PARISH MEMBERSHIP

ACTIVE MEMBERS of our parish are identified by their generosity of time, talent and treasure.

Stewardship is determined by:

- 1) Being properly registered and active for at least three months;
- 2) Faithful participation at Sunday liturgies;
- 3) Regular and identifiable support of the parish.

These criteria are used to verify parishioner status for: sponsorship; participation in sacramental, educational, pastoral and social ministries, activities and enrichment programs; and use of facilities and services. Catholic School families requesting parish verification please visit the Catholic Schools page of our website for detailed requirements.

AN EASTER MESSAGE FROM FATHER RAY

Alleluia! He is risen! These words have echoed for 2,000 years in the hearts and souls of the faithful, and we continue the chorus today! Despite so much bad news everywhere in our world and so many reasons for discouragement, we are filled with hope and joy today and always because Jesus is alive! He is with us! God's power and God's love triumphs even over death! The Easter message is that no matter how dark or dead or hopeless something seems, God's love and power can always bring resurrection and new life! Alleluia! Praise the Lord!

This is why the early Christians moved the Church's Sabbath from Saturday, the Jewish Sabbath, to Sunday, the day of the Resurrection of Jesus. In fact, the early Church understood the weekly gathering for Sunday liturgy as a "little Easter," since the Mass is a celebration and sacrifice of the death and Resurrection of Christ each time.

May all of us be overflowing with joy today! May we be eager and anxious to share our faith in the Risen Christ with everyone we meet! May we freely tell of all the wonderful blessings that this brings to our own lives. May we especially share this message with those who do not have faith or who are finding it difficult to rejoice and be hopeful!

Our Easter message sends us on a mission. It is a call for us to whole-heartedly live that message and all it means each day of our lives among everyone we meet!

And so, as we celebrate Easter this year, may we never be discouraged! May we not be saddened or downhearted even though difficulties, pandemics, burdens and crosses continuously enter our paths. May we keep this message foremost in our minds and hearts. And may you and your loved ones have a very blessed and joyous Easter!

Jesus is alive! He is risen! Alleluia!

God Bless,
Father Ray Carlo

ROMAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF CHARLESTON

901 ORANGE GROVE ROAD • CHARLESTON, SC 29407 • 843-261-0420

The S.C. House of Representatives passed the first round of the annual state budget. This $9.8B fund includes several provisions that the S.C. Catholic Conference was proud to support, including the following provisos to:

1. protect religious organizations who have for decades provided valuable foster care services to vulnerable children who seek a safe and stable home; with the passing of this proviso these organizations will not have to forgo their religious beliefs and mission in order to provide this needed service to children in our state;
2. grow and embolden the special needs programs for children in our Catholic schools;
3. restrict access to abortion services in the state health plan;
4. increase broadband internet access to our rural communities;
5. increase the base student cost for each student in our public schools;
6. afford each public school in the state to have a nurse on staff;
7. insure that non-public school students are not barred from participating in interscholastic athletic programs due to attendance zone barriers established by the S.C. High School League.

This budget now heads to the Senate. We pray they continue to uphold the dignity of the human person in their deliberations. Please encourage your parishioners to contact their state representatives to support these important, life-affirming provisos.

A HUGE THANK YOU!

St John The Beloved parish gives a big THANK YOU to all the ladies of our Women's Group for their work scrubbing and cleaning the church to make it sparkle for Easter time. May God richly bless y'all!!!

COMPASSIONATE CAFE

At The Compassionate Cafe we share our feelings of grief without judgement, criticism or advice. We are not a prayer group but we do talk about our prayers for relief and recovery from the pain of our losses. At our last meeting, we had a book review of Joyce Rupp's Praying our Goodbyes, A Spiritual Companion Through Life's Losses and Sorrows.

Praying our Goodbyes is really two books in one. In the first half, Rupp takes us on a journey of goodbyes: death, divorce, relationships in disrepair and other sufferings in life that can lead to despair. Through stories about loss and suffering, some from her personal experience, she leads us to introspection at the end of each chapter with questions for reflection, integration and discussion. The second half of the book is devoted to Prayers for those experiencing goodbyes. These twenty-four prayers are unique in that she provides not just words but instructions for the prayerful environment to say our goodbyes to different kinds of losses. The pattern is the same for all twenty-four: an image, an opening prayer, a reflection, a prayer, some scripture, and a closing prayer. Praying Our Goodbyes is available from Ave Maria Press, Notre Dame, IN.

Come to The Compassionate Cafe, Thursday, April 8, 10 A.M. in Madden Hall.

DIVINE MERCY DEVOTION

Please join us on Sunday, April 11th to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy at 3pm.

Jesus asked Saint Faustina to urge people to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy on the Feast of Divine Mercy (the Sunday after Easter) at 3pm.

May we pray it together in church!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Knights of Columbus will be selling Calendar Raffles now through July 31. 92 chances to win cash prizes (min. $75 - max. $300). Total of $10,000 to be given away. Profits to be used by the Knights for their Charitable Outreach Programs. Each Calendar is $20 and has a 3 digit number (1,000 to be sold).

SUNDAY CONNECTION

Today we begin the Easter Season, our 50-day meditation on the mystery of Christ's Resurrection. Our Gospel today tells us about the disciples' discovery of the empty tomb. It concludes by telling us that they did not yet understand that Jesus had risen from the dead. Thus, the details provided are not necessarily meant to offer proof of the Resurrection. The details invite us to reflect upon a most amazing gift, that is faith in Jesus and his Resurrection. Each of the four Gospels tells us that Jesus' empty tomb was first discovered by women. This is notable because in first-century Jewish society women could not serve as legal witnesses. In the case of John's Gospel, the only woman attending the tomb is Mary of Magdala. Unlike the Synoptic accounts, John's Gospel does not describe an appearance of angels at the tomb. Instead, Mary is simply said to have observed that the stone that had sealed the tomb had been moved, and she runs to alert Simon Peter and the beloved disciple. Her statement to them is telling. She assumes that Jesus' body has been removed, perhaps stolen. She does not consider that Jesus has been raised from the dead.

Simon Peter and the beloved disciple race to the tomb, presumably to verify Mary's report. The beloved disciple arrives first but does not enter the tomb until after Simon Peter. This detail paints a vivid picture, as does the detail provided about the burial cloths. Some scholars believe that the presence of the burial cloths in the tomb offers evidence to the listener that Jesus' body had not been stolen (it is understood that grave robbers would have taken the burial cloths together with the body). The Gospel passage concludes, however, that even having seen the empty tomb and the burial cloths, the disciples do not yet understand about the Resurrection. In the passage that follows, Mary of Magdala meets Jesus but mistakes him for the gardener. In the weeks ahead, the Gospel readings from our liturgy will show us how the disciples came to believe in Jesus' Resurrection through his appearances to them. Our Easter faith is based on their witness to both the empty tomb and their continuing relationship with Jesus—in his appearances and in his gift of the Holy Spirit.
