St. Luke Catholic Church

Iglesia Catholica de San Lucas

Mission Statement

As Catholics committed to a sacramental life, we are called to be disciples of Christ and help one another as we journey to Heaven under the mantle of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Communion of Saints. Guided by St. Luke, we evangelize by showing God's love, mercy, and generosity, through the traditions of the Catholic Church. We grow the faith through our love for the Eucharist and community outreach.

This Week's Reflection

Reflexión De Esta Semana

Partying with Angels

While the first reading from Sirach and the Gospel focus on humility ("Humble yourself . . . and you will find favor with God" [Sirach 3:18] and "go and take the lowest place" [Luke 14:10], with a surprise reversal of the humble being exalted), the reading from Hebrews surprises us in a different way. The author uses apocalyptic imagery to show how much the relationship between God and humanity has changed. He starts with images of fire, storms, and trumpet blasts—images that may remind you of an erupting volcano: something you want to view from very far away. Even God's words brought fear and trembling.

It may not be surprising that God is beyond human comprehension, but Hebrews says no. God doesn't want to be so far beyond us that we only approach in fear. Using more images from the end-time, the author gives us a picture of the baptized partying with angels and all the just who have died. And of course God is the host. Let's look at some of those images to see how our relationship with the Lord has grown.

The heavenly Jerusalem reminds us that the Church is our home—not just our parish church building but the whole community of faith. How "at home" are you with your fellow parishioners? Do you regularly gather with that family for prayer? A church community can be a place to support those who are sick or jobless or depressed. It is also a place to be supported, to see God's love in action. The angels in Hebrews may be a symbol of that support.

The "firstborn" and "spirits of the just" could remind us of those who went before us and now rest in the Lord. They had their own struggles in life, and now live in glory. They help us to keep our true goal in mind, to remember the real meaning of life, and to look forward to eternal life with hope.

Jesus came to show us how much God loves us and how close God can be. When he shed his blood on the cross (the final sign in our reading), he renewed the covenant with God's people. So we no longer have to accomplish our salvation; it has already been offered to us by Jesus' death and resurrection. We accept that gift not just by a verbal statement of faith, but by a life lived as Jesus showed us, in love of God and our neighbor.

Tom Schmidt

Hacer fiesta con los ángeles

Mientras que la primera lectura del Sirácida y el Evangelio se enfocan en la humildad: "procede con humildad... y hallarás gracia ante el Señor" (Eclesiástico 3,18) y "ocupa el último lugar" (Lucas 14,10), con una sorprendente inversión de la exaltación del humilde, la lectura de Hebreos nos sorprende de una forma diferente. El autor usa imágenes apocalípticas para mostrar cuánto ha cambiado la relación entre Dios y la humanidad. Comienza con imágenes de fuego, tormentas y trompetas, imágenes que pueden recordarnos a un volcán en erupción: algo que deseamos ver muy de lejos. Incluso las palabras de Dios nos infundieron temor y temblor.

Puede que no sea sorprendente que Dios esté más allá de la comprensión humana, pero la carta a los Hebreos nos dice que no. Dios no quiere estar tan lejos de nosotros que solo nos acerquemos con miedo. Usando más imágenes del fin de los tiempos, el autor nos ofrece una imagen de los bautizados celebrando con ángeles y todos los justos que han muerto. Y, por supuesto, Dios es el anfitrión. Veamos algunas de esas imágenes para ver cómo ha crecido nuestra relación con el Señor.

La Jerusalén celestial nos recuerda que la Iglesia es nuestro hogar; no solo nuestra parroquia, sino toda la comunidad de fe. ¿Qué tan "en casa" te sientes con los otros feligreses? ¿Te reúnes regularmente con esa familia para orar? Una comunidad eclesial puede ser un lugar para apoyar a quienes están enfermos, desempleados o deprimidos. También es un lugar para recibir apoyo, para ver el amor de Dios en acción. Los ángeles en Hebreos pueden ser un símbolo de ese apoyo.

Los "primogénitos" y los "espíritus de los justos" podrían recordarnos a quienes nos precedieron y ahora descansan en el Señor. Ellos tuvieron sus propias batallas en la vida y ahora viven en gloria. Nos ayudan a mantener presente nuestro verdadero objetivo, a recordar el verdadero significado de la vida y a anhelar la vida eterna con esperanza.

Jesús vino a mostrarnos cuánto nos ama Dios y cuán cerca puede estar. Al derramar su sangre en la cruz (la última señal de las lecturas), renovó la alianza con el pueblo de Dios. Así que ya no tenemos que lograr nuestra salvación; ya se nos ha sido ofrecida por la muerte y resurrección de Jesús. Aceptamos ese don no solo con una declaración verbal de fe, sino viviendo como Jesús nos enseñó, por amor a Dios y al prójimo.

Dear Parents,

Our first CCD class will be September 7 from 8:30-9:30 am. in the church basement. You will have an opportunity to complete registration forms, pay a $10.00 fee, sign up for the my Parish App, review the calendar, meet your child's teacher and have coffee and donuts while your child completes a craft. So plan to stay for part of that morning.

If your child is in:

First grade: this class begins the process of coming to class and learning about God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. It begins the foundation of their faith development.

Second grade/ First Communion: This class prepares your child to receive the sacraments of Reconciliation and the Eucharist. Weekly attendance is very important, so that your child understands the importance of these sacraments.

Third, Fourth and Fifth grades: These classes continue to build on the faith and provide your child a foundation for Confirmation when they reach middle school.

Copies of the curriculum will be available to review and each child will have a folder to take home with the week's lesson as well as parent information.

I'm in need of third, fourth and fifth grade teachers. The classes are typically small at no more than 10. The curriculum is easy to follow and is based on Sunday's readings. If you are interested, please let me know as soon as possible.

God Bless You and looking forward to seeing you on September 7.

Estimados padres:

Nuestra primera clase de CCD será el 7 de septiembre de 8:30 a 9:30 a. m. en el sótano de la iglesia. Tendrán la oportunidad de completar los formularios de inscripción, pagar una cuota de $10.00, registrarse en la aplicación My Parish, revisar el calendario, conocer al maestro de su hijo/a y disfrutar de un café con donas mientras su hijo/a hace una manualidad. Así que planeen quedarse parte de esa mañana. Si su hijo/a está en:

Primer grado: esta clase inicia el proceso de asistir a clase y aprender sobre Dios Padre, Dios Hijo y Dios Espíritu Santo. Establece las bases para el desarrollo de su fe.

Segundo grado/Primera Comunión: esta clase prepara a su hijo/a para recibir los sacramentos de la Reconciliación y la Eucaristía. La asistencia semanal es muy importante para que su hijo/a comprenda la importancia de estos sacramentos.

Tercero, cuarto y quinto grado: Estas clases continúan fortaleciendo la fe y brindan a su hijo/a una base para la Confirmación cuando llegue a la secundaria.

Habrará copias del plan de estudios disponibles para su revisión y cada niño/a tendrá una carpeta para llevar a casa con la lección de la semana, así como información para los padres.

Necesito maestros/as de tercer, cuarto y quinto grado. Las clases suelen ser pequeñas, con un máximo de 10 alumnos. El plan de estudios es fácil de seguir y se basa en las lecturas del domingo. Si le interesa, por favor, avíseme lo antes posible.

Que Dios los bendiga y espero verlos/as el 7 de septiembre.
