The traditional customs and colors, as well as the words and music of Advent, all bear some trace of the way the world outside the worship space looks and feels like in the northern hemisphere during the first stages of winter each year. Early mornings are heralded by a dawn in which the darkness of night yields to every shade of violet and blue in the spectrum - from the deeper violet and royal purples to slate blue and indigo and even to an almost pastel blue that brightens quickly into rose, before the advance of the rising sun.

Candles in a wreath lighted against the increasing darkness of shorter days, shades of violets and dark blues again, songs about the Creator of the stars of night and expectant chants sung in minor keys - don't these all somehow feel like the world outside the church, the world around us and within us? They do, if the weather is crisp and clear and you are out and about in the early morning or late at night (before the shopping malls open, or after they close!)

The sights and sounds of Advent express the longing of our hearts for peace and quiet. They express a heightened sense of awareness, of joyful anticipation, and nervous expectation. The Church offers us a welcome refuge amidst the hectic pace of our daily lives. The muted colors, tones, sounds and spirit of the Advent liturgies allow us to pause and focus, all too briefly, upon the meaning of what we do, the people we honor, and the God we serve.

Advent is divided into two distinct parts. The first flows from the theme of fulfillment and expectation that comes from concluding one liturgical year and beginning another. Last weekend, we acknowledged our belief that Christ Jesus is the King and Lord of all creation. Through his life, death and resurrection he has already fulfilled the Father's plan of offering salvation to all people in every time and place.

During the first week of Advent, we acknowledge "the already and not-yet!" Yes, all things have been fulfilled in God's time, but we still need to experience that "peace" in our own lives, in in our own time, in our own place; and so we approach this "New Year" with hope, trusting that—with a greater effort on our part—we and all people of the world could come closer to the peace and justice that are signs of God's kingdom.

In the second part of the Advent season, we remember and celebrate the fact that these promises have already been fulfilled in Christ. Through re-telling the Christmas Story, we give insight and hope to another generation that the miracle of life itself continues through parents who are open to God's Will and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Today's parents, like Mary and Joseph, can instill within their children the determination to work for a better world—hope for the future!

THE ADVENT WREATH originated in the German Lutheran Church and signifies the passing of time during the four weeks of the Season. The evergreen wreath stands for God's time in eternity, and the four candles represent the marking of our time on earth - Kairos and Kronos, respectively. There are no prescribed colors for the candles. In the Roman tradition, the three purple and one pink candle marked our liturgical time before the reforms of Vatican II. Advent was then considered a penitential season, much like Lent, and the pink candle was a reminder to find joy amidst our penance. It was lit during the third week, beginning with Gaudete Sunday. Special prayers are said as the candles are lit and we mark our time of preparation for the coming of the Lord.

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT WREATH

WEEK ONE

*O come, O come Emmanuel
And ransom captive Israel
That mourns in lonely exile here
Until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel!*

Lord God, we praise you for your Son, Jesus Christ: He is Emmanuel, the hope of all people, He is the wisdom that teaches and guides us, He is the Savior of every nation. Let your blessing come upon us as we light the candles of this wreath. May the wreath and its light be a sign of hope and Christ's promise to bring us salvation. We ask this in His Name, who is Christ the Lord. ~Amen.

OPLATKI A CHRISTMAS EVE TRADITION

In memory of the Star of Bethlehem, the festive Christmas Eve supper is not supposed to begin until the evening's first star appears in the sky. The family then gathers at the table to take part in the oplatki-sharing ritual. A candle is lit on the table to herald the imminent arrival of Christ, the Light of the World. Then, St. Luke's Gospel account of the Nativity is read, usually by the eldest person present, and grace is said. The eldest member then breaks the oplatki wafer into as many pieces that are needed for those present. Each then shares pieces of their oplatki with everyone else present at the table. The sharing ritual is accompanied by kisses, embraces and the exchange of good wishes for the New Year.

ADVENT RETREAT "KINDNESS AND JOY: MAKE READY THE WAY OF THE LORD" DECEMBER 3, 2016, 9:30-4:00PM

You are invited to join with Sister Sandra Makowski, SSMN and Dan Lord, in an exciting journey this Advent. Spend a day of reflection and prayer, and explore with other seekers a better understanding of Kindness and Joy - two important fruits of the Holy Spirit. What better way is there to prepare for the feast of Christmas!

Sister Sandra Markowski, SSMN, presently the Chancellor of the Diocese of Charleston, and author of The Side of Kindness, will lead us on a journey in helping to recover the lost art of being kind. She will share her own journey and help us reflect on the following:

- What has happened to kindness in our world?
- How can we recover the lost art of being kind?
- Taking God's side is taking the side of kindness

Dan Lord, is married, with seven children and works as Pastoral Associate at St. Benedict's Catholic Church as well as for the Office of Vocations for the Diocese of Charleston. He is the author of several books, including Choosing Joy. When you look around, you might wonder – although joy is a fruit of the Spirit, it doesn't seem to be hanging visibly from many Christmas boughs. Choosing Joy aims to change that – and change your life in the process.

Sister Sandra and Dan will have their books available for purchase and book-signing. (Both books are available for $18.00 each)

Sister Mary Thecla, FSP, will also have a table/ display of books and religious articles from the Daughters of St. Paul Book store. This will be available throughout the day for viewing and purchase.

Register through Sunday, November 27th, 2016. Registration is needed for the right amount of retreat materials and lunch. Please contact Diana Walstrom at dtwalstrom@gmail.com or the Parish office at 843-873-0631 or sign up in the Church Commons before or after Mass

There is no charge for the retreat. Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided. Childcare provided for children who are potty-trained.

Please Join Us, All are Welcome!

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

Most of us are quite familiar with Jesus' comments about faith, hope, and love. As we enter the Advent season, it is a time for us to emphasize all three, but today's readings in particular speak of hope. Isn't that what Advent is all about?

Many people in our world, perhaps even here in our parish and community, seem to have a feeling of hopelessness. We should not be among them; worldly thinking produces hopelessness, but our hope is found in Jesus Christ who has redeemed us and paid for all our sins on the Cross.

In the First Reading the prophet Isaiah foresees a time of peace, a time when all literally "walk in the light of the Lord." Two phrases commonly quoted are included in this reading: "They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks." This peaceful world is exactly what we prepare for during this Advent time. Think of how often we hear the word "Peace" used at this time of year. Think of how many Christmas cards bear that word alone.

Peace produces hope and hope produces peace. That is the feeling we are seeking at this time, as we prepare to declare "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests." The eminent French author Alexandre Dumas (who wrote The Three Musketeers and The Count of Monte Cristo among others) once wrote, "All human wisdom is summed up in two words: wait and hope." Is that not what we do during Advent?
