ALL SAINTS DAY

This year, the Holy Day of All Saints Day falls on Wednesday, November 1, 2023. It is a Holy Day of obligation. We will have two Masses. The first will be at 9:00 a.m. and we will have a second Mass at 6:30 p.m. All are welcome and encouraged to attend.

ALL SOULS DAY MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

We will have our special Mass of Remembrance on Thursday, November 2nd (All Souls Day) at 9am. At this special Mass, we will call the names of all those who have been buried from St. John The Beloved church during the past year and ring a bell for each name.

The families of the deceased are encouraged to attend. They are invited to come up when the names of their loved ones has been called to light a little candle from the Easter candle, and place it in the sand in front of the altar. Thus they can profess their faith in the resurrection and eternal life.

Not to leave anyone out, everyone else who is attending is then welcome to also come up to also light a candle from the Easter candle and place it in the sand to remember their loved ones as well.

This way, all who are in attendance will have the opportunity to once again profess their faith in the resurrection and eternal life in Christ!

Everyone is welcome to attend.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

This weekend, we will unite with the global Church in celebrating World Mission Sunday. This Year, Pope Francis illuminates our path with the theme: "Hearts on fire, feet on the move."

As we prepare to observe this special day, we are reminded to ignite our hearts with Christ's love and extend that warmth to the most vulnerable corners of our world. Your fervent prayers and upcoming generosity in the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith will bolster the missionaries working in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and certain regions of Latin America and Europe. Let us come together to support them in their mission of love and service Thank you!

Ushers are Ministers of Hospitality

Ushers do more than take up the collection. We help with seating before and during Mass. Ushers see to the needs of the parishioners to keep them comfortable and safe, and other little tasks. Ushering is a simple ministry and great way to get to know fellow parishioners. If you are interested in applying please contact Lisa O'Rourke at lisa@sjsbsummerville.org to obtain training and information.

Kairos Prison Ministry International Needs Your Help!

Christian volunteers, men and women, work together 'inside' the prison and in the 'outside' communities to fulfill Christ's call to action in Matthew 25:36: "...I was in prison and you visited me."

Kairos Prison Ministry International is a Christian faith-based ministry that addresses the spiritual needs of incarcerated men, women, youth; their families and the professionals who work with them. The work is this: to share the love and forgiveness of Jesus Christ.

Society spends more than $60 billion/year to keep 2.3 million inmates incarcerated, whereas the Kairos program is offered at no cost to State and/or Federal Institutions.

An inmate writes: "It's been said that it costs the government $1 million to keep me locked up, and a $250 program from Kairos set me free." kairosprisonministry.org. Please prayerfully consider volunteering for this ministry.

ALL SOULS DAY ENVELOPES

The All Souls Day envelopes are in the church now. If you would like, please write the names of those who you would like to be remembered at all the Masses during the month of November. The month of November traditionally is the month of All Souls. We will place the all Souls Day envelopes in a basket on the altar, and those names will be remembered at all of our weekday as well as weekend Masses throughout November.

SISTER CAROL'S FOOD PANTRY

This week, Sister Carol's food pantry is low on the following items:

Spam, Vienna Sausage, Canned Chicken, Jelly, Peanut Butter, Rice, Cereal, Maple Syrup, Pancake Mix and Canned fruit. Thank you for your continued generosity!

SJB WOMEN'S CLUB

Will hold their regular meeting on Monday, November 7th at 7:00 p.m. All women of the parish are invited.

COMPASSIONATE CAFE

Have you noticed the CareNotes display in The Church Commons? It is over there on the small table next to the window on the right hand side as you face the TV. The CareNotes are inspirational booklets that offer spiritual healing for anyone who is grieving the loss of a loved one. Notice that they are in plastic sleeves to protect them from the humidity not to keep you from taking one. Feel free to take whatever suits your need. Each CareNote is a short read, usually six or seven pages, on a specific topic. There are CareNotes for widows, widowers, bereaved parents and bereaved adult children. Feel free to take one for a friend or family member. We'll be changing them shortly and adding CareNotes on grief and holidays. Be sure to look for them. The loneliest CareNote is the one titled "What To Say to Someone Who Is Grieving". If you are not sure what one to take, pick that one. It is always in season. The Compassionate Cafe stocks the CareNotes. Come to our November 9 meeting at 10 A.M. in The Commons. Holidays and grief will be the topic. For more information contact Paul Brustowicz, 732-801-8333 (mobile) or email Paul_Brustowicz@sc.rr.com.

The Footprints of Francis

May the Lord give you his peace. This is the greeting St. Francis of Assisi extended to all he met, and we now extend it to you! Who are we? We are Secular Franciscans. Seculars are laity professed in a religious order. We are every age and stage of life; married, single, working, retired, young, and young at heart. As professed Franciscans we carry on the charism of St. Francis of Assisi spreading the gospel by living our lives in peace, joy, service, and non-confrontational nonviolent advocacy for those living on the margins of society. We practice a deep prayer life consisting of Liturgy of the Hours, Lectio Divina, the Sacraments, and in community with one another. We meet once a month on the 2nd Saturday, 10:30 at Immaculate Conception church in Goose Creek. Want to know more? Contact Cindy Bryan at 843-754-9443 or Grace Curran at 843-873-7520.

SUNDAY CONNECTION

In today's Gospel Jesus and the religious leaders in Jerusalem continue their tense exchange of questions and challenges. At this point the disciples of the Pharisees, together with the Herodians, try to entrap Jesus by their question about the payment of taxes. Matthew sets up an unusual partnership between the Pharisees and the Herodians. The Herodians were supporters of Herod Antipas, a Jewish political leader who collaborated with the Romans. Such collaboration would have required a compromised observance of the Mosaic Law. The Pharisees, on the other hand, taught scrupulous observance of the Mosaic Law and opposed Roman occupation. Herodians favored the payment of taxes; the Pharisees opposed it. The Herodians and the Pharisees approach Jesus, asking that he take sides in their dispute. If Jesus answers with the Pharisees, he shows himself to be an enemy of Rome. If he answers with the Herodians, he offends popular Jewish religious sensibilities. Jesus' response to this attempt to trap him exposes the guile of his questioners. From his first words to them, Jesus shows that he is very much aware of what they are trying to do. He asks to see a Roman coin, which is readily provided to him. It may have come from the hand of a Herodian, but the Pharisees show themselves to be quite willing to accept this compromise. Jesus has already exposed the Pharisees as hypocrites. Jesus takes his response one step further. He asks that his questioners examine the coin. Agreeing that it is Caesar's image on the coin, Jesus tells them that it must belong to Caesar. Avoiding the question of lawfulness altogether, Jesus answers their question with simple logic. Then, going further still, Jesus tells them that their obligation is to pay to God that which belongs to God. Jesus' response to the Herodians and Pharisees suggests the ethic that Christians ought to adopt. It reminds us of the importance of keeping things in their proper perspective. Do we attach ourselves to worldly things at the expense of the love and honor that we owe to God?

ABUNDANT LIFE MINISTRY

There is a new prayer box provided by the new health ministry Abundant Life. It is located in the narthex of the church on the main table as you come in. There are prayer slips and pens so anyone can place a private intention into the box. The health ministry will pray over these intentions at each meeting.

Attention all medical personnel...the new health ministry, Abundant Life, would like to reinstate blood pressure checks each month after Mass. We are looking for anyone who has been trained in taking blood pressures and would be interested in joining us for this activity. Please contact Emily Fischer-Bunker at emily.relevamd@gmail.com. We hope to begin providing this service after the first of the year.

Anyone interested in healthy living and looking for involvement in the parish, we invite you to attend our next Abundant Life Ministry meeting. No need to be in the health career field. Watch the bulletin for the time and date of our November meeting.
