4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday Reflection

Today's Gospel is one of tension and contradiction. We enter the scene at the local synagogue. It is near the beginning of Jesus' earthly ministry, and he has returned home to Nazareth for a short while. There, in the midst of the men who watched him grow up and who played with him as a boy in the dusty streets, Jesus proclaims that he is the fulfillment of the Messianic prophecies of Isaiah. The response is understandably mixed. "All spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, 'Isn't this the son of Joseph?'"

Jesus reminds them — none too gently — of the Israelites' rejection of the prophets throughout history. Not only did the people ignore Elijah and Elisha, but they worked miracles among the pagans instead. Then comes the rage. "They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong."

In 1997, Pope Saint John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day, the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples. World Day for Consecrated Life was formally recognized during a Mass offered by Pope Francis at the Vatican on February 2, 2019.

Each form of consecrated life is distinct and inspired by the Holy Spirit to serve the Church through a particular charism. Discerning consecrated life involves a process of identifying the unique way in which Christ is calling a person (continued on special insert)

Christian Service News

by Curtis Simpson Jr.

Greetings Family!!! WOW, what a week it has been! Record-breaking polar-type weather conditions, our political climate in disarray, and violence, racism, and anti-government hate groups on the rise — this is a time, more than ever, to be a follower of Jesus Christ. I am SO blessed and SO grateful to be in the constant presence of God and to have a relationship with Jesus Christ. If I don't say it enough family, I want you to know that I LOVE being a part of THIS church community!!! I appreciate all of you and I genuinely love each of you for every hug, every conversation, every prayer, every push of confidence, every encouraging word, every time you have thought of me or my beautiful family and I am filled with joy to serve the Lord on this journey of life with you!!! In the words of my brother, Minister Paul Moore, "Let's do this"!!

I would like to give a BIG SHOUT OUT and THANKS to our confirmation candidates and their leaders. On January 19, on a VERY COLD and SNOWY day, our confirmation candidates — as a part of their commitment to service on their ongoing journey of being a fully initiated Catholic Christian — came to the Outreach Center and learned of the rich history of Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish and the importance of love to our community, neighbors, and family. Then the confirmation candidates cleaned out our Food Pantry and organized our shelves utilizing the FIFO (First In, First Out) method. From there, they went on to St. Charles Lwanga for lunch, praise, and worship!!! The Pantry looks AMAZING and I had a great time talking and being with our future Saints. In a special way, I want to thank Dionne Garner, who safely drove our youth that day, and Michelle Hudson and Sister Therese MacKinnon who organized the day!!! We are truly blessed to have such amazing youth in our Parish!!!

Due to the government shut-down, there has been an increase in phone calls with requests for food. We are helping more families and we need your support. The SVDP Food Pantry could use a boost — the items of need are: Canned Soup (all flavors), Cereal, Oatmeal (small packages), Tuna Fish (or any other canned meat), Canned Vegetables, Spaghetti (pasta), and Peanut Butter and Jelly. Please place the items in the wishing well in the back of church. I thank you in advance for your call to action during this critical time!!!

Finally, I want to thank St. Thomas a' Becket Parish. Each their own faults. In the deeply religious Jewish society, nobody wanted to be the unfaithful one. Jesus exposes the sins of the community, and it drives them not to conversion, but to rage. We can consider our own time. How often, when someone is contracted, do they quickly resort to anger, name-calling, and undermining the reputation of the other? How quickly we want to destroy! This Sunday, we ought to consider our own lives. Do we listen to the prophetic voices around us, even when they threaten to upturn our expectations? If we hear something difficult, something that reminds us of our own sin, do we accept the opportunity to prayerfully ponder? If we allow ourselves to be open to the prophetic voices in our own lives, we'll notice that God speaks through the unexpected, if we have ears to hear it.

year in January for the last 7 years, our sister church has donated men's, women's, and children's coats and jackets. As a custom, on January 22, I went to pick up the donated coats — and to my amazement — these coats were new!!! GOD IS SO GOOD!!! We will give them to families and individuals who come through our doors during this cold season. In a very special way, I would like to thank Elaine O'Neill who connected us to this powerful ministry and blessing!!! May you all continue to be nourished and blessed by Jesus Christ. — Curtis

A Message To Youth:

"It is Jesus in fact that you seek when you dream of happiness; he is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you; he is the beauty to which you are so attracted; it is he who provokes you with that thirst for fullness that will not let you settle for compromise; it is he who urges you to shed the masks of a false life; it is he who reads in your hearts your most genuine choices, the choices that others try to stifle. It is Jesus who stirs in you the desire to do something great with your lives, the will to follow an ideal, the refusal to allow yourselves to be grounded down by mediocrity, the courage to commit yourselves humbly and patiently to improving yourselves and society, making the world more human and more fraternal."

- St. John Paul II, August 19, 2000, World Youth Day

■ Everyday Stewardship

If you feel strongly about something, you might want to share your thoughts and feelings with others. When that something has to do with things such as food, art, or travel, others might show an interest, so the conversation is enjoyable. However, when that something is politics or religion, watch out! The conversation can quickly turn to debate and then to anger. That can be anything but enjoyable.

The Gospel does not always lead to joy when initially presented. Sometimes, it convicts us and makes us see the error of our ways. Other times, it seems what is asked of us is too hard and requires us to step out of our comfort zone. When Jesus spoke the truth (continued on page 7) about the Kingdom of God, not everyone cheered. That was never a reason to be silent.

Stewardship living allows us to give witness to the Gospel with few words. Our actions speak very loudly. However, no one should ever be left to wonder why you and I would choose to do the things we do. What a shame it would be if you passed away and at your funeral people commented on how great a person you were, but they had no idea you were a Christian. People need to understand the "why" of what we do. The truth is that there is great joy in being a disciple of Jesus Christ. Don't rob others of the chance to know that joy for themselves.

to love. Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R., Chairman of the USCCB's Committee on Clergy, Consecrated Life and Vocations offered encouraging words for those discerning a vocation to consecrated life: "Oftentimes, those discerning a vocation search for the perfect community. The Lord, who created every heart, knows of the way he is calling each person to serve him. Trust that he will lead you to the vocation that is perfect for you."

God of All Goodness,

you have called people
to follow you faithfully.

Humans have heard that call and many choose to follow your call in varied and faith-filled lives.

Some follow your call in private, silent lives as hermits;
some choose to follow you with lives lived as virgins and widows;
while others choose public lives of vowed men and women as religious brothers and sisters.

Abundantly give to these men and women the courage to follow their call as witnesses to your gifts and faith and service to the world.

We ask this in faith through the name of Jesus our Savior. Amen.

Faith IS NOT KNOWING WHAT THE FUTURE HOLDS, BUT KNOWING
who holds the future.

Sometimes, it's all about control

Your Health and Wellness Awareness Program

Controlling certain risk factors can help reduce your risk of heart disease. While age, lifestyle, and family history of heart disease all play a role, it's also important to pay attention to:

Blood pressure

When the pressure of blood pushing against blood vessel walls is too high, your heart, kidneys, and brain can be harmed.

There are often no outward symptoms of high blood pressure, so it's important to have it checked regularly by a medical professional.

If it's high, lifestyle changes and medication may help lower blood pressure.

Cholesterol

When the bad version of this waxy, fat-like substance builds up on artery walls, it narrows the arteries and can reduce the amount of blood flowing to the heart, brain, kidneys, and other parts of the body.

There is also a good version of cholesterol, however, and a blood test can show your levels of both types. In addition, the test will show your level of triglycerides, another kind of fat found in the blood.

Dietary changes or medication can help keep cholesterol levels under control.

Diabetes

A person develops type 2 diabetes when the body does not make enough insulin or does not use insulin as well as it should, or both. Insulin, a hormone made in the pancreas, moves glucose from food to your body's cells. Glucose (or sugar) is needed for energy, but when a person has diabetes, sugar builds up in the blood.

A screening test can determine if you have diabetes. Your doctor can provide information on how to control the condition.

Q My neighbor is just beginning to explore the Catholic faith but was raised agnostic. I grew up believing in God, praying, and attending Mass. How does one start from scratch as an adult to develop a relationship with God?

A Start on a personal level! How did you and your neighbor become friends? How did you begin to discuss such a personal topic as faith? Communication, spending time together, and getting to know each other are essential to forming the bonds of a relationship. Personal prayer is essential to our relationship with God. We can't be close to someone we don't know! Invite your friend to explore the stories of Jesus in the Bible. Introduce them to the lives of the saints, especially ones you think they might be interested in.

Your neighbor might also have questions about the Catholic faith that you don't know how to answer. If your friend hasn't yet enrolled in RCIA classes, invite them to Mass at your parish. Introduce your friend to the faith formation director to make a connection. Personal support can be helpful as well, especially if few of your neighbor's current friends are practicing their faith. Connect your neighbor to other people in your parish living their faith well. The good examples of other faithful people could help your neighbor to feel welcomed and supported. Our Church is vibrant and alive!
