PARISH MEMBERSHIP

ACTIVE MEMBERS of our parish are identified by their generosity of time, talent and treasure.

Stewardship is determined by:

- 1) Being properly registered and active for at least three months;
- 2) Faithful participation at Sunday liturgies;
- 3) Regular and identifiable support of the parish;

These criteria are used to verify parishioner status for: sponsorship; participation in sacramental, educational, pastoral and social ministries, activities and enrichment programs; and use of facilities and services.

Catholic School families requesting parish verification please visit the Catholic Schools page of our website for detailed requirements.

PALM SUNDAY

"Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!"

This weekend we celebrate one of the great liturgical dichotomies. We begin the liturgy with a procession of celebration, and we continue to the reading of the Passion, which reaches its zenith with the Lord calling out, 'Father, into your hands I commend my spirit'; and when he had said this he breathed his last. It is as if we move from joy and celebration to utter defeat and emptiness. However, that is the essence of our entire Lenten journey, and our beginning of Holy Week. One of the important aspects of discipleship is gaining a deeper understanding of our Faith, and the details relating to what we do and why we do it.

As a person who seeks to become a better steward, we need to understand that we travel with the Lord every step of the way, from the highs to the lows, from triumph to evident disaster. Like Peter, nonetheless, we may become reluctant. What are we really following and what are we really believing and practicing?

Throughout Lent we have been striving to deepen our relationship with the one we proclaim as our Lord and Savior. Nevertheless, when it comes right down to it, we may resist His invitation to us because it can mean pain, sacrifice, and suffering. That is why we must experience Lent. That is why we must experience His Passion. And that is why, next week on Easter Sunday, we will experience rising with the Lord in triumph, joy, and celebration. Truly, "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord."

THE SACRED TRIDUUM

HOLY THURSDAY

Solemn Liturgy of the Lord's Supper

7 pm

LENT ENDS AT SUNDOWN TODAY and the Paschal Triduum begins. On the evening of Holy Thursday we gather together and do something strange: We wash feet. We literally follow the Lord's command to serve one another by rededicating ourselves to ministerial service through participating in this unique communal action.

JESUS WASHED THE FEET OF HIS DISCIPLES. In the Middle East, where people's feet easily became dusty, this washing was an act of hospitality, usually performed by servants. This explains why the apostle Peter was embarrassed and told Jesus not to do it. But Jesus warned Peter, "Unless I wash you, you can have no share with me." Jesus then said, "I have given you an example; You must do for each other what I have done for you." Jesus left us an example of perfect charity by which we carry out his command to love one another.

Please volunteer to have your feet washed,
by signing the list in the church commons.
We need twelve people.

THE NEW HOLY OILS, blessed and consecrated by our Bishop earlier in the week, are dramatically presented to our local community. By accepting them, we affirm our belief in what they symbolize.

A SOLEMN PROCESSION follows Communion in which the consecrated elements are carried out of the worship space.
... Jesus continues on his journey to Golgotha ...

Night Watch begins...

Night Watch

Jesus invites us to keep watch with him as he did with his disciples in the Garden of Gethsemane.

The Eucharist is placed in repose until 11pm.

Night Watch will conclude with a thirty minute meditative prayer service at 11:00pm.

GOOD FRIDAY

This day is part of something bigger than itself. The liturgies of Good Friday have no formal beginnings or endings, no greetings or dismissals. The services are all part of the single, three-day liturgy of the TRIDUUM.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

12:00 pm

LITURGY OF THE PASSION

3:00 pm

The Passion in John's Gospel shows us how God's glory is accomplished in the suffering and death of Jesus. John portrays Jesus as very much in charge of his own destiny. As the "Christ," he is convinced of the value of his sacrifice and in the victory of the cross. Following the proclamation of the Passion, a large wooden cross is solemnly carried into the assembly. As we reverence this sign of our redemption we are challenged to consider the true weight of the crosses that each of us carries in life. The Eucharist is not celebrated today, however we are invited to receive Communion from hosts consecrated during the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper. This is our connection to the abiding presence of Christ with us ...

THROUGH HIS DEATH, WE RECEIVE LIFE!

TENEBRAE

7:30 pm

"TENEBRAE" is a Latin word, meaning darkness and shadows. The service is comprised of selections from the Psalms and the Book of Lamentations, accompanied by the extinguishing of candles and the dimming of lights. It has a surprise ending that challenges the level of our faith!

EASTER FLOWER MEMORIALS

Easter Flower envelopes were included in your monthly packet and are available in the church commons to inscribe the names of your loved ones, living & dead, to be remembered in all Masses throughout the Easter Season.

HOLY SATURDAY

A DAY OF REST

In Latin, Holy Saturday is SABBATUM SANCTUM, the Holy Sabbath. It is perhaps the strangest, most mysterious, most puzzling day on the liturgical calendar.

The mood this morning is very different than it was yesterday. We know what happened; it was horrible! We huddle together in prayer, seeking consolation, understanding, courage and guidance. Will we let the events that surround us in life weaken our faith, or strengthen it?

In the tomb, Jesus rested on the Sabbath. The Church rests in Christ today. The day should be marked by a sense of quiet contemplation, at least spiritually, even if not physically. Nothing is celebrated in church. Yes, we gather for RCIA rehearsal and the blessing of food, but they are not 'liturgical celebrations' of the kind we are used to.

In essence, we watch, we wait, we hold our breath - expecting, trusting, believing that something awesome is about to happen. In the truest sense, this event is not just something that happened to Jesus, but the New Life of Easter is offered as a gift to us and to all who believe!

BLESSING OF EASTER FOOD HOLY SATURDAY

11:30 AM

This ancient tradition is popular among the Slavic, Ukrainian, Polish and Italian cultures. The blessed food is shared at the Easter table. Baskets are usually decorated with white or embroidered linen as well as flowers or sprigs of greens. This is a wonderful custom to initiate in your household. Children are also welcome to bring their Easter Baskets for a special blessing.

A sampling of what you might find in a typical basket, and its symbolism:

- Bread - Jesus, the Bread of Life;
- Butter - God's goodness;
- Eggs - new life and Christ's Resurrection;
- Horseradish - the Passion of Christ;
- Salt and pepper - "You are salt of the earth;"
- Sausage, ham or other meat - generosity;
- Pastries - the sweetness of God's love;
- Wine - the richness and blessings of life;
- Lamb mold of butter, sugar or cake - representing Jesus as the Lamb of God.

THE EASTER VIGIL

8:30 pm

Easter Vigil begins.

On this night, every member of the Church is invited to gather with the soon-to-be-baptized. We keep watch together. We settle down "around the campfire" and listen to the paschal scriptures proclaimed. These are the epic renditions of our family tradition. St. Augustine said that, on this night above all other nights, "The Church keeps watch for the Lord and the Lord keeps watch over the Church!"

By the light of the newly kindled Paschal Candle, we listen to the stories that recall the creation of the universe and the origin of the human race. These are not in any way meant to be historical accounts but a testimony of faith in the one true God who is in all and through all.

We then hear about the Lord's deliverance from slavery in the Exodus/Passover event which leads to the deliverance from sin that Christ won for each and every one of us.

After the proclamation of the Easter Gospel, we call forth to the waters of Baptism and the Sacrament of Confirmation those who have newly professed their faith in the Lord and his Church. As we celebrate the Easter Sacraments with them, it is a time of renewal offered each of us to rededicate ourselves to a life based on these Baptismal promises.

Our gifts are then offered at the altar of God and the holy Eucharist is consecrated anew. Christ is re-presented in our midst once again, and all is well with us and with all the earth. Human history is renewed and hope is restored!

CHRIST IS RISEN, LET US REJOICE, ALLELUIA!

SJB CONCERT SERIES

SUNDAY, APRIL 9TH AT 4:00PM

Please join us for the presentation of Via Crucis - Way of the Cross, a service of scripture, music and prayer. Via Crucis is Hungarian composer Franz Liszt's "film score" of the story of Jesus' final journey to Golgotha. The Introduction and subsequent fourteen musical tableaux aurally depict the situations that Jesus encountered, and mirror the religious devotion of Stations of the Cross that was first established by St. Francis of Assisi, commemorating the Passion of Jesus. As always, concerts are free, but donations are appreciated.

All are Welcome!

RICE BOWLS

This custom is meant to heighten our awareness of the poor and needy throughout our 40 Day Lenten Journey. Please continue to use them throughout the season. After Easter, please deposit them in the box located in the Church Commons. We offer sincere gratitude on behalf of all who benefit from your sacrificial offering.

EVENING TOUR OF THE CHURCH

The Welcome Committee is offering a church tour on Wednesday, April 12 at 6:15 pm. All parishioners are welcome, especially those new to the parish. We will meet in the Commons area, just inside entrance by the bell tower. The tour takes about 30 minutes, is a good opportunity to meet other parishioners and learn about history, nooks and crannies, and accouterments of the church building. No need to sign up. Just show up! Contact -Eileen Connolly for information at eileenconnolly6@gmail.com.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

Most of us know today as Palm Sunday, although officially in the Church it is called Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion, and to many Church leaders it is simply Passion Sunday, which comes from the Latin name for it, Dominica Passionis. We have reflected on this day previously how the liturgy begins with great joy and becomes more and more somber with the reading of the Passion.

During the procession of the palms Jesus arrives in Jerusalem to great tumult and rejoicing as the people cry out "Hosanna... blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, hosanna in the highest." As the Mass progresses we get an overview of what is to occur during this holiest of weeks, including the institution of the Eucharist, the passion and death of the Lord, the prediction of His Resurrection, and then His Resurrection itself.

Imagine the confusion of the Twelve Apostles. Jesus has been spending time with them in the recent weeks prior to the Passion trying to get them to understand that His time of suffering was near and approaching, and that is the reason He must go to Jerusalem. And here is the crowd welcoming and praising and laughing and celebrating His presence.

We are not much different in many ways, but now is the time for us to really embrace and understand the sacrifice the Lord made for each of us, and the incredible gift He has given us. In the coming days it is our final chance to truly rededicate ourselves to being His disciple.
