The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, also known as the Feast of Corpus Christi, is a celebration of the real presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist. Celebrating our parish "feast day" is a great way to build up the Body of Christ and to re-energize the faith and parish life of God's people.

Corpus Christi Sunday

The Feast of Corpus Christi (Body and Blood of Christ) is the solemn commemoration of the institution of that sacrament. It is, moreover, the Church's official act of homage and gratitude to Christ, who by instituting the Holy Eucharist gave to the Church her greatest treasure. Holy Thursday, assuredly, marks the anniversary of the institution, but the commemoration of the Lord's passion that very night suppresses the rejoicing proper to the occasion. Today's observance, therefore, accents the joyous aspect of Holy Thursday. The Mass and the Office for the feast was edited or composed by St. Thomas Aquinas upon the request of Pope Urban IV in the year 1264. It is unquestionably a classic piece of liturgical work, wholly in accord with the best liturgical traditions. . . It is a perfect work of art. (from The Church's Year of Grace, Pius Parsch). In the words of St. Thomas:

"How inestimable a dignity, beloved brethren, divine bounty has bestowed upon us Christians from the treasury of its infinite goodness! For there neither is nor ever has been a people to whom the gods were so nigh as our Lord and God is nigh unto us."

"My dearly beloved, is it not beyond human power to express the ineffable delicacy of this sacrament in which spiritual sweetness is tasted in its very source, in which is brought to mind the remembrance of that all-excelling charity which Christ showed in His sacred passion? Surely it was to impress more profoundly upon the hearts of the faithful the immensity of this charity that our loving Savior instituted this sacrament at the last supper when, having celebrated the Pasch with His disciples. He was about to leave the world and return to the Father. It was to serve as an unending remembrance of His passion, as the fulfillment of ancient types — this the greatest of His miracles. To those who sorrow over His departure He has given a unique solace."

Sunday Reflection: The Power and Presence of Christ

There is so much brokenness and pain in our world. Many people are lost, feeling lonely, anxious, marginalized, victimized, isolated, oppressed, and abused. Every time we receive the Body of Christ, we have an opportunity to become what we eat. The power and presence of Christ in the Eucharist becomes present in us and effects change in ourselves and in the lives of those we meet. We are given the grace to become temples of justice and peace, carrying God's sacred Presence within us wherever we go. Our faith community is ignited with the fire of God's love and stands out as a beacon of hope in a world that is lost. This is the only way we can discover peace-filled resolutions to violence and create innovative solutions to what is fueling its need in the first place. True happiness, for the young and old alike, becomes an obtainable goal.

Only the Eucharist has the ability to connect, sustain, strengthen, and properly orient us, not only on the road of this life but the road to life eternal. Knowing this, when life gets challenging, unsettling, and difficult, we can rely on and cling to this gift we have in the Real Presence of Christ. This actual encounter with God celebrates God's unconditional love for us and grounds us to the truth of who we are in a way nothing else is able to do. Because through the Eucharist we really do become the Body of Christ, we are also bonded together in a most perfect way to one another as that Body. Nourished, united, and strengthened by the Eucharist, let us individually and collectively, bring this wonderful gift to all we meet, especially the poor with whom we have a special connection.

It Is All About You, Lord by Deacon Paul Mueller, Pastoral Associate

Families of Parishes (FOP) Wave 1, starting July 1, 2021. Wow! That is just one month from today (the day I am writing this article)! There are many, many questions about it and our First Gathering on May 21st gave us one of the early looks at what it all means. That evening we met some members of the 5 other parishes in our family, some meeting in-person and some virtually. Another useful step in our getting a grasp of FOP is to actually visit other parishes in our family. We are all invited to make such visits and this article gives a little grasp of their geographical locations.

The following list is given geographically. Our Corpus Christi Parish is the northernmost parish of the family so it is at the top of the list (the usual map place for the north!!!!). The other five parishes are then listed towards the southern end of the family. You will notice that the six parishes are all generally located along the Southfield Freeway corridor. The addresses below are for the parish rectories. In a few days I hope to also have verified the parish weekend Mass times and that additional information will be included in an upcoming parish emailing. Another way to learn more about each parish is to view their websites (see page 3 of this bulletin).

Take Time To Chat: This Is My Body, This Is My Blood

Explore the Gospel as a family. Choose someone to read aloud Mark 14:12-16, 22-26. Find the Gospel at <https://www.52sundays.com/sundays/june-6-2021>.

Discuss the following questions as a family:

- In what way does today's Gospel reading explain our belief in the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist?
- Why is receiving the Eucharist special to you? Share a time when you felt Jesus powerfully present after receiving the Eucharist.
- Discuss the way the Eucharist fulfills the Passover celebration.

Family Prayer

Praying with Music: As a family, listen to the song I Am Yours—Consume Me Completely. You should be able to find the song on YouTube or wherever you stream music. Reflect on what these lyrics say about the Eucharist.

Everyday Stewardship

We all know that person, don't we? Hey, maybe we've even been that person.

"I have a great relationship with God, but I don't go to church regularly. God and I are on good terms. I can talk to Him just fine on my own."

There isn't anything false in these statements. It's important to have an intimate, even conversational prayer relationship with God. But the problem with this attitude is that it implies that churches don't matter. Community worship doesn't matter. Today, we are reminded exactly why that is so untrue. Why we need our parishes, our priests, and each other.

The Body and Blood of Christ — that's what it's all about. If it's not about that, it's not about anything. If we don't have the Eucharist, we're just like the ancient priests, making sacrifices that don't have the power to redeem anybody.

Where do we receive the Body and Blood of Christ? For most of us, it's in our parishes. The altar of sacrifice is also the table we gather in front of, as a family, to become one with Christ in the truest and realest way possible, recreating the scene in the Upper Room over and over again every time Mass is celebrated.

The disciples were commissioned by Christ to prepare the Upper Room for the Last Supper. How can we take up that work ourselves? How can we strengthen the bonds in our spiritual family? How can we serve our parish, always remembering that the table is not meant to be set only for two?

"To what shall we compare the kingdom of God ... It is like a mustard seed ... once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants."

Questions of the Week

First Reading: Moses and the ancient Israelites ratified the covenant God established with them at Mount Sinai with the blood of a sacrificed animal. The sacrificed animal affirmed Israel's commitment: "We will do everything the Lord has told us." Why do you think Israel tied sacrificed blood to their verbal commitment?

Second Reading:

The author of Hebrews teaches us that the sacrificed blood of Christ sanctifies us and offers us eternal redemption. How do you see this connected to ancient Israel's practice of sacrificing animals for their blood?

Gospel:

Mark's account of the institution of the Eucharist is linked to the Jewish Feast of Unleavened Bread when a Passover lamb was sacrificed. What do you think Mark is teaching us in making this connection?

OUR COVID-19 RESPONSE

Come Home To Hope: Liturgical Guidelines Update

On Wednesday, May 19th, Archbishop Vigneron issued a letter to the faithful of the Archdiocese with updated information regarding Covid-19 safety protocols. In this communication, the Archbishop entrusted to pastors a set of considerations which each pastor is to determine how best to implement for their parish.

After consulting with Carolyn Wilson (who has meticulously continued to monitor CDC, State of Michigan, and Archdiocesan Covid-19 guidelines) and the Parish Leadership Team, I believe we have decided on a very good path forward for Corpus Christi.

As of Saturday, May 22, those who are fully vaccinated are not required to wear a mask or social distance, though they certainly can continue to do so if they wish. Those who are not vaccinated are asked to please continue to wear a mask and social distance. We expect there will be both vaccinated and unvaccinated persons wearing masks and continuing to social distance.

I thank you all ahead of time for being cordial in working together in making sure that those wearing masks are able to social distance. Rather than solely designating a specific section in the Church for those wearing masks and social distancing, I think Corpus Christi will do much better as a family (which is our way I believe) in working together to make sure each person in the family has what they need. For unvaccinated persons who do desire to sit in a designated section for unvaccinated persons, we will have that option available if you desire that, though we will not require this of unvaccinated persons, only that they wear a mask and social distance.

In the same vein, I would also like to highly encourage that we show compassion to one another and avoid any judgment of others and their personal decisions in these matters. An additional consideration for the sake of charity may be for vaccinated persons not wearing a mask to put on a mask when not social distancing, though this is not a requirement of the new guidelines.

We will continue to have our medical grade air purifiers running during the masses and will continue to have those distributing Holy Communion wearing masks while distributing communion with sanitized hands. At this time, we are unable to offer the Precious Blood during Holy Communion but hope to do so when given permission from the Archdiocese.

Thank you for your patience, understanding and ongoing charity. It's a blessing to be here with you!

Why Do We Do That? – Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Why are some saints honored as “patron saints”?

Answer:

Each person is unique and each of us has different gifts, interests, talents, and, yes, even struggles and areas where we need to grow. This is no less true of those holy women, men, and children who have been canonized or beatified.

Because we believe that the saints and blessed are both models of faith and intercessors, Christians have looked to certain holy people as role models and heavenly protectors for occupations, spiritual charisms, and even places. Although the Church sometimes names a person as a patron saint (e.g. Saint Philip Neri as the patron of Rome, Saint Clare of Assisi as the patroness of television, or Saint Aloysius Gonzaga as the patron of youth and young adults), more often it is popular devotion that inspires lay Christians to turn to a particular saint or blessed for heavenly help and support. This is how, for example, Saint Cecilia came to be honored as the patroness of musicians, Saint Toribio Romo as patron of migrants coming into the United States, and Saint Gertrude of Nivelles as patroness of cat lovers. Although there are official and unofficial lists of patron saints, we should always feel free to ask any and all the saints to give us their patronage and protection in whatever it is that we need.
