ALL SOULS DAY MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

We will have our special Mass of Remembrance on Tuesday, November 2nd (All Souls Day) at 9am. At this special Mass, we will call the names of all those who have been buried from St John The Beloved church during the past year and ring a bell for each name.

The families of the deceased are encouraged to attend. They are invited to come up when the name of their loved one has been called to light a little candle from the Easter candle, and place it in the sand in front of the altar. Thus they can profess their faith in the resurrection and eternal life.

Not to leave anyone out, everyone else who is attending is then welcome to also come up to also light a candle from the Easter candle and place it in the sand to remember their loved ones as well.

This way, all who are in attendance will have the opportunity to once again profess their faith in the resurrection and eternal life!

Everyone is welcome to attend.

WHO WANTS TO MAKE A TRADE WITH FATHER?

Father would like to trade his almost brand new elliptical machine (only used half a dozen times) for someone's treadmill that is in good shape.

He bought it because his good friend who is a priest on Long Island got one and is using his, but Father just doesn't like it. He would rather use a good old treadmill instead.

If anyone would like to make that trade, please let Father Ray know.

Thank you, and God bless you!

COMING SOON!

Look for details on the "Christmas at Sea Project" in future bulletins!

ALL SOULS DAY ENVELOPES

SUNDAY CONNECTION

In this Sunday's Gospel, we continue to read from the section of Mark's Gospel that reports Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. Last Sunday we heard Jesus lament the particular challenges those with many possessions face in order to enter the Kingdom of God. Jesus then predicts his passion to the Twelve, who are amazed and afraid. In this part of Mark's Gospel, Jesus' words to his closest disciples seem to be intended to prepare them for the events that will occur in Jerusalem.

In today's Gospel, James and John ask to be given seats of honor when Jesus enters into his glory. Once again, the disciples seem to be selective in what they hear Jesus say. They want to share Jesus' glory, but do not appear to understand that his glory will be preceded by his suffering. Jesus notes their lack of understanding and predicts the suffering they will endure for the sake of the Gospel. Jesus says that the honor they seek is not his to give. When the other ten hear what James and John have asked, Mark reports that they are indignant. Jesus takes the opportunity to teach them.

Jesus explains the importance of service and sacrifice in the life of a disciple. In particular, he seems to be preparing the Twelve for their leadership roles in the emerging Christian community. Echoing the Gospel we heard several weeks ago (on the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Mark 9:33-37), Jesus acknowledges that his teaching is countercultural. In today's Gospel, Jesus contrasts the dynamics within the community of disciples with those shown by the rulers of the Gentiles.

Following Jesus' example of sacrificial love continues to be countercultural in our day as well. We might take this opportunity to consider our models of authority and examine our own exercise of authority. On whose example do we model our leadership?
