St. Luke Catholic Church

Iglesia Catolica de San Lucas

Winslow Homer

Mission Statement

As Catholics committed to a sacramental life, we are called to be disciples of Christ and help one another as we journey to Heaven under the mantle of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Communion of Saints. Guided by St. Luke, we evangelize by showing God's love, mercy, and generosity, through the traditions of the Catholic Church. We grow the faith through our love for the Eucharist and community outreach.

Welcome!

We are glad you are here to worship with us. Whether you are a cradle Catholic, or this is your first time at a Catholic Mass; whether you are a lifelong member of St. Luke or a visitor to our parish we are blessed by your presence. If you are new to our parish or a visitor, be sure to introduce yourself to Fr. Aldrin, Deacon Gary, or Deacon David on your way out of Mass. If you are interested in joining our parish, please visit our website to register or registration cards may be found in the vestibule.

This Week's Reflection

Reflexión De Esta Semana

False Humility?

It's been months since Easter and it's a long way to Christmas, but there seems to be a lot of rejoicing in today's readings. Isaiah talks about rejoicing with Jerusalem. The Gospel shows the disciples rejoicing when they came back from visiting towns to tell about the Kingdom. St. Paul is happy to be suffering for Christ. So what is the reason for such joy?

The readings make clear that it is not because of what the people of Jerusalem did, or even what miracles Jesus' disciples performed. Isaiah talks about what God will do for the people, how "the Lord's power shall be known to his servants" (Isaiah 66:14). Jesus tells his disciples not to rejoice that they cast out demons; no, they should "rejoice because your names are written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). In other words, we are to rejoice over all the Lord has done for us, not what we have done for him.

Does that sound like false humility?

Like someone receiving an Oscar who says, "I wasn't that good—it was all that my director, my producers, my wife and children, and my dog Snoopy did." No, when we do anything for others, we can honestly say that God does the real work. Knowing that frees us from expecting everyone to be happy, everything we do for others to be successful. When our offer of help is rejected, our prayers for a sick friend don't seem to be working, or our good advice is ridiculed, we can be confident that God has something else planned. Instead of being discouraged, we can trust that God's plan is working in ways we just can't see.

Paul has a similar theme in the second reading. You would think he would be proud of all the converts he made or the people he cured. He boasts only about his suffering because that is how he is most like Jesus. He sees all of his accomplishments as the work of God, and he knows that the greatest thing Jesus did was to die for us. All three readings remind us that what changes our lives and changes the world is not how hard we work or how holy we are; what really makes the difference is how much God loves us. That is the real reason to rejoice.

¿Humildad falsa?

Han pasado meses desde la Pascua y falta mucho para la Navidad, pero parece que hay mucho regocijo en las lecturas de hoy. Isaías habla de regocijarse con Jerusalén. El Evangelio muestra a los discípulos regocijándose cuando regresaban de visitar pueblos para hablarles sobre el Reino. San Pablo está feliz de estar sufriendo por Cristo. Entonces, ¿cuál es la razón de tanta alegría?

Las lecturas dejan claro que no es por lo que hizo la gente de Jerusalén, ni por los milagros que realizaron los discípulos de Jesús. Isaías habla de lo que Dios hará por el pueblo, de cómo "Y los siervos del Señor conocerán su poder" (Isaías 66,14). Jesús les dice a sus discípulos que no se deben alegrar porque han expulsado demonios, sino deben "Alégrense más bien de que sus nombres están escritos en el cielo" (Lucas 10,20). En otras palabras, debemos regocijarnos por todo lo que el Señor ha hecho por nosotros, no por lo que nosotros hemos hecho por él.

¿Suena eso a la humildad falsa? Como si alguien que recibiera un Oscar dijera: "No fui tan bueno; fue todo lo que hicieron el director, los productores, mi esposa e hijos y mi perro Snoopy". No. Cuando hacemos algo por los demás, podemos decir honestamente que Dios hace el verdadero trabajo. Saber eso nos libera de esperar que todos estén felices, que todo lo que hagamos por los demás sea exitoso. Cuando ofrecemos ayudar y lo rechazan, nuestras oraciones por un amigo enfermo no parecen estar funcionando o el buen consejo que damos es ridiculizado, podemos estar seguros de que Dios tiene otros planes. En lugar de desanimarnos, podemos confiar en que el plan de Dios está funcionando de formas que simplemente no podemos ver.

Pablo tiene un tema semejante en la segunda lectura. Uno pensaría que estaría orgulloso de todas las conversiones que ha hecho o de las personas que ha curado. Presume sólo de su sufrimiento porque así es como más se parece a Jesús. Ve todos sus logros como obra de Dios y sabe que lo más grande que hizo Jesús fue morir por nosotros. Las tres lecturas nos recuerdan que lo que cambia nuestras vidas y cambia el mundo no es cuánto nos esforzamos ni cuán santos seamos; lo que realmente marca la diferencia es cuánto nos ama Dios. Esa es la verdadera razón para regocijarnos.

At CHI St. Joseph Health, your Catholic healthcare provider, we need YOU to help us continue to fulfill our mission to "make the healing presence of God known in our world by improving the health of the people we serve."

We are proud to announce the relaunching of our volunteer program where your gifts and talents can change the lives of people in our community. As Pope Francis said, "Volunteers are among the most precious things the Church has." We are looking for caring people who "express the most noble desire of the human heart, making a suffering person feel loved." Experience in health care is not required to volunteer and make a difference! All talents are needed to assist us in caring for the mind, body and soul of our patients, their families and our staff.

If you are looking for a way to make a difference, please reach out to us today!

THE MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

SUMMER CHANT WORKSHOP: NOTATION AND INTERPRETATION

MONDAY JULY 21 - FRIDAY JULY 25, 2025

SAINT MEINRAD ARCHABBEY

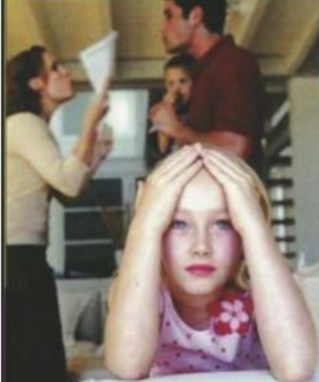

This workshop is designed for directors of liturgical music and singers in parish liturgies who have some background in music. Sessions during the week will focus on how to read the earliest sources of chant and interpret their notation. Daily rehearsals will cover the differences in singing chant from other styles of sacred music. Participants will also be introduced to the church modes and how and why the melodies take the shape they do. These insights will allow participants to uncover the spiritual meaning of chant and sing with a better understanding and intention. Br. John Glasenapp and Br. Joel Blaize will be joined by co-presenter Dr. Rosemary Heredos and others for the week.
