29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday Reflection

Call Out To God Day & Night

*"Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones
who call out to him day and night?"*

The widow in today's parable didn't give up. She kept "bothering" the judge by coming to him and asking for a decision in her favor. Ultimately, her persistence caught his attention and influenced his behavior. Jesus seems to be teaching us today that this quality of faithful persistence is a good one to have. Thus, he advises us to call out to God not once, not twice, but "day and night." This is a fitting image for the idea of continual prayer; it goes on all the time without ceasing.

As this Gospel reading says in the opening line, Jesus wanted to teach his disciples how to "pray always without becoming weary." It's interesting that the method he used for this instruction was to emphasize the reward of such persistent prayer. The parable's conclusion assures us that for those who pray without giving up, God "will see to it that justice is done for them speedily." Perhaps this attractive promise is supposed to keep us from (continued on page 3)

October 22 / 23, 2016

Next weekend, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Its theme this year is "Mercy Changes The World." Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support the young mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and part of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious, and lay leaders serve some of the poorest of the poor. Please keep the Missions in your prayers and be generous in next week's collection for the Society of the Propagation of the Faith.

Teens Activate Your Faith

by Mrs. Michele Hudson

How do we find JOY in a world that is upside down and filled with suffering? That's a huge question these days. How do we find humility and gratitude in a "me-first" secular world? The secret? Not thinking about yourself so much. Desire to find your true purpose each day. Seek out Service to others. Be merciful, Be kind to all.

We all need a better way to LISTEN. Youth and Teens LISTEN to those who care about your well-being. Listen to what's important to those at home. Listen careful when attending church especially during the homily. Homily times are holy moments when the readings and Gospel are broken open we explore as a community the depth of our faith.. Listen carefully to the announcements for chances to stretch especially service, faith formation.

PRAY MORE. Pray for those who care about the well-being of you and others. Youth and Teens keep your prayer cards and commit yourself to learn and pray to your Blessed Mother by saying "Hail Mary" and your Angel of God prayer daily.

TEENS. GET ACTIVE. Become more responsible. Ask if you can come to GOF on October 25th and sign up! Better yet ask if you can sign up your family to attend GOF. Put your Faith in action and Ask if you can help out Trunk and Treat on Oct 29th — held at Corpus Christi. A great chance for Evangelization — Bring a friend with you to share to fun time at your church serving those younger and a few older than you! Find ways to strengthen your participation in Mass. Be aware of your discipleship. Remember Corpis Christi celebrates Family Mass on the 5th Sunday.

PEACE and JOY is what we are called to share throughout our daily routines. Our Holy Father, Pope Frances invites us to share the grace of peace with our family members and with others. What comes from an intentional life of KINDNESS and SERVICE? Deeper awareness of others which will fill you to be merciful in this world towards all people.

It is our dedication to personal time to reflect to meditate on our inner presence draws us what is truly important. Moments of Silence combined with moments of sharing with others brings our hearts refreshment in spirit. Finding time to spend deepening yourself towards your total well-being. Adoration, Retreat. Communal Prayer strengthens us all. (continued on page 4) losing hope, from throwing in the towel, from becoming "weary" when our requests don't seem to be getting heard.

Following the example of this determined widow, we need not fear to repeatedly make our requests known to God. In fact, we should make a point of it! If we only offer our prayers of petition halfheartedly, without real conviction, persistence, or sincerity, they are not as powerful as they could be. But when we truly commit to taking these requests before the Lord, day after day (and night after night!) then we are displaying a kind of profound faith in God's ability to act on our behalf. So, full of hope and trust, let's keep "bothering" this truly just Judge!

■ Your Family and Politics (by Sarah Reinhard)

How do you talk politics with your kids? Unless you're incommunicado in a tent in the middle of a cornfield, you know we're living in heated political times in the United States. Your kids don't have to be very old to be influenced by commercials, yard signs, and, for that matter, comments by well-meaning family members.

Remember what's important. What's most important to you? What does the Catechism of the Catholic Church say? Involve the whole family in discussions about this. Talk about the why for making decisions a certain way: honoring and respecting the dignity of the human person, for example.

Listen to each other. It's all too easy to start arguing in the face of controversy, but that isn't necessarily helpful in teaching kids about politics and why it's important. One of my kids wanted to know why I opposed a very popular candidate not long ago and then asked why abortion was an important topic (she didn't know what it was). This has led to a years-long discussion about human life and interactions. It has not been heated, and it has opened both of us up to listening to each other.

Prayer = win. Praying for our country is the most important thing you can do. It may not feel like much, but don't underestimate how important it is. Especially when politics is front and center, like it is now, lead your family in a regular prayer time that's dedicated to the election outcomes and the moral health of our country.

■ Everyday Stewardship

The Book of Exodus recounts the story of Moses telling Joshua to lead his men into battle against Amalek in defense of Israel. The sign that God was with them would be Moses on a hilltop with his hands raised holding the staff of God. If his hands were to fall, then Amalek would have the advantage and Israel would be defeated. (continued on page 7)

Everyday Stewardship

As time wore on, the arms of Moses grew strained, so Aaron and Hur provided a rock for Moses to sit on and they each supported an arm. His hands then remained steady until evening fell. Joshua defeated Amalek and Israel survived.

This story reminds me of Good Friday at my home parish, where altar servers hold candles on each side of the cross while the people come forward for veneration. It is a long time to stand there, so there are many servers that switch places so the burden is lighter. Without one's fellow servers, it would be too much for some of the less experienced and weaker ones.

This is how it is with the body of Christ. Without all of us playing our part and supporting one another, we are susceptible to defeat. When one of us is tired and growing weak, then our brothers and sisters in Christ need to be there to hold us up.

Too often the Church, and in particular the parish community, suffers undo pain and hardship because some members of the body choose to withhold their gifts. But if we are to be "Christ" to the world, then we all need to play our part in the body. Together we will serve the Lord in a way that can not only transform us, but the world in which we live. Together we are strong, even against the greatest of all contrary forces.

Share The Sweetness!

What could be a more welcome addition to a meal than a cookie, cupcake, or brownie? The Social Justice Committee has coordinated an opportunity for you to serve the hungry women, children, men, and seniors who eat at St. Christine Christian Services' Soup Kitchen. Approximately 300 people are served on Tuesdays, and Corpus Christi has been asked to provide something sweet for the meal on Tuesday, October 25. Dessert for 300 should be easy, right? Sign up at the back of church to let us know if you can bring cookies, brownies, or cupcakes to Mass on the weekend of October 22/23 — there will be a cart at the back of church for your donation — or you may drop it off at the parish office on Monday, October 24.

Not a baker, or can't make it to the store? Cash donations are always welcome!

We have also been asked to provide 4 volunteers to help serve the meal on October 25th. Volunteers need to be at the soup kitchen (located at 22261 Fenkell Avenue, Detroit). Sign up for this at the back of church as well. If you have need more information, please call Mary Davis.

Q

Who is Ignatius of Antioch and what example does he offer us in Christian living as we celebrate his feast day on October 17?

A

As Bishop of Antioch (the modern day city of Antakya, Turkey), Ignatius witnessed to the faith during the reign of Emperor Trajan, who ruled from 98–117. Persecution of the Christians broke out in Antioch, and Ignatius was captured and taken to Rome for martyrdom in the arena.

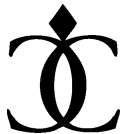

On his journey to Rome over land and sea, Ignatius writes seven letters to various churches. These letters give powerful glimpses into the theology and practice of the early church, along with insights into the role of a bishop as pastoral leader. Ignatius is the first to use the term “Catholic Church” to refer to the various Christian communities of the Roman Empire.

The best known of his letters is the one he wrote to the Romans. Ignatius addresses influential Christians who might be tempted to intercede on his behalf, thus sparing him from martyrdom. He advises them against it, being resolute in his desire to be the “wheat of God.”

Eucharistic links are most evident in his words. As Christ willingly offered himself as witness to God’s total love, Ignatius, too, desired to be “food for the wild beasts,” so that he could become “the pure bread of Christ.” Eucharistic living was so crucial to Ignatius that he was willing to die in order to model himself on the Lord who willingly offered all.

Reflect on how you can use Ignatius as a model in your own eucharistic life of faith.
