KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL #6629 ~ kofc6629.org

ST. TERESA OF KOLKATA

Though so much of her young life was centered in the Church, Mother Teresa later revealed that until she reached 18, she had never thought of being a nun.

At 18, she decided to follow the path that seems to have been unconsciously unfolding throughout her life. She chose the Loreto Sisters of Dublin, missionaries and educators founded in the 17th century to educate young girls. In 1928, the future Mother Teresa began her religious life in Ireland, far from her family and the life she'd known, never seeing her mother again in this life, speaking a language few understood.

She was sent to Darjeeling to the novitiate of the Sisters of Loreto in 1929. In 1931, she made her first vows there. Choosing the name of Teresa, it was now time for the new Sister Teresa to begin her years of service to God's people. She was sent to St. Mary's, a high school for girls in a district of Calcutta. Here she began a career teaching history and geography, which she reportedly did with dedication and enjoyment for the next 15 years. Teresa heard her "second calling" on a fateful day in 1946 when she traveled to Darjeeling for retreat.

During the next two years, Teresa pursued every avenue to follow what she "never doubted" was the direction God was showing her. She was "to give up even Loreto where I was very happy and to go out in the streets. I heard the call to give up all and follow Christ into the slums to serve him among the poorest of the poor."

Wisely, she thought to start by teaching the children of the slums - teaching them to read and basic hygiene. As they grew to know her, she gradually began visiting the poor and ill in their families, inquiring about their needs.

Within a year, she found more help than she anticipated. Young women came to volunteer their services and later became the core of her Missionaries of Charity. Others offered food, clothing, the use of buildings, medical supplies and money. As support and assistance mushroomed, more and more services became possible to huge numbers of suffering people.

From their birth in Calcutta, nourished by the faith, compassion and commitment of Mother Teresa, the Missionaries of Charity have grown like the mustard seed of the Scriptures. New vocations continue to come from all parts of the world, serving those in great need wherever they are found. Homes for the dying, refuges for the care and teaching of orphans, treatment centers and hospitals, centers for the aged and street people, and more, the list is endless!

Binz helps individuals and groups open the door to the heart of Scripture - the heart of Divine Mercy. Our study starts on September 29th at 10:00 AM or at 7:00 PM in Madden Hall and lasts for seven weeks. Cost is $13.00. For information, or to register, please contact Sr. Carol Gnau:

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

At the end of today's Gospel reading from St. Luke, Jesus says a lot about what it means to be His disciple — the demands and the expectations. As His final statement in the reading, He says, "...anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

This is another case where the translation from the original Greek may produce misunderstanding. Most of us understand the word "renounce" as meaning "reject" or "hand over." However, another meaning of the Greek word might be "to say goodbye to." That is the real message, and it is one with a strong stewardship element.

What the Lord may be trying to communicate is our possessions can stand in the way of being His disciple and being a good steward. It is a question of trust. Trust is at the center of a stewardship way of life. Jesus tells us that we need to trust in Him to a greater extent than in ourselves or in what we may possess. That is, of course, not easy for us.

Nevertheless, to place our trust in the Lord is exactly what it means to be His disciple. Psalms perfectly captures the challenge we face and provides the answer to the challenge as well. In Psalms we are told: "Man says to God, 'Show me and I will trust You.' And God replies 'Trust me and I will show you'."
