REFLECTING WITH THE PASTOR

MAY 19, 2019

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

GET THE NEW AND IMPROVED....

We are all looking for the latest and greatest gadgets. We are all looking for something new and exciting in our lives. We often get bored with the same old, same old. We need to be entertained by life and seem to be drawn to advertisements that insist: "this is really new and you can't live without it!" How new and improved does everything have to be? What can I really live without? Today's scriptures are telling us that there is something that is really new and something we can't live without. But they are not talking about something that is relevant only for today but something that is lasting.... a new and heavenly Jerusalem... a new commandment.

We are called and destined for heaven. We are invited by Jesus to enter the new Jerusalem where we will dwell with God... where everything will be transformed. To achieve this new dwelling place, we must follow His new commandment to love... to love everyone totally and completely. This commandment was revolutionary then... it is revolutionary now. How do we love those different from ourselves? How do we love those who cause harm to innocent people? How do we love the sinner, the outcast? The people of Jesus' day found it easier to get rid of the messenger (Jesus) by crucifixion than to take His teaching seriously and change their lives. Are we any better? Are we willing to change our attitudes, our perspectives, our hopes and dreams for the sake of someone else? Do we close off our hearts to those who challenge us to live and love differently because it is too difficult?

The new kind of love that Jesus told to us might require us to open doors that we have close against others, to respond to cries for help we would rather not hear, to forgive oversights and mistakes of others. Jesus says this is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.

John's vision of the new heaven and new earth is in the future only because we have failed to live it in our present. Jesus has risen from the dead and all is new. We have entered the age of fulfillment. Because we have received the same Spirit our ancestors in faith received, it is within our power to fashion a world, a country, a parish, a neighborhood and family where true love is found. That's why people who do live this extraordinary love, this unselfish love stand out in the crowd. Stand out... stand up for Jesus and His new commandment. Take some time this week to pray on those things that hold you back from transforming your little corner of the world.

God's Reign in Heaven and Earth

The trumpeters in the center of the huge Sistine Chapel wall fresco declare the new reign of God, the coming of the new Jerusalem, which was sent from heaven from God Most High. This new heaven and earth is the civilization of love brought about by Christ's passion, death, and resurrection.

It's not an abstract ideal or some faraway lost city. It's a city that exists in heaven around the throne of the Lamb and grows by means of the Church as God's kingdom on earth.

Just as Paul and Barnabas appointed elders and the Church took on a stable, hierarchical structure, we are reminded of the historical growth of this city of love—God's Church on earth. From the beginning it was founded on faith. The apostles prayed, fasted, and commended these elders to the Lord. It was their common faith in Christ that was the foundation of this new kingdom of God.

The glory of this kingdom isn't in church buildings or organizations, but it's the glory that Jesus mentions in today's Gospel. "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him" (John 13:31). It's the glory that comes from Jesus' faithful love toward the Father and his disciples, leading him to be enthroned on the cross and rule as the Lamb that was slain yet still stands. It is the new commandment of love that is their glory. Thus the bride that is the Church will be great to the degree that it loves like Jesus, its husband and King.

For Reflection

Do I believe that the essence of real, lasting power is found in love?

Old forms of hate and division are destined to pass away. Am I hastening the arrival of the new kingdom by the love with which I live?

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

*[Jesus said,] "I give you a new commandment: love one another.
As I have loved you, so you also should love one another."
