A PRAYER FOR THE UNBORN

O God, who has given us the great gift of life, we ask You today to bless all unborn babies.

Watch over them as they grow and develop in their mother's womb, that they might be born healthy and happy and be welcomed with tender love and deep joy.

In a special way, we ask you to bless those babies who are unwanted and may never be born. Welcome them into Your loving embrace that they might find their home in You.

Bless and guide all pregnant women and expectant fathers, that together they might respect and cherish the gift of life granted to them. May they accept this child as an irreplaceable gift from You. Amen

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Do you desire a deeper, richer spiritual life? Spiritual direction is an exploration of God working in your life to gain clarity, draw closer to the Lord, and grow in love of God, yourself and others. It is a sacred time with a companion, to encounter the Lord. It is a private, confidential, supportive conversation guided by the Holy Spirit.

COMPASSIONATE CAFE

Summer officially started on June 21 this year. School is already out for the Summer, folks are traveling for vacation and Vacation Bible Schools are in full swing. What is not on vacation? GRIEF. Grief never seems to take a vacation.

Death, divorce, broken relationships, job loss or any other of forty-plus life events can leave us grieving. If you are grieving, just know that grief is the normal and natural reaction to loss of any kind.

One of the myths about grief is that griever's need to be alone. Not true, that is why it is a myth. Griever's need to share their feelings and emotions in a safe environment.

If you are grieving, come to The Compassionate Cafe on Thursday, July 13 at 10 A.M. in The Commons. It is an opportunity to share with others without judgment or criticism.

For more information call Paul Brustowicz, 732-801-8333 (cell), or send an email to Paul_Brustowicz@sc.rr.com.

SUNDAY CONNECTION

First Reading

2 Kings 4:8-11,14-16a

Hospitality extended to Elisha will be rewarded.

Second Reading

Romans 6:3-4,8-11

Through Christ we are dead to sin but alive in God.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel is the conclusion of the instructions and consolations that we have heard Jesus offering to his disciples during the past few weeks. In this passage, Jesus summarizes both the costs of discipleship and its rewards. Once again our understanding of the Gospel is strengthened by considering the context in which it was written and the perspective of Matthew's audience.

The conditions of discipleship outlined in Matthew's Gospel may appear harsh. Yet they underline for us a truth—choosing anything with one's whole heart has consequences. Choosing life with Christ means that every relationship we have must be understood from a new perspective. For many in Matthew's community, this choice brought division to their family.

Matthew also outlines the reward of hospitality offered to Jesus' followers. In today's Gospel, Jesus explains the difficulties of discipleship, yet reveals that those who welcome the disciples have also welcomed him.

Today's Gospel also highlights for us the importance of hospitality in the Christian life. To welcome another in Jesus' name is to extend hospitality to Jesus himself. We have many opportunities in our daily life to reach out to others, to be a welcoming presence and a sign of God's love.
