Sunday Reflection

Live And Love Like Jesus

"Now what?" It's a difficult thing to hear, isn't it? The train comes late, a child unexpectedly cries, and the latest public policy debate flares up in the news. Life throws us curveballs, and we have no choice but to adapt. Jesus and the Apostles find themselves in that exact situation in today's Gospel.

The Apostles have returned from their two-by-two missionary journey. As Jesus hears all of their stories, he knows they need time to recover and refresh. "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Their wilderness retreat is short-lived, however, as eager crowds discover their location. Jesus is well aware of the needs of his disciples. Still, as he looks out at the crowd, "His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd." The rest break is over. "He began to teach them many things."

For those of us who have experienced a taste of much-needed relaxation only to have it taken away abruptly, perhaps we surmise (cont. on page 3)

The View From The Pew

by Mary Davis

Thank you Corpus Christi Family for all of the powerful prayers and cheerful good wishes as I underwent the first of two knee replacements this summer. My new knee is healing beautifully and I was able to drive to work at week three post op; please keep the prayers coming for my next surgery on August 20!

Speaking of the power of prayer, our country is in grave need of prayer — each day brings a new headline indicating that another piece of the soul of America, and indeed the world, is being lost to the powers of darkness. I was wondering when Barak Obama would weigh in on all that is happening; he did not disappoint with his speech marking the 100th birthday of Nelson Mandela.

"But in the strange and uncertain times that we are in — and they are strange, and they are uncertain, with each day's news cycles bringing more head-spinning and disturbing headlines — I thought maybe it would be useful to step back for a moment and try to get some perspective, so I hope you'll indulge me," he said. He warned that the press was under attack, that censorship and state control of media is on the rise and that social media was being used to promote hate, propaganda and conspiracy theories. "So, on Madiba's 100 birthday, we now stand at a crossroads," he said, using a clan name of affection for Mandela.

He said that there was a choice between two visions of humanity's future that the world must choose between. "How should we respond? Should we see that wave of hope that we felt with Madiba's release from prison? From the Berlin Wall coming down? Should we see that hope that we had as naïve and misguided?" he asked. "Let me tell you what I believe. I believe in Nelson Mandela's vision, I believe in a vision shared by Gandhi and King, and Abraham Lincoln, I believe in a vision of equality and justice and freedom and multi-racial democracy built on the premise that all people are created equal and are endowed by our creator with certain inalienable rights."

Please join me in this simple prayer for peace and justice:

Almighty God, you have given all peoples one common origin, and your will is to gather them as one family in yourself. Fill the hearts of all with the fire of your love and the desire to ensure justice for all our sisters and brothers. By sharing the good things you give us, may we secure justice and equality for every human being, and a human society built on love and peace, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

— Mary

Sunday Reflection (continued from page 1)

what the Apostles might have been feeling in that moment. But Jesus isn't being inconsiderate of the Apostles needs. He offers them — and us — a lived lesson. St. John Paul II wrote, "The whole of Christ's life was a continual teaching: his silences, his miracles, his gestures, his prayer, his love for people, his special affection for the little and the poor, his acceptance of the total sacrifice on the Cross for the redemption of the world" (On Catechesis in Our Time, 9). In Jesus' choice to teach, we see all of these things: sacrificial love, concern for the marginalized, and priority of people's needs over personal preference. These aren't abstract ideals. They're lived realities as we strive to live and love like Jesus. When a new obstacle confronts you in your life, how do you respond?

Marriage-Saving Weekend

The Retrouvaille (a French word meaning "rediscovery") Program is a Christian peer ministry offering tools needed to rediscover a long marriage relationship; it is a weekend experience and a series of twelve follow up sessions with an emphasis on communication between husband and wife. The next Retrouvaille Program begins with a weekend on Friday - Sunday, August 10 - 12, 2018. For confidential information or to register, call 800-470-2230, or visit their website at HelpOurMarriage.com.

Everyday Stewardship

My daughter can easily become overwhelmed by having so much to do. She recently graduated from high school, and many times during those four years, she found herself going crazy from being involved in so many things. Sports, drama, youth group, homework, friends, and more all demanded a slice of her attention. Sometimes the slice of time that remained wasn't much and one does have to sleep!

A good everyday steward can get caught up in doing so much and giving so much that he or she loses sight of the fact that you cannot give what you do not have. If you have no time left, you cannot give that. If you have no energy left, you cannot give that. Finally, if you find yourself agitated and overwhelmed, you cannot give that which others benefit from the most: YOU!

Even when we plant seeds in a garden after tilling and watering the soil, we must rest and wait for there to be growth. If we do not take time to rest and recharge, we are not allowing time for God's grace to bring forth new life in us. We fear that things will suffer without us, (cont. on page 7)

Keep Kids Active & Healthy During the Summer

It's important for all children to keep active and healthy while school is out. Without regular activity, children are at a greater risk for weight gain and unhealthy eating habits during the summer months. Here are some ways you can incorporate fun and activity and nutrition into your child's summer:

- Look for a local summer program that promotes physical activity and healthy eating.
- Encourage your child to get outside and play.
- Be active with your child.
- Take advantage of local pools and recreation centers.
- Keep healthy snacks around the house
- Make healthy food fun with your child.
- Turn off the TV and computer.
- Give your child toys that encourage active play.

INQUIRY

Tuesdays

July 24 - September 18, 2018

7:00 to 8:00 pm
in the Rainbow Room

Perhaps you know someone who is a little curious about our faith, about Corpus Christi, about our community. Here is a way to help a friend, relative or spouse find the answers they seek! Invite them to Corpus Christi's Inquiry — and plan to attend a session or two (or more!) with them.

Confirmation Preparation at Corpus Christi:

Being "At Choice" with the Sacraments & Beatitudes

Youth of the parish who will be in the 8th through 12th Grades in Fall 2018 are welcome to participate in the parish Confirmation Preparation program for youth. The confirmation preparation process is designed to support and deepen the life skills, faith skills, and character of our teens.

A meeting for parents and candidates is planned for Sunday, July 29 at 12:30 pm in the convent building.

To register, stop at the back of church or call the parish office. Contact Joe Long, Confirmation Preparation Coordinator, at 248-231-8200 or joe@josephelong.com for details.

Corpus Christi Service Day

Saturday, July 28th
@ Christ the King Parish's
St. Christine Soup Kitchen

Hunger doesn't take a summer vacation and neither does the St. Christine Soup Kitchen, located at 22261 Fenkell Street (at Dacosta, the 3rd street west of Lahser).

The Corpus Christi family has the opportunity to help the Soup Kitchen by donating the funds needed to provide the main meal to feed the approximately 300 men, women, children and seniors who will come to the kitchen seeking food and fellowship. Donation envelopes are available at the back of church or the parish office. Please take one and return it to the basket at the back of church or to the parish office no later than Monday, July 24.

Volunteers who will come to the kitchen on July 28 and help with set-up, serving, and clean-up are also needed. Check your calendar and plan on coming to lend a hand — volunteer sign up sheets will be available at the back of church.

Thanks in advance for doing your part to be the light of Christ in our little corner of the world!

EMAIL SCAM

There has been a report in the Archdiocese of Detroit that individuals at a parish have received emails in which a pastor appeared to request iTunes gift cards. These emails are fraudulent and did not originate with the pastor.

Similar scams recently have recently been covered by media outlets, including the Tampa Bay Times, which reported in June that area parishioners had received emails, sent from fake addresses similar to pastors' real email addresses, asking the recipients to send iTunes gift cards to an address other than the parish.

Q

July 26 is the feast of Joachim and Anna. Who are they and what do we know about them?

A

Joachim and Anna are the parents of Mary, the mother of Jesus, yet there is absolutely no biblical reference to them whatsoever. So where do we get their names, and what is their story? Their names are found in an apocryphal (hidden) gospel known as "The Infancy Gospel of James." Apocryphal, or hidden gospels, consist of accounts of Jesus' life that were ultimately not accepted as inspired works, and thus were not included in the Bible. However, they sometimes captured the Christian imagination, spilling into the devotional dimension of the community.

James' infancy gospel begins with the parents of Mary and their desire for a child. In their prayer and petitions to God, they are heard and given the blessings of a child, whom they named Mary. While we have no idea who Mary's parents really were, the fact that we celebrate the feast of Joachim and Anna indicates that the bond of family love is important in the Christian life.

Long before Grandparents' Day was established, the church had a feast that honored the presumed grandparents of Jesus. While their names are part of non-inspired apocryphal legends, the fact of the Savior's human ancestry is not. Christ, the incarnate Word, dwelt among us in the flesh in a human family. In honoring the grandparents of Jesus, we really proclaim our faith in the Incarnation — God becoming human!
