Confirmation is the sacrament by which Catholics receive a special outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Through Confirmation, the Holy Spirit gives them the increased ability to practice their Catholic faith in every aspect of their lives and to witness Christ in every situation.

Young people in Grade 8 through to Grade 12 in the 2022-2023 school year are invited to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation. Visit catholicfamily.ca/confirmation or GetConfirmed.ca

La minute Liturgique

MON CORPS LIVRÉ POUR VOUS

Extrait de "La minute liturgique
ou L'eucharistie en 52 minutes"
d'Olivier Windels

Les mots de Jésus sont denses et forts ce soir-là, la veille de sa mort. Tout au long de sa vie, il a aimé; tout au long de sa vie, il s'est donné. Son existence trouve là, à la Cène et sur la croix qu'elle annonce, son apothéose: il se livre tout entier, sans réserve et sans calcul, entre les mains des hommes. Son corps et son cœur sont offerts, sur le bord du lac, au partage du pain: "Le pain que je donnerai, c'est ma chair donnée pour la vie du monde." Au temple, on offrait des agneaux pour entrer en communion avec Dieu. Désormais, sur l'autel de la croix, un seul agneau: le Christ. Et dans l'eucharistie, on redit les mots du dernier repas, des mots d'une éternelle actualité pour signifier que vraiment, réellement, aujourd'hui, le Christ donne sa vie pour notre vie, en sacrifice de communion.
