ALL SAINTS DAY

This year, the Holy Day of All Saints Day falls on Wednesday, November 1, 2023. It is a Holy Day of obligation. We will have two Masses. The first will be at 9:00 a.m. and we will have a second Mass at 6:30 p.m. All are welcome and encouraged to attend.

ALL SOULS DAY MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

We will have our special Mass of Remembrance on Thursday, November 2nd (All Souls Day) at 9am. At this special Mass, we will call the names of all those who have been buried from St John The Beloved church during the past year and ring a bell for each name.

The families of the deceased are encouraged to attend. They are invited to come up when the name of their loved one has been called to light a little candle from the Easter candle, and place it in the sand in front of the altar. Thus they can profess their faith in the resurrection and eternal life.

Not to leave anyone out, everyone else who is attending is then welcome to also come up to also light a candle from the Easter candle and place it in the sand to remember their loved ones as well.

This way, all who are in attendance will have the opportunity to once again profess their faith in the resurrection and eternal life!

Everyone is welcome to attend.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Next weekend, we will unite with the global Church in celebrating World Mission Sunday. This Year, Pope Francis illuminates our path with the theme: "Hearts on fire, feet on the move." As we prepare to observe this special day, we are reminded to ignite our hearts with Christ's love and extend that warmth to the most vulnerable corners of our world. Your fervent prayers and upcoming generosity in the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith will bolster the missionaries working in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and certain regions of Latin America and Europe. Let us come together to support them in their mission of love and service Thank you!

DE COLORES CURSILLO COMMUNITY!

A monthly Ultreya meeting of the Cursillo Movement will take place on the 2nd Monday of every month beginning October 9th from 7:00-8:30 PM in the Church Sanctuary. Whether you have attended a Cursillo retreat or not, EVERYONE is invited to attend this meeting to find out how Cursillo can help a person develop a deeper understanding of what it means to be fully Catholic in order to exercise their mission as Baptized Individuals.

Kairos Prison Ministry International Needs Your Help!

Christian volunteers, men and women, work together 'inside' the prison and in the 'outside' communities to fulfill Christ's call to action in Matthew 25:36: "...I was in prison and you visited me."

Kairos Prison Ministry International is a Christian faith-based ministry that addresses the spiritual needs of incarcerated men, women, youth; their families and the professionals who work with them. The work is this: to share the love and forgiveness of Jesus Christ.

Society spends more than $60 billion/year to keep 2.3 million inmates incarcerated, whereas the Kairos program is offered at no cost to State and/or Federal Institutions.

An inmate writes: "It's been said that it costs the government $1 million to keep me locked up, and a $250 program from Kairos set me free." kairospisonministry.org. Please prayerfully consider volunteering for this ministry.

ALL SOULS DAY ENVELOPES

The All Souls Day envelopes are in the church now. If you would like, please write the names of those who you would like to be remembered at all the Masses during the month of November. The month of November traditionally is the month of All Souls. We will place the all Souls Day envelopes in a basket on the altar, and those names will be remembered at all of our weekday as well as weekend Masses throughout November.

COMPASSIONATE CAFE

Have you noticed the CareNotes display in The Church Commons? It is over there on the small table next to the window on the right hand side as you face the TV. The CareNotes are inspirational booklets that offer spiritual healing for anyone who is grieving the loss of a loved one. Notice that they are in plastic sleeves to protect them from the humidity not to keep you from taking one. Feel free to take whatever suits your need.

Each CareNote is a short read, usually six or seven pages, on a specific topic. There are CareNotes for widows, widowers, bereaved parents and bereaved adult children. Feel free to take one for a friend or family member. We'll be changing them shortly and adding CareNotes on grief and holidays. Be sure to look for them.

The loneliest CareNote is the one titled "What To Say to Someone Who Is Grieving". If you are not sure what one to take, pick that one. It is always in season.

The Compassionate Cafe stocks the CareNotes. Come to our November 9 meeting at 10 A.M. in The Commons. Holidays and grief will be the topic. For more information contact Paul Brustowicz, 732-801-8333 (mobile) or email Paul\_Brustowicz@sc.rr.com.

ROMAN CATHOLIC
DIocese
OF CHARLESTON
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As a follow-up to the letter I wrote to you in June of this year, I am writing once again to check in and ask how you are doing. Have you been following your great commission to "go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel?" (Mk 16:15). Have you been involved in parish life? Have you been faithfully attending/participating in Sunday liturgy?

I also want this letter to serve as a reminder that your faith journey is only beginning. Though you have entered the fullness of the Church, you still have your whole life ahead to discern your vocation and glorify God in every moment. I urge you to continue listening to the Holy Spirit and to be courageous and bold in the evangelization of your peers and families.

I invite you and your family to a special Mass in honor of all of those who have been confirmed this year. It will be celebrated at the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist in Charleston on Sunday, Nov. 5, at 2:00 p.m. I will preside at this Mass and Bishop emeritus Robert E. Guglielmo will be our homilist. We will also have a reception following. RSVP via the QR code or website below.

I look forward to this new opportunity to hear where the Lord has been leading you. Please be assured of my prayers for you. May God bless you, and may he give you the courage to do his will.

In Christ's love,

DIocese
OF CHARLESTON
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

World Mission Sunday will be celebrated on Sunday, Oct. 22, and Pope Francis asks all of us to focus not on the country in which we live, but on the mission fields of our world. Why? Because there are 258,540 religious sisters laboring there; 844,000 catechists teaching the faith to the world's villages; 38,140 seminarians studying for the priesthood; 8,750 shelters serving the homeless; and 26 million children receiving necessary assistance.

Pope Francis has sent a call to each of us to go into our world and proclaim the presence of Christ, to make his love visible and real through missionary work that reaches to the ends of the earth. He said all of us "can contribute to this missionary movement with our prayers and activities, with material offerings and the offering of our sufferings, and our personal witness.

"Just as the two disciples of Emmaus told the others what had taken place along the way (cf. Lk 24:35), so too our proclamation will be a joyful telling of Christ the Lord, his life, his passion, his death and resurrection, and the wonders that his love has accomplished in our lives," the pope said.

Missio ad Gentes, the Vatican II document on the missionary nature of the Church, reminds us that the Church of Christ is a missionary Church, that the human family has a right to hear the good news of peace and salvation, and our God is Emmanuel. The Pontifical Societies for the Propagation of the Faith has the primary responsibility for the Church's missionary work. In the Diocese of Charleston, it is under the leadership of Rev. Msgr. Edward D. Lofton, director, and Helena Moniz, associate director. The office is available to assist each of you.

I thank you for the generous support you give to the Church's missions.

In Christ's love,
