USHERS NEEDED

Another message from Head Usher, Brian Riggle...

"Brothers and sisters, another message from Head Usher, Brian Riggle...as we slowly make our way back to a "normal" Mass experience the traditional roles and duties of Greeter and Usher will return. These ministries of hospitality are critical to providing a pleasant, comforting and safe sense of welcome, ease and family to our returning fellow parishioners and visitors.

If you would, please consider this invitation to join the Greeter and Usher corps. It would be very helpful to our parish family, Father Ray and the small army of those who make a quality Mass experience possible every weekend. Your commitment can be as involved as you like or less so, as little as once a month!

The ministries are very basic, easily learned and not physically demanding but the reward in satisfaction of serving each other, helping Father Ray and bringing glory to God by participating in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is awesome! Give me an email at Brianriggle714@gmail.com if interested, blessings."

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, Pope Pius VII canonically erected the Diocese of Charleston on July 11, 1820. This coming month, we will celebrate the bicentennial of its historic founding. To give glory to God and to mark this momentous occasion, the diocese has organized liturgies, conferences, events, displays, videos, and more that have taken new life in the post-pandemic world.

We are adjusting our celebration to meet our new normal and are excited to celebrate this momentous occasion for the remainder of 2020. For these events, we must rely on donations which can be made during a special collection which will be taken up August 9. These funds will help commemorate the important accomplishments in our history and inspire South Carolina's Catholics to unite as one. Please note that these funds are not associated with the Bicentennial Campaign and will be used specifically for the above stated purposes. We have much to celebrate in a state that offers countless stories of faith-filled men and women who have served and sacrificed, and of the ministry of our great Church. Our first bishop, Most Rev. John England, started out with a large territory comprised of Georgia, North Carolina, and South Carolina. He traveled throughout the territory and immediately began to make disciples and history. We continue to be a diocese of firsts, we had the first Catholic Church in the Carolinas and Georgia, the first important American Catholic theoretician of freedom of religion and separation of church and state, one of the first permanent deacons to be ordained in the United States, and the first Catholic newspaper in the country to name but a few. Please consider donating to the August 9 Special Collection to help us implement a meaningful enterprise for everyone. Your generosity will assist in uniting the people of God as they join together in celebrating our history, our present and our future. Thank you, and may God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Rev. Robert E. Guglielmone

OF CHARLESTON

901 ORANGE GROVE ROAD • CHARLESTON, SC 29407 • 843-261-0420

Dear Brothers in Christ, The recent months have brought us much uncertainty and unrest, and it is my prayer that you and your loved ones have felt the grace of God through this difficult time. Despite these challenges, I wish to express my most sincere appreciation for your continued devotion and commitment to your local parish, as well as to our larger Church family. As I am sure you are aware, the Diocese of Charleston turns 200 years old on July 11, 2020. In preparation for this milestone, we have been working across our diocese to strengthen our parishes, missions, outreach ministries, and social programs through the Bicentennial Campaign. While this effort has been overwhelmingly successful and will prepare us for the future, we must stop and reflect on the countless individuals who have built the Kingdom of God in South Carolina since our founding through their sacrifice and dedication. Please accept this letter as my personal invitation to you to attend a Vigil Mass and reception in commemoration of our bicentennial anniversary on July 11 in Columbia. We are pleased to be joined by Archbishop Gregory John Hartmayer of Atlanta for this celebration. Vigil Mass Celebrating the Bicentennial Anniversary Saturday, July 11 at 5:30 p.m. Basilica of St. Peter 1529 Assembly Street Columbia, SC 29201 Reception immediately following Mass on the campus of the Basilica of St. Peter. All planning and preparation for this event will be conducted with the safety and protection of attendees in mind. Social distancing will be practiced and masks are required for Mass. Parking is available behind the school. If you are unable to attend, please join us via livestream online on our Facebook and YouTube channels. The favor of a response is requested by June 24, 2020. RSVP cmumert@charlestondiocese.org or (843) 261-0435. In the Lord's Peace,
Most Rev. Robert E. Guglielmone, Bishop of Charleston

SUNDAY CONNECTION

Today's Gospel is the conclusion of the instructions and consolations that we have heard Jesus offering to his disciples during the past few weeks. In this passage, Jesus summarizes both the costs of discipleship and its rewards. Once again our understanding of the Gospel is strengthened by considering the context in which it was written and the perspective of Matthew's audience.

The conditions of discipleship outlined in Matthew's Gospel may appear harsh. Yet they underline for us a truth—choosing anything with one's whole heart has consequences. Choosing life with Christ means that every relationship we have must be understood from a new perspective. For many in Matthew's community, this choice brought division to their family.

Matthew also outlines the reward of hospitality offered to Jesus' followers. In today's Gospel, Jesus explains the difficulties of discipleship, yet reveals that those who welcome the disciples have also welcomed him.

Today's Gospel also highlights for us the importance of hospitality in the Christian life. To welcome another in Jesus' name is to extend hospitality to Jesus himself. We have many opportunities in our daily life to reach out to others, to be a welcoming presence and a sign of God's love.
