Sunday Reflection

Integrity of the Heart

Judgment tends to have a bad reputation. We often associate it with condemnation, and in the Gospels, we associate it with the Pharisees. Today's Gospel features the Pharisees doing exactly what we expect. "They observed that some of his disciples ate their meals with unclean, that is, unwashed, hands." The Jewish people had strict purification laws that applied to all areas of life. The Pharisees attempt to accuse Jesus of not following the ancestral traditions. Jesus doesn't take offense at their judgments per se. He instead points out the hypocrisy of their words. "You hypocrites! This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me."

From there, Jesus turns his attention to the concerns of the heart. "The things that come from within are what defile." He lists off a number of sins, including some the Pharisees were likely struggling with, including evil thoughts, envy, and arrogance. When we examine the list, perhaps we're reminded of our own trips to the confessional! As we strive to follow Jesus and live with integrity, we must be (continued on page 3)

Labor DAY

Prayer

O God,
to whom all our prayers
rise like incense,
we thank you
for the ability to work
and to provide for our families.

Assist us in honoring the laborer
and providing a fair wage for all laborers.

To work brings us purpose and dignity.
In work, the laborer honors you,
the One who provides everything we need.

We ask you to bless all those who have no opportunity to work.
Enliven our hearts to hear their cries
for meaningful work
and help us to give from our abundance
to those who have little.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Joy and Hope

by Sr Therese Mac Kinnon

On Monday we celebrate Labor Day, a day to give thanks to God for all the gifts with which we have been blessed. We can praise God by the work of our hands, our minds, our hearts, and our whole being because God has blessed us with the ability to share in his creative power.

Laughing Christ
by Willis Wheatley

“Going Against the Flow.” That is how Pope Francis titles his section on the Beatitudes in his latest apostolic exhortation, Gaudete et Exultate, Joy and Hope: A Call to Holiness in Today’s World. Taking this as our lead, the Beatitudes will be the theme of Generations of Faith this year: Happy... Holy... Blessed Are You. Be sure to mark your calendar for these dates:

October 7	Embrace the Call to Holiness
November 11	Striving to Be Poor and Pure
January 27	Striving to be Mournful and Merciful
March 3	Striving to be Righteous and Just
March 31	Striving to be Meek and Peaceful

There will be dynamic presenters for the adults and new materials and plans for the children and youth. In the past, children and youth have received take home papers. Last year, they were given “Sandwich Papers,” to keep families in touch in between GOF sessions. This year we are moving from “Sandwich Papers” to a “Four Course Meal” — new colorful Pflaum Gospel Weeklies based on the Sunday Gospel with activities for each age level. The first of four series of booklets will be available on Sunday, Sept. 16, so be sure to watch for them. These are available to all parishioners and we are asking a donation of $5.00 per child or $10.00 for a family with two or more children. This is an easy, interesting, fun way to learn more about our faith and grow in the love of God. This year we are also planning to have a special GOF section for seventh graders. If you have a child in seventh grade, be sure to register early.

All Corpus Christi 7th grade students are invited to Sacred Heart Seminary for a Vocation Night on Wednesday, October 10, 2018. Please check with Michele Hudson for details. Hopefully, all of our 7th graders will be able to attend.

An interesting edition of the 3D adult formation series is being planned for October. The topic will be the Eucharist.
— Sr. Therese

aware of our hearts. We must judge our own actions. Are they leading us closer to God or away from Him? Are we growing in love of our neighbor, or are we becoming more closed in on ourselves?

As we move into this week, consider the state of our own heart. Perhaps you are overly scrupulous in less important areas. Perhaps there are large areas of overlooked sin that you’ve excused for too long. Whatever it is, the judgment of God need not cripple us. He offers us a share in His mercy as soon as we turn to Him. This week, allow your heart to be transformed!

■ Ordinary Time In The Church

September is a pretty ordinary month. Kids are back in school. Parents are back to regular routines. But in all of its ordinariness, September is the perfect time to discover the extraordinary ways our Catholic faith gives meaning and purpose to our everyday lives!

During the month of September (but not only in September), the Catholic Church celebrates Ordinary Time. That doesn't mean these Sundays are insignificant. The word "ordinary" comes from the Latin word "ordinalis," which refers to a series of numbers. The term "Ordinary Time" reflects the way the Sundays are numbered.

The Ordinary Time we celebrate this month actually started after Pentecost Sunday and will continue until the First Sunday of Advent. There is another period of Ordinary Time beginning after the Christmas season and continuing until Lent begins. During Ordinary Time, the priest's vestments are green, which symbolizes hope.

Here are some suggestions for making Mass "extraordinary" for your family:

- Decide ahead of time which Mass to attend.
- Set out everyone's clothes so getting ready is not a hassle.
- Plan a simple snack to eat an hour before leaving for a vigil Mass or an easy-to-make breakfast an hour before Sunday Mass.

Vocation Night at Sacred Heart Major Seminary

Wednesday, October 10, 2018, 4:45 pm

All seventh grade students are invited to learn more about the vocations of priesthood and consecrated life. Come hear how others have come to understand their call from God, prayer evening prayer with one of our auxiliary bishops in the seminary chapel, enjoy a delicious meal, and tour the seminary. Contact Mrs. Michele Hudson at 313-622-2160 for more information.

- Make sure everyone has something to put into the collection basket.
- Sit in front so children can see.
- Bring children to the Communion line even if they are too young to receive.
- Celebrate good behavior by doing something special after Mass.

■ Everyday Stewardship

Justice is a concept under attack in today's world. When I watch the news, I see so many distortions of justice. One person's notion of fairness is sometimes far from another's understanding of justice. Perhaps the issue is that human justice often becomes corrupted by selfishness and greed. Justice for one's self always seems more important than justice for another. As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are called to use what we have been given not only to fight for human justice alone, but also to offer a more benevolent justice that can only come from God.

We are called to offer all we have to God for His greater intentions. Our gifts cannot only level the playing field for some but can serve as instruments of grace for those who, in the eyes of the world, do not even deserve it. In God's framework of justice, second chances and overflowing generosity are commonplace. Everyone created in the image of God deserves love regardless (continued on page 7) of their state in life or the actions they have taken against another. The world will never understand this type of justice. Humans have a hard enough time figuring out the simple concepts of equity or fair play. For those who do not believe in Jesus, his justice seems even more difficult to comprehend. In fact, it can appear downright crazy.

Questions of the Week

First Reading

The Book of Deuteronomy contains a series of speeches that Moses delivered to the Israelites prior to their entry into the Promised Land. In today's speech, Moses emphasizes the importance of carefully observing the Lord's commandments as key to being a great nation. Why do you think believers often fall short of following God's laws?

Second Reading

The letter of James is a prime example of early Christian wisdom literature. What advice does James offer in regard to practicing one's faith?

Gospel Reading

The Pharisees and scribes, concerned about Jewish purity laws, learn a lesson today from Jesus about where defilement resides -- within people's hearts. How do you work at being clean of heart?

How It Began

The first Labor Day holiday was celebrated in New York City on Tuesday, September 5, 1882, and was planned by the Central Labor Union.

In 1884, the first Monday in September was selected as the holiday, and the Central Labor Union urged similar organizations in other cities to follow the example of New York and hold a "workingmen's holiday." The idea spread, and in 1885 Labor Day was celebrated in many industrial centers of the country.

In 1894, Congress passed an act making the first Monday in September of each year a federal holiday. Labor Day was to be observed with a street parade to exhibit to the public "the strength and esprit de corps of the trade and labor organizations" of the community, followed by a festival for the recreation and amusement of the workers and their families.

Q As we celebrate Labor Day, can you tell me about Catholic teaching regarding labor?

A One of the most important principles of Catholic social teaching is the dignity of work and the rights of workers. Four encyclicals address this foundational social teaching: Rerum Novarum (1891) by Leo XIII, Quadragesimo Anno (1931) by Pius XI, Laborem Exercens (1981), and Centesimus Annus (1991) by John Paul II. They address both the theology and dignity of work. In Genesis, God takes the initiative in creating the world, calling forth human beings to be faithful stewards of creation. We are thus formed to share in God's continuing creative activity by partnering with God in finishing the world and helping bring it to completion and fulfillment. From this perspective, work can be spiritually understood in terms of sharing in God's ongoing activity to build, create, and transform the world. Human beings are co-creators with God. This vocation demands self-discipline.

Besides an exercise in self-discipline, work is also the means by which we develop and fulfill ourselves. In work, we shape the world and our environment. Through work, we also shape ourselves. Pope John Paul II summarized this point in Laborem Exercens #6, "the value of work is not primarily the kind of work being done, but the fact that the one who is doing it is a person."
