REFLECTING WITH THE PAROCHIAL VICAR

JUNE 25, 2017

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LOVE IS FREEDOM FROM FEAR

Last weekend, teen leaders from the high school LIFE group along with seminarian Jeff Stephens and myself were at the ABIDE Youth Conference (www.abidecinci.com). We spent several days with other teens and adults worshipping together, praying with each other, adoring the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and calling for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit for the courage to have conversations with strangers. The Saturday before Corpus Christi, we joined about 70 teens along with a team of adult chaperones in the "joy invasion" of Washington Park and Over-the-Rhine. We wanted the love we had received from prayer, Adoration, and Mass to overflow into the community because that's what Jesus desires.

"Fear no one. Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known. What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops." Why is Jesus telling His disciples, yet again, not to be afraid? Today's reading from the Gospel of Matthew is the middle of chapter 10. Right before the part we've heard this weekend, Jesus has just told the apostles that He would be sending them out among wolves! People are not always going to want to hear the good news of Jesus Christ. Some will resist our attempts to share God's love and mercy. Jesus continually encourages us to do it anyway.

St. Teresa of Calcutta puts it best:

PEOPLE ARE OFTEN UNREASONABLE, IRRATIONAL, AND SELF-CENTERED.
FORGIVE THEM ANYWAY.
IF YOU ARE KIND, PEOPLE MAY ACCUSE YOU OF SELFISH, ULTERIOR MOTIVES.
BE KIND ANYWAY.
IF YOU ARE SUCCESSFUL, YOU WILL WIN SOME UNFAITHFUL FRIENDS AND SOME GENUINE ENEMIES.
SUCCEED ANYWAY.
IF YOU ARE HONEST AND SINCERE PEOPLE MAY DECEIVE YOU.
BE HONEST AND SINCERE ANYWAY.
WHAT YOU SPEND YEARS CREATING, OTHERS COULD DESTROY OVERNIGHT.
CREATE ANYWAY.
IF YOU FIND SERENITY AND HAPPINESS, SOME MAY BE JEALOUS.
BE HAPPY ANYWAY.
THE GOOD YOU DO TODAY, WILL OFTEN BE FORGOTTEN.
DO GOOD ANYWAY.
GIVE THE BEST YOU HAVE, AND IT WILL NEVER BE ENOUGH.
GIVE YOUR BEST ANYWAY.
IN THE FINAL ANALYSIS, IT IS BETWEEN YOU AND GOD.
IT WAS NEVER BETWEEN YOU AND THEM ANYWAY.
- MOTHER TERESA

*Divine Healer, God of Wholeness, we place these parishioners in Your hands; we ask for healing, but also for acceptance of their illness and of Your holy plan. Help them and us to embrace whatever You have in mind for them. Support them in their anxieties, fears, pains, and the frustrations of their illness. Support them with the strength of the Holy Spirit. We ask this in the name of Jesus, compassionate healer of those in need of health and hope.
Amen.*

Today there is a collection for Peter's Pence, a worldwide collection that supports the charitable works of Pope Francis. Funds from this collection help victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Take this opportunity to join with Pope Francis and be a witness of charity to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please be generous today. For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

VATICAN II, MERCY, AND YOU

In this illuminating talk, Fr. Michael Gaitley recounts how Archbishop Karol Wojtyla, later Pope St. John Paul II, used the teachings of the Second Vatican Council with great success to help Catholics in his diocese live their faith to the full. Learn how Vatican II provides a map to help us enrich our lives through faith and effectively experience the good news of God's divine mercy.

Lighthouse Catholic Media CDs are in the Gathering Space for $3.00 each.

FORMED JUNE FEATURE: MASCULINITY

Courage is the willingness to suffer for what is true, good, and beautiful. The desire to be courageous is written into the fiber of a man's being, and the Church's understanding of masculinity is sacrifice. Effeminacy, on the other hand, is the reluctance to sacrifice and act with courage. Tragically, the call to authentic masculinity is barely perceptible in the culture today, leading to a vacuum of destruction. True masculinity is embodied by Jesus Christ in His sacrifice on the Cross, which all Christians must imitate daily. The following recommended resources are available through FORMED:

STEWARDSHIP

THIS WEEK, FROM THE ST. SUSANNA VINCENTIANS...

In the Gospel today, we hear Jesus say: "Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father." This month, through your gifts, our parish Society of St. Vincent de Paul chapter was able to "acknowledge the goodness of the Father" by providing food, money for utility and rent bills, etc. Thank You for your generous donations to this ministry!

JUNE CAREGIVER SUPPORT MEETING

Cheerful CareGiver

Believe in yourself! Have faith in your abilities! Without a humble but reasonable confidence in your own powers, you cannot be successful or happy. – by N. Vincent Peale

We hope to see you June 28th in the St. Julie Billiart Room, 7:00-8:30pm. Call Sharon Kipfer, 513-509-3278, with questions.

RCIA THIS WEEK

This week's (June 26th) RCIA lesson is "Freedom in Christ": Christian freedom is freedom to do the good. A life of sin is slavery unto death. Obedience to God leads to a life of holiness and the confident hope of eternal joy with Him.

Questions for the week: In what ways am I confronted with "two ways" or paths from which to choose? Some people see God's law as a restriction on human freedom. How is obedience to God true freedom? What is my motivation for keeping God's law? How do I react to Jesus' answer to the rich man to give his wealth to the poor and to follow Him?

To study along with us, consider meditating on the following Scriptures:

Ps 102:18-22; Is 45:12-13; Mt 5:3-12; Mt 5:48; Mt 7:13-14; Mt 11:29-30; Mk 10:17-22; Jn 8:31-36; Jn 13:34-35; Jn 14:6; Rom 2:14-16; Rom 6:1-11; Rom 6:16-23; Gal 5:1; Phil 1:27; 1 Tm 1:18-19; Phlm v 14; 2 Pt 1:3-9

Look at the Catholic Catechism: 1691-1698; 1705-1707; 1716-1724; 1730-1742; 1776-1794; 1965-1972

Please pray for all of those people journeying to full Communion with the Catholic Church! For more information, please contact Susan Hack, ext. 3169 or hacks@stsusanna.org or visit:

www.stsusanna.org/rcia.

SCHOOL NEWS

- Summer office hours will be daily from 8:00 – 12:00 (noon) through June 23, 2017. The School Office will be closed the month of July. We will reopen on Wednesday, August 2, 2017.
- Homeroom lists for next school year will be posted on Friday, August 4, 2017.
- Reminder... All volunteers who work with children need to attend a VIRTUS Session and have a clear Background Check. For details, visit the Parish website; choose Parish Info tab, then Child Protection from its dropdown menu.
- We have limited enrollment openings in a few of our grade levels. If you are interested in attending Saint Susanna School next school year, please call 398-3821, ext. 3108.

EXCITING NEWS..

After a thorough search, our Principal Search Committee has made their recommendation for our next school principal. I am excited to say that Mr. Daniel Albrinck has accepted my invitation to be our new principal. Mr. Albrinck has been a teacher with us for the past three years. He brings with him a deep faith, love of children, energy and a vision that will propel St. Susanna toward the future. I am convinced he will build on the great foundation we have and challenge our faculty and students to achieve even more. I, again, thank Mr. Hartman, for his 9 years of ministry at St. Susanna and wish him well at All Saints. May God bless and guide us in this time of transition.

St. Susanna Youth Choir

If your child enjoys singing, please note that sign-ups for the St. Susanna Youth Choir are now available at: www.stsusanna.org/youthchoir.

There are two youth choirs this coming season. One for 2nd through 4th grade and another for 5th through 8th grade. The schedule of rehearsals and Masses that they'll be singing at throughout the year are made available there, also. Let's continue the tradition of music education and youth involvement at our Masses.

VOLUNTEER INFORMATION

Those volunteering with children must fulfill the following requirements:

- must attend a Protecting God's Children seminar provided by VIRTUS
- have a cleared background check
- and must read monthly training bulletins online

The next open seminar at St. Susanna Parish is Wednesday, August 9, 2017 at 6:30pm. You must register online to attend - visit www.virtus.org to register!

If you are a St. Susanna volunteer, please contact Cathy Meyer at 513-398-3821, ext. 3113 or meyerc@stsusanna.org before registering your VIRTUS account.

IT'S NOT TOO LATE TO REGISTER FOR PRESCHOOL!!!

If you are looking for a nurturing environment for your little one with a variety of opportunities to learn & play all while discovering God's wonderful world, St. Susanna Preschool is the place for you! We have limited openings in our 3s, 4s and Pre-K afternoon sessions, so don't delay... call today!

For additional information or to schedule a tour, please contact Joette Ewing, Preschool Director at 513-398-3821, ext. 3131 or ewingj@stsusanna.org. Thank you!

DISCIPLES IN ACTION

ST. SUSANNA'S NEW MINISTRY: OUR GLOBAL FAMILY

"Guided by our faith, we stand in solidarity with newcomers to our country. Through education, hospitality, relationship building and outreach, we expand our neighborhoods with the goal of fostering community acceptance and inclusion."

More than 65 million people are displaced around the world due to conflicts and persecution. 21 million are refugees who have crossed international borders. Only 1% of them will be permanently resettled. For more information about this ministry and how you can be involved, please contact Mary Jo Burns, burnsmj@stsusanna.org or 398-3821, ext. 3120.

For more information, visit the Our Global Family Ministry web page at www.stsusanna.org/ourglobalfamily.

COME BUILD WITH US!

St. Susanna is teaming up with Habitat for Humanity on July 15th from 8:30am-4:00pm. We will be working on a home in Newport, KY. Individuals, 16 years of age or older, are needed to assist this nonprofit Christian housing ministry. No prior experience in home building/finishing work is needed, just a desire to be the Hands of Christ to insure a safe and affordable place to live for families. For more information, please contact Mary Jo Burns, burnsmj@stsusanna.org or 398-3821, ext. 3120.

Online registration must be completed by July 7th:
www.stsusanna.org/habitatforhumanity.

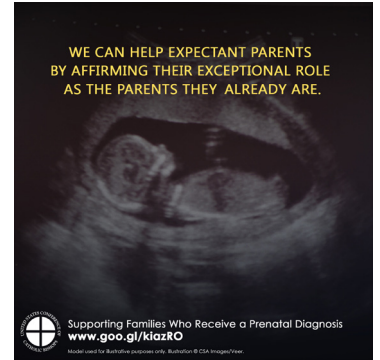

SISTERS OF NOTRE DAME DE NAMUR CLEAN WATER PROJECT

This weekend, the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur will be present after all Masses to share with the parish their Clean Water Project. Some key facts to be aware of:

- Contaminated drinking water is a major problem... almost one billion people do not have access to safe water.
- It is documented that simply providing safe, clean drinkable water can reduce deadly diarrhea and other devastating diseases by about 50%.
- Providing a safe and efficient supply of clean water means children spend less time tending to survival tasks and more time dedicated to studies and brighter futures.

There are three ways that the Sisters help those whom they work with in developing countries obtain clean drinking water: the Photovoltaic Project, Bore Holes, and P&G Purifier of Water Packets. Please, take a few minutes after Mass to speak with the Sisters and learn more about this initiative. Any monetary donations that you can provide to assist them in their endeavors would be greatly appreciated.

THIS WEEK, FROM THE ST. SUSANNA RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY...

COMPUTER RECYCLING RESULTS

In April, St. Susanna teamed up with Good Shephard's Computer Recycling Ministry with the goal to reclaim old PCs, keeping them from going to landfills, and to refurbish usable ones in order to provide them to less fortunate individuals who would not otherwise have access to a home computer.

During that computer drive, 61 PCs, 46 monitors, 24 laptops, and 43 printers were collected along with numerous keyboards and mouses. Of those totals, Good Shephard was able to utilize 41 PCs, 34 monitors, 24 laptops, 2 printers and the keyboards and mouses. The remaining items were taken to Cohen Recycling, which provides a safe, secure, and environmentally responsible solution for recycling electronics.

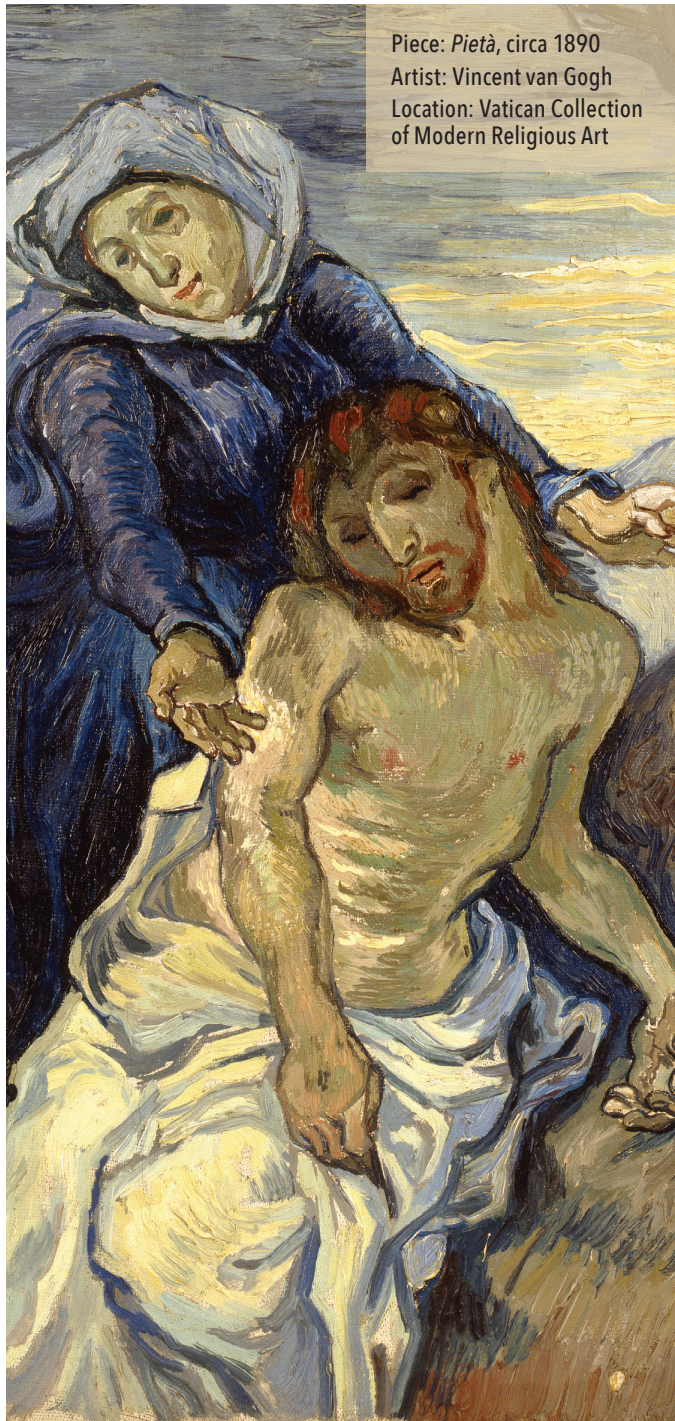

Thank You for your donations and for helping to make a difference in others' lives.

ST. SUSANNA SAYS THANK YOU TO A PURPLE HEART VETERAN

(Purple Heart Recipient) E-8 Senior Chief James Hatch was shot at close range with an AK-47 on a hostage rescue mission in 2009. He was part of 150 Direct Action Combat Missions. As a K9 handler on several deployments, James' life was regularly spared by the work of K9s – one of the most memorable was Spike. And on James' final deployment, the night he was critically wounded, a K9 saved James' life while losing his own. From that evening on, James oriented his life around the training, care and preservation of working dogs. Jimmy founded Spikes K9 Fund after his recovery. Spikes K9 Fund is a 501c3 Tax-Exempt Organization. In addition to working as the founder and president of the fund, he works with local law enforcement and has adopted a former service dog in need of medical attention.

Help St. Susanna honor Senior Chief James Hatch by providing him with "thank-you" cards. Please place all cards in the marked boxes, in the Gathering Space, by July 10th. This will allow him to have the cards prior to the Warrior Weekend celebrated in Middletown, OH, July 19th-23rd. After the Warrior Weekend, St. Susanna will be sending a care package to James to let him know that the St. Susanna Community will keep him in our thoughts and prayers.

Piece: Pietà, circa 1890
Artist: Vincent van Gogh
Location: Vatican Collection of Modern Religious Art

Struggle and Rest

Vincent van Gogh is one of the most famous painters in history. His dramatic style of eternally swirling motion and his palette of deep blue, green, and brown captivates us. His life was just as topsy-turvy as his style. He started off as an aspiring minister and missionary yet ended up committing himself to painting. He fought with mental illness most his life and, sadly, died poor and amidst mysterious circumstances.

His painting Pietà is one of his most spiritual and religious works. Carried out in the months before his untimely death, it shows the maturation of his style. Rather than approach the painting with a wide horizontal composition, he keeps it quite vertical, which suggests a connection between heaven and earth. Jesus is falling forward slightly and is not quite resting in Mary's arms. He seems to be somewhat on his own as Mary reacts in grief, offering more than an accepting embrace.

Suffering has both the moment of struggle and of rest. In Van Gogh's Pietà, as in life, the unrequited desire to rest prevails. The struggle to accept and embrace suffering was a big part of Van Gogh's life, as seen in his letters to his brother. Van Gogh, like us, sought serenity in a faith that claims "he has rescued the life of the poor" and that "all the hairs of your head are counted" and not a sparrow "falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge." We are precious to God, as was his Son. The power of God's love embraces our suffering and offers to bring it to resurrection.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection

What am I struggling with and need to give over to Christ? How can I increase my trust in God this week?

"If by that one person's transgression the many died, how much more did the grace of God...overflow" (Romans 5:15).
