PARISH MEMBERSHIP

ACTIVE MEMBERS of our parish are identified by their generosity of time, talent and treasure.

Stewardship is determined by:

- 1) Being properly registered and active for at least three months;
- 2) Faithful participation at Sunday liturgies;
- 3) Regular and identifiable support of the parish.

These criteria are used to verify parishioner status for: sponsorship; participation in sacramental, educational, pastoral and social ministries, activities and enrichment programs; and use of facilities and services. Catholic School families requesting parish verification please visit the Catholic Schools page of our website for detailed requirements.

NEW BEGINNINGS

Are you suffering from the pain of separation or divorce? Learn how you can find love and joy again at the New Beginnings online summit from Friday, Sept. 11 to Saturday, Sept. 12. The event is free, although donations are requested and appreciated. Presentations will be in English with simultaneous Spanish translation. The expert presenters include author John Gray ("Men Are from Mars, Women Are from Venus"), Father Roger Gustafson, Father Al Groskopf, Dr. Ann Vano, author Vince Frese, and many more. Register at www.newbeginningsevents.org.

RCIA

ARE YOU SOMEONE OR DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO...

- Has expressed an interest in the Catholic faith and possibly becoming Catholic?
- Has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized?
- Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?
- Have a spouse that sits beside you in church, but is not Catholic and he/she has a lot of questions?
- Has a calling to know what it means to live in Communion with God and live catholic?

We offer an opportunity to come together in a small group setting to learn more about our Catholic faith and for those seeking a deep meaningful life with and in Christ Jesus. Sessions begin with a period of inquiry where we focus on the teachings and the experience of Church life. Then, when ready to grow in communion with Christ and his Church, we prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the current Easter season. Separate sessions for children and youth are available and online sessions will be made available during Covid-19 with a community meeting once a month. All are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights and your faith stories in a warm accepting environment. Our Inquiry sessions will begin on Sunday, September 20th at 10:30 am in the Sr. Carol room of Madden Hall. The online inquiry session will be on Wednesday, September 22nd at 6:00pm. Please contact Michelle Hollis at RCIA@sjbsummerville.org if you are interested in this blessed journey.

THE COMPASSIONATE CAFÉ

Grief is the normal and natural reaction to loss. Unfortunately, society's clichés about grief, "be strong", "keep busy", "time heals all wounds", may have caused you to cover up your normal and natural responses to loss.

Beginning September 14, 2020, St. John the Beloved Church is sponsoring The Grief Recovery Method® Grief Support Group, which is operated under the format and guidelines established by The Grief Recovery Institute. This action program meets weekly in the Commons from 7 - 9 PM for 8 weeks and is designed to assist people in completing the pain caused by loss.

To learn more about the Grief Recovery Method, come to the Commons at 7 P.M., Tuesday, September 8, 2020, for a short introductory program.

The facilitator for the program is Paul Brustowicz, a Certified Grief Recovery Specialist. This evidence-based, time-proven method is based in part on helping grievers create a new level of awareness. Part of the process is helping you to better understand all the different life experiences that produce grief.

For more information on the program call: Paul Brustowicz at St. John the Beloved Church, or at 732-801-8333 (cell), or send an email to paul_brustowicz@sc.rr.com.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

Today's Gospel reading directly follows last week's Gospel in which Jesus taught the disciples how to handle disputes and conflict within the Christian community. In today's reading Peter asks Jesus how many times one ought to extend forgiveness to another. Peter proposes a reasonable number of times, perhaps seven. Jesus replies by extending Peter's proposal by an enormous amount; not just seven times should one forgive, but 77 times. The parable of the unforgiving servant is Jesus' elaboration of his initial reply to Peter. Through the parable we come to understand the depths of God's mercy toward us and the results of our acceptance of God's forgiveness.

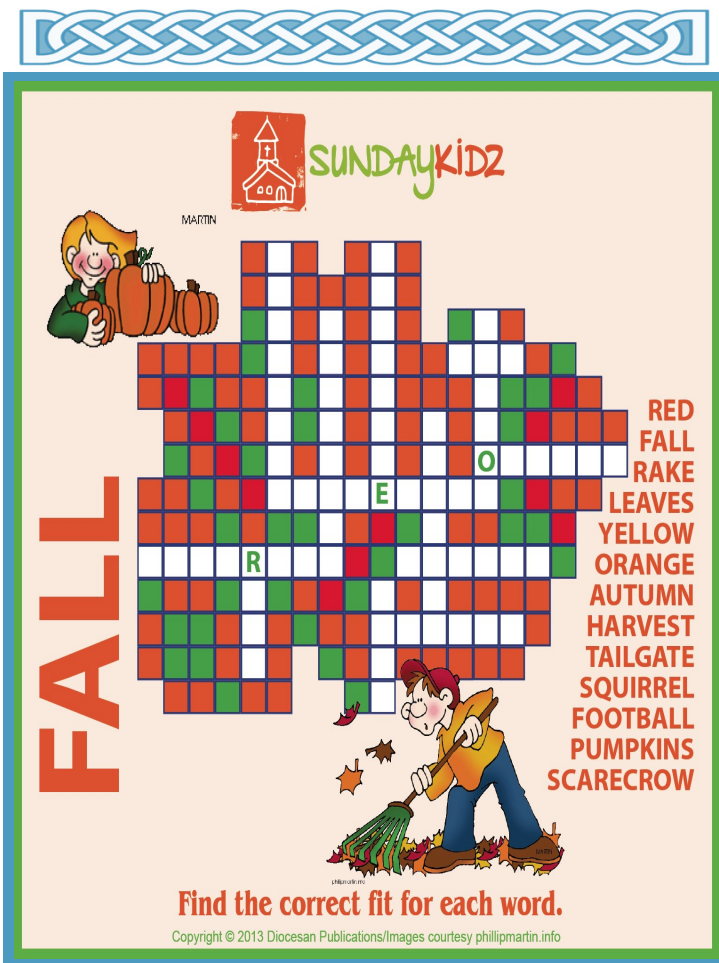

The king in the parable decides to settle accounts with his servants. We are told that one servant in particular owes the king an enormous sum of money. Despite the promise of the servant, it is unlikely that he would ever be able to repay the debt that he owes. The king is moved by the humility of the pleading servant and mercifully forgives the debt. Rather than displaying gratitude for this forgiveness, the servant confronts a fellow servant who owes him a small debt—a pittance when compared with the amount that was owed to the king. The unmerciful servant refuses the pleas of his fellow servant and sends the servant to prison.

A few other servants tell the merciful king about the actions of the unforgiving servant. The king punishes the servant because he refused to show the kind of mercy he had himself received from the king. Jesus concludes by indicating that this is how it will be with God and those who refuse to forgive one another.

There is a temptation to quantify forgiveness as Peter tried to do, but Jesus' point is that forgiveness is not about quantity—the number of times we extend forgiveness to another. In the parable the king's forgiveness is like God's forgiveness, and it transforms us, helping us to be as forgiving as God. The lesson is clear: If we hoard God's mercy while showing no mercy to others, we risk forfeiting the effects of God's mercy in our lives.
