STATIONS OF THE CROSS

JOIN US EVERY FRIDAY DURING LENT AT 7:00 PM FOR STATIONS OF THE CROSS.

Since the earliest days of the Church, pilgrims have walked the streets of Jerusalem in the footsteps of Christ on his way to Calvary. Some of these events are noted in the Gospel accounts and some founded in ancient tradition. Since most people could not travel to that Holy City in person, customs developed of bringing Jerusalem to the local church!

LENTEN REGULATIONS

Catholics 14 years of age and older are obliged to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent. Catholics age 18-59 years of age are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday—a fast consisting of one normal meal and two lesser meals, with no eating in between.

It is also recommended that Catholics find opportunities through the Lenten season to complement their fasts with prayer, reception of the Sacraments of Reconciliation and the Eucharist, and positive works of charity.

CONGRATULATIONS!!!!!

Please join us in congratulating our very own Rhoda Hiott! She is in receipt of the Benemerenti Medal.

The medal is an honor awarded by the Pope to members of the clergy and laity for service to the Catholic Church.

Rhoda, thank you for all you humbly do for our parish. You have certainly earned it!

The diocese released the following statement today related to Gov. Henry McMaster signing the S.C. Fetal Heartbeat and Protection from Abortion Act into law: "This is a historic day in South Carolina in the Church's effort to protect the unborn. Every human life is sacred from the moment of conception until natural death. This new law will save the lives of our most vulnerable from the moment their heartbeat is detected.

"Although we anticipate litigation on this issue, the battle to preserve life must include the courts in our system of government. We welcome the opportunity to defend the unborn and build a culture of life."

SUNDAY CONNECTION

On the second Sunday of Lent in each Lectionary cycle, the Gospel reading proclaims the story of Jesus' Transfiguration. This event is reported in each of the Synoptic Gospels—Matthew, Mark, and Luke. This year, in Lectionary Cycle B, we hear Mark's report of this event.

In each case, Jesus takes three of his disciples—Peter, James, and John—to a high mountain. While they are there, Elijah and Moses appear with Jesus. In Matthew's and Mark's Gospel, there is reference to a conversation among Jesus, Elijah, and Moses, but only Luke's Gospel includes the detail that this conversation is about what Jesus will accomplish in Jerusalem.

Elijah and Moses are significant figures in the history of Israel. Moses led the Israelites from slavery in Egypt and received from Yahweh the Ten Commandments. In appearing with Jesus at his Transfiguration, Moses represents the Law that guides the lives of the Jewish people. Elijah is remembered as one of the most important prophets of Israel who helped the Israelites stay faithful to Yahweh. Some Jews believed that Elijah's return would signal the coming of the Messiah for the Jewish people. This belief is evidenced in the question posed by Jesus' disciples after they have witnessed the Transfiguration. The appearance of these two important figures from Israel's history with Jesus signifies Jesus' continuity with the Law and with the prophets and that Jesus is the fulfillment of all that was promised to the people of Israel.

On seeing Jesus with Elijah and Moses and having witnessed his Transfiguration, Peter offers to construct three tents for them. Mark reports that the disciples are terrified by what they have witnessed and that Peter's offer is made out of confusion. We also notice that Peter has reverted from his earlier confession that Jesus is the Messiah, calling Jesus rabbi instead. As if in reply to Peter's confusion, a voice from heaven speaks, affirming Jesus as God's Son and commanding the disciples to obey him. This voice from heaven recalls the voice that was heard at Jesus' baptism.

In his Transfiguration, we see an anticipation of the glory of Jesus' Resurrection. In each of the reports of the Transfiguration, Jesus instructs the disciples to keep secret what they have seen until after the Son of Man has risen from the dead. The disciples' confusion continues as they wonder what Jesus means by rising from the dead. The disciples cannot possibly understand Jesus' Transfiguration until they also witness his passion and death. We hear the story of Jesus' Transfiguration early in Lent, but we have the benefit of hindsight. In our hearing of it, we anticipate Jesus' Resurrection, even as we prepare to remember Jesus' passion and death.
