AN EASTER MESSAGE FROM FATHER RAY

Alleluia! He is risen! These words have echoed for 2,000 years in the hearts and souls of the faithful, and we continue the chorus today! Despite so much bad news everywhere in our world and so many reasons for discouragement, we are filled with hope and joy today and always because Jesus is alive! He is with us! God's power and God's love triumphs even over death! The Easter message is that no matter how dark or dead or hopeless something seems, God's love and power can always bring resurrection and new life! Alleluia! Praise the Lord!

This is why the early Christians moved the Church's Sabbath from Saturday, the Jewish Sabbath, to Sunday, the day of the Resurrection of Jesus. In fact, the early Church understood the weekly gathering for Sunday liturgy as a "little Easter," since the Mass is a celebration and sacrifice of the death and Resurrection of Christ each time.

May all of us be overflowing with joy today! May we be eager and anxious to share our faith in the Risen Christ with everyone we meet! May we freely tell of all the wonderful blessings that this brings to our own lives. May we especially share this message with those who do not have faith or who are finding it difficult to rejoice and be hopeful!

Our Easter message sends us on a mission. It is a call for us to whole-heartedly live that message and all it means each day of our lives among everyone we meet!

And so, as we celebrate Easter this year, may we never be discouraged! May we not be saddened or downhearted even though difficulties, pandemics, burdens and crosses continuously enter our paths. May we keep this message foremost in our minds and hearts. And may you and your loved ones have a very blessed and joyous Easter!

Jesus is alive! He is risen! Alleluia!

God Bless,
Father Ray Carlo

SUNDAY CONNECTION

All four Gospels have an account of the Death and Resurrection of Jesus. Although the accounts differ depending on the point each Evangelist wishes to make, two points of the Resurrection testimony are common to all four Gospels: 1) The tomb of Jesus was found empty and 2) The risen Christ appeared to certain persons. Matthew tells us that, as Mary Magdalene and the other Mary approached the tomb, there was a great earthquake, and "an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, approached, rolled back the stone, and sat upon it." The guards stationed at the tomb were terrified and "became like dead men." The angel then assured the women that Jesus "has been raised just as he said." The women, "fearful yet overjoyed," left the tomb as the angel instructed to tell the disciples. On their way, Jesus met and greeted the women who "embraced his feet and did him homage." Jesus himself then sends the women to "tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me."

The mention of a great earthquake is peculiar to Matthew's account of the Resurrection. Metaphorically, it indicates the coming of a new and final age brought about through the life, teaching, ministry, and particularly through the Death and Resurrection of Jesus. Notable also is the fact that Jesus' first appearance is to women, the women who came to minister to him. Finally, not to be overlooked, is Jesus' use of the word "brothers" to refer to his disciples. It seems to be indicative of a new and different relationship that Jesus has with them. The disciples are now entrusted with the message and mission of the risen Jesus Christ.
