: Dare to Embrace God and Experience True Joy, as well as the host of The Paul George Show, a weekly national radio show and podcast. If you would like to check out the Paul George show, go to <http://discovertheheartofliving.com/new-index/>. Registration is available at www.duluthcatholicmen.org. Conference registration is $40. Early Bird registration ends March 4th.

Women of Faith - Fearless

You are invited to a faith-filled day with other women in our Diocese to explore the conference's theme "Fearless" on Saturday, March 23 at Marshall High School in Duluth. Sonja Corbitt, a gifted storyteller, will inspire listeners to take on their fears, ultimately drawing us closer to Christ. In the afternoon we will be blessed by a panel of religious sisters representing the three orders currently serving in our Diocese who live out their lives fearlessly for Christ. For more information & registration, go to www.dioceseduluth.org or call the Diocese at 218-724-9111. Early Bird registration ends March 8th.

Fundraising Committee

The next fundraising meeting is after Mass this Sunday (Feb. 10th) in the education center. All are welcome.

Weekly Progress

Week four—The nave is completed! The floor is curing now and Northern Elite Epoxy will begin the sanctuary floor on Monday. The front stairs will need to be finished this spring/summer as the cement was too cold to set properly with no insulation in the entryway.

Building Project Fund

Thank you to all who have responded to our capital campaign. So far 53 households have pledged $112,110. Several parishioners have asked when we can do the painting now that the flooring is underway. We can proceed with phase two once all the funds are raised. We are between a third and a half of the way.

A VALENTINE GIFT

Flowers die, chocolate remains on your hips and not your heart, but buying the women in your life (mother, wife and daughter) a conference registration to the 2019 Women of Faith Conference is a gift that keeps giving into eternity! When you purchase her a gift registration, she will be able to attend this year's conference on March 23rd at Marshall High School in Duluth with the theme "Fearless." Sonja Corbitt, a gifted storyteller, will inspire her to take on her fears which will ultimately draw her closer to Christ. In the afternoon she will be blessed by a panel of religious sisters representing the three orders currently serving in our Diocese. Let this gift be like no other day for her! For more information and registration go to www.dioceseduluth.org or call the Diocese at 218-724-9111. Early Bird registration ends March 8th.

Cassi's Corner

On Monday we celebrate Our Lady of Lourdes. I learned more about this church-approved apparition through movies on FORMED. Have you tried FORMED yet? I know it's not the first go-to when there is free time, but I can tell you there are many precious gems there. This week I challenge you to log onto FORMED.org using our parish code RYGYFN. You will be asked to set up your own account which is simple. Then, watch one of the movies like Bernadette or Lourdes. They are inspiring. They subtly give you courage and motivation to live your Catholic faith boldly. Enjoy!
