33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday Reflection

Ends & Beginnings

As we edge closer to the closing of the liturgical year, the Church selects readings that remind us of the final close: the second coming of Christ. It's easy, perhaps, to forget that this is a dogma of our Catholic faith. We see this dramatic end times language in today's Gospel. "The sun will be darkened and the stars will be falling from the sky."

As Christians and as human beings, we know all things will come to an end. "But of that day or hour, no one knows." The "end of the world" and end of time at Jesus' coming is in a future unknown. But God has given us beautiful reminders of this truth. We see the signs and symbols of ending all around us — nightfall at the end of each day; the life cycle of crops coming alive, bearing fruit, and being harvested; our own death. That, too, will come at an unknown day and hour. But that is the way of things. Even as God created in Genesis, He gave us a sense of time — the sun rising and setting, a beginning and an end — to mark our days. (continued on p. 3)

A Thanksgiving Day Prayer

Dear Lord,
on this Thanksgiving Day, please bring us
not only good food and memories, but help us remember that it is You we are thanking:

When we enjoy our Thanksgiving Day meal,
may we thank You,
provider of all food from the earth.

When we enjoy the company of relatives and friends, may we thank You,
the source of all life and happiness.

And when we pray our prayer of blessing,
may our hearts be on You,
the source of all holiness, joy,
and every blessing that is showered on us.
Amen.

Transition Update

by Fr. Patrick Gonyeau

Hello brothers and sisters in Christ! I pray you are all doing well — please know of my daily prayers for you all. I am really grateful the Lord has allowed me to come to Corpus Christi and become a part of this beautiful family. I wanted to take a few moments to share with you an update on how the transition process is going from my perspective.

First, the mentorship experience with Fr. Don (such an incredible man of God!) has been amazing. We spend a lot of time together, and in particular, we hunker down with at least 3 in-depth hour-long (sometimes longer) discussions per week about parish life, the community, and a litany of important topics pertaining to Corpus Christi and preparing me to serve as pastor here. Our sessions have been invaluable. The staff has been amazing as well, and Miriam is probably now on the fast track to sainthood for putting up with my office being directly across from hers and the visits and questions this entails.

In the four months I have been here, I've been to many different meetings and very much enjoy the vibrancy of Corpus Christi! So many wonderful things are happening here, and I believe the Lord will continue to do amazing things in and through this parish, especially as the Holy Spirit imbues us with the love, energy, and creativity of the Unleash the Gospel movement.

Finally, I want to thank you, Corpus Christi Family, for your open heart to me. There is no replacing Fr. Don — he is, by God's grace and Fr. Don's enthusiastic cooperation with it, a local legend and folk hero in the city. I love what God has done in this faithful priest and this community! And now, this unique transition is underway, and I'm thrilled to be a part of it. Please know that I'm always open to finding the time to meet with anybody who wants to talk. If there's anything you want to share about this transition or anything on your heart, please know I'm here for you. God bless you!

— Fr. Patrick

So how do we welcome these built-in forms of measurement? Do we take time to quietly recollect at the end of each day? Do we see every morning as a fresh start for mercies new? Do we observe the seasons and reflect on what they might be speaking to us of God and His glory? "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my works will not pass away." The little beginnings and little ends are opportunities to renew our faith in Jesus, if only we have the eyes to see!

To learn more and/or to register, call 248-548-4044 ext. 3100.

■ Everyday Stewardship

What does sacrifice look like? I think of those who serve in the Armed Forces. They have sacrificed much for my freedom and to work towards real peace in our world. I think of those in service to our Church: priests, deacons, and religious. Their lives are dedicated to prayer and good works so that the Good News might not only be preached but be seen in the love they display toward God and their fellow brothers and sisters. I think of (continued on page 7) parents who stay up long nights with sick children and then one day find themselves staying up even longer as they wait for them to return home. I think of teachers who work hard to educate the next generation of citizens with low salaries and little respect.

I can see sacrifice all around me. I think you can see it, too, if you look. However, I also see too many seeking to get ahead at the expense of others. I see those who have so much and only crave for more. I see those caught up in themselves to the point where families fall apart, friendships disappear, and people literally die from a lack of compassion. I see many who have forgotten where all their gifts in this world came from, if they even knew in the first place.

I think of all those who sacrifice and see all those who do the opposite. May our eyes see more of those who are generous. May we never focus on those who have forsaken others more than those who have given freely to others. May the witness of true sacrifice show us the way to the Father and to a world full of His love.

Questions of the Week

First Reading

The prophet Daniel shares a vision he received about a coming time of divine judgement. What is your reaction to this vision as a believing Christian?

Second Reading

The author of Hebrews speaks of Jesus' offering of his life as a sacrifice for sins. And in this action, believers are "consecrated." How do you show appreciation for this divine gift?

Gospel Reading

In the Gospel reading, Jesus speaks to his disciples about the end times and the coming of the Son of Man. How is this a message of hope for you?

Irene Freeborough (10/26)

former member of the parish

Leona Curtis (10/29)

sister in law of Pat Tillery

Linda Riehl (11/2)

member of the parish

Hope

Compelled by the love and teachings of Jesus Christ, Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan (CCSEM) provides compassionate, quality, professional services and support to people in need. In the six counties of southeast Michigan, CCSEM serves more than 20,000 people annually of all faiths, races, and cultures.

CCSEM has 14 locations throughout southeast Michigan and operates seven ministries. Your generous donations help them help those in need. To make a donation, or for more information about CCSEM, please visit www.ccsem.org.

Catholic Charities Is On The Ground In California Fire Zones

Catholic Charities USA is the official domestic relief agency of the U.S. Catholic Church. Its workers are on the ground as a first-line disaster team — utilizing the local knowledge and expertise of its agencies in California — as the wildfires continue to rage, resulting in historic widespread damage and loss of life. Catholic Charities respectfully asks for prayers and consideration of providing support today to assist victims with relief. www.catholiccharitiesusa.org to make a donation.

Please Report Clergy Abuse

The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages individuals to report clergy sexual abuse of minors and others — no matter when the abuse occurred. Individuals may contact local law enforcement authorities and/or they may report to the Archdiocese of Detroit by calling the Victim Assistance Coordinator at (866) 343-8055 or by emailing vac@aod.org. In addition, the Michigan Attorney General's Office can be contacted at its toll-free reporting hotline at (844) 324-3374 (Monday through Friday, 8 am - 5 pm) or by email at aginvestigations@michigan.gov. More information about the Archdiocese's efforts to address abuse may be found at protect.aod.org.

Saint Joseph Perpetual Help Fund

For the 2018 Christmas giving season, Catholic Charities is launching a charitable initiative to better serve families in need in our region at Christmas, as well as throughout the year.

Donations to the Saint Joseph Perpetual Help Fund will help nearly 200 families this season, all nominated by Catholic parishes and Catholic organizations throughout the Archdiocese of Detroit. You can donate in one of two ways:

- Send a check made payable to "CCSEM" with "Saint Joseph Perpetual Help Fund" in the memo line to:

Catholic Charities
15945 Canal Road
Clinton Township MI 48038
- Donate online at ccsem.org/donate. Select the box stating "I would like to designate this donation to a specific fund." Then scroll down the list and select the "Saint Joseph Perpetual Help Fund."

Donations received after the donation deadline of December 7 will be used to help families throughout the year. For more information or questions, contact Kelly Luttinen at 248-548-4044 x3621 or email her at luttinenk@ccsem.org.

VA OJT/APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAM: Veterans can use their education benefits, including the Post-9/11 GI Bill, to pursue on-the-job (OJT) and apprenticeship. To find out more about the program, download their fact sheet at www.benefits.va.gov/gibill/docs/factsheets/OJT_Factsheet.

SUPPORTIVE SERVICES FOR VETERANS: Volunteers of America Michigan (VOAM) Supportive Services for Veteran Families (SSFV) has funding available to provide assistance to veteran families who are currently experiencing homelessness. Call 313-502-0688.

Thank you to everyone who has already signed up for the Unleash The Gospel Challenge. There are over 50,000 participants from across the Archdiocese (and beyond) doing the challenge. That number continues to climb by the hour as more people join the challenge.

You are encouraged to find one friend or family member who hasn't yet taken it yet and help them get signed up. They can text "Gospel" to the number 484848 or visit UTGChallenge.com to take up the challenge in English or text "Evangelio" to 484848 or visit UTGReto.com to take the challenge in Spanish.

Please keep in your prayers those parishes that will be doing the challenge this weekend. The Unleash The Gospel Challenge will be available through the end of the year so people can sign up at any time.

It's that time of year again!

Q I've heard that gratitude is a fruit of the Holy Spirit. What does that mean?

A In St. Paul's letter to the Galatians, he talks about the "fruits of the Holy Spirit." He is referencing an idea that Jesus talks about frequently in the Gospels. "By their fruits you will know them" (Matthew 7:16). He uses the example of a plant. If the plant is healthy, it will bear good fruit. If the plant is unhealthy, it will bear rotten fruit or none at all. Jesus echoes this idea at the Last Supper, when he says that if we remain close to him we will "bear much fruit" (John 15:8). If we allow the Holy Spirit to work in our lives, we will bear the fruits of the Spirit!

Technically, gratitude is not one of the fruits St. Paul lists. "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control" (Galatians 5:22-23). But doesn't that sound like the response of a grateful heart? When we're grateful, we experience a sense of joy and peace that makes it easier to love. We can be kind, patient, generous, and gentle with others rather than possessive or competitive. When we're grateful, we don't need to grasp at what we don't have. We practice self-control. Gratitude helps us to be faithful, knowing God will always be with us. Sounds like good fruit to me!
