HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH MINISTRY

ANNE BONAVENTE

Three years ago, you welcomed me with open arms to this loving church community that I now call home. Since then, you have never stopped supporting me and the youth of our parish; and for that, we are all beyond grateful.

As some of you may already know, I am making the biggest decision of my life. After a long discernment, I finally have the courage to follow what God has been telling my heart. I am moving to South America again to volunteer and will continue to lend my hands to those in need. I am definitely filled with mixed emotions as I have been loving my time at SJB. Although it is not easy, I have to move forward where God is calling me.

While I will still be around until the end of June, I ask everyone for continued support and prayers for this upcoming transition in my life and especially in our parish. I thank God for writing my life story with you, SJB family, in it. With all my heart, thank you for everything.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

The Gospel Reading for today is what is popularly called the Sermon on the Mount. Many think it is the absolute epitome of Jesus' teachings. To be sure it tells us how we are to live our lives and the attitudes we are to have.

We must remember that those who were waiting and hoping for the Messiah expected a military leader, one who would lead them in battle against their oppressors.

In His Sermon on the Mount Jesus gives a more accurate perspective of Who He is. He begins what we call the Beatitudes (the word means "blessings") with "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." In a sense we are all "poor in spirit." Without the guidance and strength provided us by the Lord there is no way we can escape this poverty of spirit, of spirituality, if you will.

That is why we often say that living God-centered lives is at the very core of stewardship. Being a disciple of Christ translates into being a steward of our many gifts and blessings. Some scholars believe that Jesus may have given this sermon often during His ministry. Those who followed Jesus and became the earliest Christians, the first members of the Church, were fond of quoting and referring to what the Lord said on this occasion. As stated Jesus provides us with the secret of living a good life. If we rely on Him and follow Him, we will be blessed.
