Bicentennial Campaign

Town Hall Meetings

- Sunday, November 17, 12:45pm, Commons
- Monday, November 18, 7:00pm, Commons
- Wednesday, November 20, 7:00pm, Commons
- Thursday, November 21, 7:00pm, Madden Hall

The Bicentennial Campaign is an extraordinary and intentional effort designed to strengthen our existing Diocesan programs and parishes/missions, while taking strides toward sustaining our growing Diocese into the next century. For nearly 200 years, the Catholic Church has ministered to the state of South Carolina through its parishes, people, and social programs. Bishop Guglielmone is dedicated to maintaining and strengthening parish communities and ensuring the continued formation of our Catholic family so we can evangelize and provide outreach to all South Carolinians. The Bicentennial Campaign will bolster the strong foundation of the Church to support these priorities well into the future.

We in the Diocese of Charleston encounter the Gospel of Christ most energetically through our many and diverse parishes, where the Church's vision for South Carolina is most directly fulfilled. Through receiving the sacraments, we come to know what it means to be part of the universal Church. This campaign will provide an infusion of financial resources for parishes to fulfill the challenges and ambitions of their mission: to realize

BICENTENNIAL NEWS

Many of you have inquired about the process of making payments towards the Bicentennial Campaign so we wanted to provide you with this update:

1. Parishioners who set up pledges that are not credit card or direct debit payments will be receiving pledge reminders with pre-addressed return envelopes depending on the payment schedule that was selected. Payments will be made to the Catholic Community Foundation of South Carolina and mailed to CCFSC – Bicentennial Campaign Office, P.O. Box 31257, Charleston, SC 29417. The pledge reminder is not a bill; simply a reminder.

2. Payments may be made on the schedule that best suits you. Payment schedules can be adjusted if necessary. If you have any questions regarding this reminder, you may call Anne Durney at the Diocese at 843-261-0437 or email her at adurney@charlestondiocese.org.

3. If you provided information for automatic credit card payment or bank withdrawal, those payments will be processed on or around the 15th of the month according to the schedule you requested. You will not receive monthly pledge reminders or return envelopes.

If you are required to take a REQUIRED MANDATORY DISTRIBUTION (RMD) from your IRA, please consider gifting all or part of it to the Bicentennial Campaign. Doing so will reduce your yearly taxable income by the amount of your donation transferred directly to the Campaign. All you need to do is contact your Financial Advisor with the amount you wish to donate. He or she will arrange the direct transfer. After the transfer, you will receive an acknowledgement of your donation from the Bicentennial Campaign Office.

To view a YouTube video hosted by Bishop Guglielmone with details about the Bicentennial Campaign, search: Diocese of Charleston Bicentennial Campaign on your computer or mobile device.

Scripture Reflection

In the context of Luke, today's Gospel appears near the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem, just prior to the events that will lead to his crucifixion. His warnings and predictions are ominous but can be read in many ways.

To those who first heard Luke's Gospel, those may have been words of encouragement. The destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem by the Romans was history (70 A.D.); Luke's Gospel, Catholic scholars propose, was written between 80 and 90 A.D. His audience was probably Gentile Christians. Luke here tries to interpret the fall of Jerusalem for them and to locate it in God's plans for humankind (salvation history). At the same time, Luke is suggesting to his audience that there will be a considerable elapse of time before Jesus' final coming. Luke's listeners have likely seen much upheaval and are anxious to know if these are the signs of Jesus' coming. Luke is urging greater patience.

In the second part of today's Gospel, Jesus warns that his followers will face persecution for their beliefs. Luke presents persecution as an opportunity for the followers of Jesus for "It will lead to your giving testimony" (Luke 21:13). In persecution God's wisdom and power will be shown in the example of followers of Jesus. Perseverance in the face of persecution will lead to their salvation.

Here Jesus is assuring his followers that God is present to all believers, even in times of trouble. Ultimately, Jesus will witness to this with his own death. As disciples of Jesus, we try to follow his example, trusting in God's mercy and protection, even when we are facing difficulties.
