REFLECTING WITH THE PASTOR

JULY 30, 2017

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ARE YOU ALL IN?

The past several weeks we have been hearing various "Kingdom" parables from Jesus.

The Kingdom of heaven is like the sower who sows seed, some lands on rocky ground, some on shallow ground, some on good soil...

The Kingdom of heaven is like a field where wheat and weeds grow together...

The Kingdom of heaven is like yeast or a mustard seed...

and today's images... the Kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in a field; a precious pearl where the person who finds it goes and sells all they have to acquire it. The fishing net that is filled with good and bad fish.

Some of the conclusions we can make when dealing with God and His Kingdom is that we have a God who is "wasteful" in spreading the Good News of love, grace and mercy to everyone; God is patient with us and trusts that eventually the wheat and an abundant harvest will win out over the weeds... His Kingdom of mercy, love, grace and justice grows too fast for the weeds to keep up; and today... once we find and accept God's gift of the Kingdom, we must hold nothing back. The Present is fishing time (that is our responsibility) and we will catch all kinds of fish. The sorting out of good and bad will take place on the shore by God and only God!!!!

If we were addressed by God like Solomon was, "Ask something of me and I will give it to you"... what would we ask for? Riches? Health? Peace among nations and people? Power? Understanding? Humility? Forgiveness? What we ask for tells us what kind of soil we are... what is important in our lives... what and who we really are!

If we were addressed by Jesus like the Scribe, "Do you understand these things?"... would we dare to answer YES! Do we really understand the mystery of the Kingdom of Heaven: its revelation, its unfolding, the role reserved to us, the demands we must submit to in order to be admitted into it, its fulfillment at the end of time? To understand all these things is not a matter of human intelligence but of spiritual intelligence. Only the humble and lowly... only the one who truly relies on God... only the one in personal relationship with Jesus... will produce an abundant harvest.

Once we accept and understand... we must be all in! We must be willing to sell and let go of everything this world says is important in order to acquire what is really important... the Gift of God's love and life with Him forever in heaven. The Kingdom parables are inexhaustibly rich. Discover what really makes you rich... discover the hidden treasure and your life will never be the same!

Rags to Riches

The richly decorated portrait The Vision of Saint Helena by Paolo Veronese is immediately impressive. Helena, a woman of humble origins, became the wife of Constantius Chlorus (Rome's emperor from 293–306). An innkeeper's daughter in an outback town, her beauty caught the eye of the most powerful man on earth. She went from rags to riches.

Here she wears lush, Eastern fabrics with woven prints and royal colors. The gold and blue details of her dress and the valour of her crimson cape broached under her chin denote the wealth her position afforded. She rests on a high-back leather throne; an elegant textile wall covering provides a background from floor to ceiling.

The softly flowing fabrics and her serene posture exude calm and focus our attention on her tranquil face and spirit of contemplation. No matter the power, wealth, and beauty of the world surrounding her, Helena has forsaken all to pursue the true treasure she possesses as a Christian and values more than the rest. Helena traveled from Rome to Jerusalem to bring back the relics of Christ's passion. These reminders of Jesus' love for sinners became the most important treasures of Christendom.

Veronese wants to convince us that through prayer we come to understand our treasure is not found in wealth but in the glorious vestment of baptismal faith. As adopted sons and daughters of the king, we become like St. Helena: poor commoners raised to royalty! Thank God for his gift of life in Christ and allow your heart to follow the inspirations he shares with you.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection

Saint Helena left the comfort of her home to search for the cross of Christ. What are you searching for? What are you willing to give up for it? Are there riches or treasures that have a stronger hold on your heart than the kingdom of God?

“The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field” (Matthew 13:44).
