Important Opportunity to Grow in Faith

The Diocese of Charleston has signed an agreement to partner with the University of Dayton in offering Adult Faith Formation opportunities for those who need continual education credits: teachers and principals, parish staff, especially parish managers and coordinators, DRE's, youth ministers, etc. In fact, any lay person interested in learning about our faith and becoming an intentional disciple of the Lord may participate. Continual education of adults is a responsibility of each of us, especially with regard to the most important relationship in our lives -- God. It is our hope that individuals in your parish will want to take advantages of this new connection that the diocese has formed with another fine university, one supported by the Society of Mary (Marianists). This partnership does cost money for the diocese, so we are hoping our people, including our parishioners, sign up. You can receive credits and grow in your faith. In fact, one course is free when you go online. To sign up for a course and new classes starting in the fall, visit UD Virtual Learning Community. Create your student profile and chose a course. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Sister Kathy Adamski, OSF, associate director of the Office of Spirituality and Formation for Ministry, at kadamski@charlestdiocese.org.

This office also hopes to offer tuition assistance this fall for those that specifically minister in the church. Course fees are $40 and $50. Feel free to go online and investigate this great opportunity: <https://vlcff.udayton.edu>.

If you wondering if preserving life is a moral imperative then you should attend. If you think preserving life does NOT have a moral imperative then you should attend. Can the answer be found in Federal or State law? You'll find out by attending the 3rd Annual South Carolina Life Conference, hosted by Pro-Life Charleston, on September 12, 2020. Matt Britton will address this topic. He serves as the the board secretary and general counsel for 40 Days for Life. He has had an expansive legal career including four terms as an elected prosecutor; a county attorney; counsel to many not-for-profits and U.S. companies operating around the world; a major law firm litigator; and general counsel. Matt has written and spoken countless times on a wide range of legal and pro-life issues in locations across the United States and abroad. Most importantly, Matt is married to Libby Britton, and they have eight beautiful children and two grandchildren. The location of the Conference is Christ Our King/Stella Maris School, Mt. Pleasant, SC. The date of the Conference is September 12, 2020 from 9 AM to 4 PM. Seating is limited. Registration is open. The price increases to $50 the beginning of August so register now by clicking this link:<https://tinyurl.com/y5jhpj8j>

As a registered attendee, after the Conference you will be able to receive audio links, and possibly video links, to the keynote and breakout speakers' presentations. Be not afraid. We will be following the latest CDC and local COVID-19 guidelines. "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid." [John 14:27]

The Compassionate Cafe

The Mourner's Bill of Rights, published by The Center for Loss and Transition, lists ten rights that are meant to empower mourners to heal their grief and set boundaries for others to help them or not depending on the circumstances. We have talked about these rights at The Compassionate Cafe and now we'll share a them in this Bulletin space for the next few weeks.

The first three rights of mourners were in last week's bulletin. Here are four, five and six.

4. You have the right to be tolerant of your physical and emotional limits. Your feelings of loss and sadness will probably leave you feeling fatigued. Respect what your body and mind are telling you. Get daily rest. Eat balanced meals, and don't allow others to push you into doing things you don't feel ready to do.

5. You have the right to experience "grief-bursts". Sometimes, out of nowhere, a powerful surge of grief may overcome you. This can be frightening but it is normal and natural. Find someone who understands and will let you talk it out.

6. You have the right to make use of ritual. The funeral ritual does more than acknowledge the death of someone loved. It helps provide you with the support of caring people. More importantly, the funeral is a way for you to mourn. If others tell you the funeral or other healing rituals such as these are silly or unnecessary, don't listen.

The Compassionate Cafe meets next 10 A.M., August 13, Madden Hall.

SUNDAY CONNECTION

Today we jump ahead in our reading of Matthew's Gospel to Chapter 14. Last week we heard Jesus conclude his discourse with the crowds about the Kingdom of Heaven. In Matthew's narrative, Jesus then leaves the crowds and returns to Nazareth, where he is rejected. Matthew then recounts the story of John the Baptist's arrest and execution at the hands of Herod. Today's Gospel reading begins at this point. Upon hearing the news of the death of John the Baptist, Jesus seeks to withdraw, but the crowds follow him. Jesus reaches out to them in compassion and heals the sick. At the end of a long day, the disciples encourage Jesus to send the crowds away so that they might find provisions for themselves. Jesus again responds with compassion for the crowd. Jesus tells his disciples to provide food for the crowd. The disciples reply with a report of the meagerness of their own provisions—five loaves and two fish. The result is the very familiar miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fish. Matthew's Gospel tells us that 5,000 men were fed, and this number does not even include the women and children. Jesus' blessing brought abundance from the meager provisions of the disciples. In this action, Jesus offers us a sign of the Kingdom of Heaven that he has been teaching about in the parables. Even the smallest of offerings can produce abundant results when placed in the service of the Kingdom of Heaven. We find the story of Jesus' multiplication of the loaves and the fish in each of the four Gospels. In the Gospels of Mark and Matthew, Jesus performs this same miracle on two separate occasions. The story of this miracle is an anticipation of the Eucharist in which we are fed by the abundant grace of God. The importance of the Eucharist has been a defining element of Christian life from the very beginning. <https://www.loyolapress.com/catholic-resources/liturgical-year/sunday-connection/>
