"GOD INHABITS THE PRAISES OF HIS PEOPLE" ~ I felt this very strongly today.

My spirit seemed so FULL of the music and the people at Mass today. Seeing "old faces" like Al Hogrebe and Grace & Bob Lindsay who don't live close by anymore and can't make it to Corpus Christi regularly. Seeing Paula Springer a "new face" who came to Mass for the first time since her heart attack during Holy Week. We've all been praying for her, so to see her looking so healthy was a tremendous blessing.

Seeing Brother Al, OFM and Cantor Steve and his wife joining in on the music and the prayers and looking like they really enjoyed worshipping with us. The Prayers of the Faithful and the Homily...so meaningful! I felt particularly engaged with people at the Greeting of Peace. And then came the wonderful gift...my camera, which I misplaced in church on Easter, was returned to me during the greeting of peace.

Thank you, St. Anthony!

Little snippets of wonderfulness from the precious mosaic that is life in our faith community. And as our Easter Season theme reminds us, I'm enjoying Christ's peace and giving witness.

Peace & Love,
Andrea Baier
