STEWARDSHIP

Time ♦ Talent ♦ Treasure

Time is the most limited resource we have. Once it has passed, we can't get it back and we can't make more. People often say that they "don't have enough time" – but God gives us all the time that we need. We must ask ourselves: How am I choosing to use my time? Does it reflect my priorities? Am I intentional about putting down technology to have an uninterrupted conversation with God in prayer? How about with my family?

God has blessed me with the gift of time. What is one thing I can do today to be more generous with it?

Stewardship is the disciple's response.
What is YOUR response?

STAY WITH US CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 22, 2019. This year's theme is "Stay With US," which is a scripture quoting the two disciples on the road to Emmaus who invited Jesus to stay with them. (Luke 24:13–35) Catechists are persons who the Community has designated to serve as teachers of the faith will be called forth to be commissioned for their ministry. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in passing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank our catechists. Without them, we could not succeed!

GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP

The Action Program for Moving Beyond Death, Divorce, and Other Losses.

The Grief Recovery Method *

Myths about grief:

- Time heals all wounds
- Replace the loss
- Grieve alone
- Be strong for others
- Bury your feelings

Your feelings are normal and natural. The problem is that we have been socialized to believe that these feelings are abnormal and unnatural.

Whether your loss is from:

- Death - Spouse, Parent, Child, Pet
- Divorce or end of a relationship
- Loss of a career
- Loss of trust
- Loss of faith
- Loss of safety
- Loss of health

The 8 week program will begin Monday, September 16, from 7:00pm to 9:00pm. People say you have to let go and move on in your life, but they don't tell you what you need to do to accomplish that. The Grief Recovery Method Outreach Program not only makes that possible but provides partnerships and guidance to ensure that it happens.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

After today's readings, we can't say we have not been warned about the dangers of mixed up priorities. God's Word is so very clear today on the necessity of putting Him first in all areas of our lives.

We see this in the First Reading from Amos. The Lord has harsh words for those who would take advantage of the poor, and whose priorities are not aligned with God's.

In the Second Reading from St. Paul's letter to Timothy, Paul gives us the antidote to the self-centeredness condemned in our First Reading. The antidote is to imitate Christ, "who gave Himself as a ransom for all." Rather than thinking of Himself and how to "get ahead," Christ gave Himself away — completely — for our sake. That is how we are to live.

In our Gospel passage from Luke, the Lord shows us how to bridge the gap between worldly thinking and priorities, and eternal thinking and priorities. Jesus tells the parable of the corrupt but clever steward who is about to get fired when the master discovers the steward has been squandering his property. Realizing his imminent unemployed status, the clever steward reaches out to the various debtors of his master to wheel and deal with them, making friends who would look out for him when he became jobless.

What if we put that kind of effort into our own tasks as good stewards of all God's gifts to us? Into our ministries, into the ways we could make more time for prayer as individuals, as couples, as families and as a parish? What if we got as creative as the "bad steward" in the use of our finances so that we could give more generously to the poor and to the advancement of God's kingdom on the earth?

That's our lesson and our challenge.
