Jesus Assures the Disciples of God's Care for Them

Reflection on Matthew 10:26-33

We read today's Gospel in the context of last week's Gospel in which Jesus sent the twelve disciples to proclaim the kingdom of heaven. In between last week's reading and today's reading, Jesus has predicted that the disciples will face difficulties in their mission. Many people will not receive them well, even within the land of Israel. Even family members will turn away from the disciples because of the disciples' commitment to Jesus and the kingdom. Today's Gospel offers the disciples consolation against this difficult truth.

This section of Matthew's Gospel should be read in the context of Matthew's intended audience, a Jewish-Christian community. The Gospel alludes to the dangers and persecutions that this community has most likely already faced and will continue to face. To reassure this community, Matthew recalls for them the encouraging words of Jesus that we read today.

In this Gospel passage, Jesus might be understood as putting suffering in perspective. The disciples of Jesus are called upon to keep their focus on God. Those who can harm the body do not have ultimate power; God does. Still persecution and suffering can not be avoided or prevented. But Jesus reassures his disciples that God knows and cares about what happens to his children.

We might not face the same type of persecution, but we do experience difficulties as we endeavor to live a Christian life. Sometimes we let the opinions of others prevent us from doing what we know to be right. We need the reminder that what God thinks about us is more important. We are reassured by the promise that God cares for us and protects us.

I Praise You, For I am Wonderfully Made

Responsorial Psalm 139:1b-3, 13-14ab, 14c-15

R. I praise you, for I am wonderfully made.

O LORD, you have probed me, you know me:
you know when I sit and when I stand; you understand my thoughts from afar.
My journeys and my rest you scrutinize, with all my ways you are familiar.
R. I praise you for I am wonderfully made.

Truly you have formed my inmost being; you knit me in my mother's womb.
I give you thanks that I am fearfully, wonderfully made; wonderful are your works.
R. I praise you, for I am wonderfully made.

My soul also you knew full well; nor was my frame unknown to you
When I was made in secret, when I was fashioned in the depths of the earth.
R. I praise you, for I am wonderfully made.

JOHN [THE BAPTIST] CHALLENGES US CHRISTIANS TO THE FUNDAMENTAL ATTITUDE OF CHRISTIANITY—TOTAL DEPENDENCE ON THE FATHER, IN CHRIST. EXCEPT FOR THE MOTHER OF GOD, NO ONE HAD A HIGHER FUNCTION IN THE UNFOLDING OF SALVATION.

YET THE LEAST IN THE KINGDOM, JESUS SAID, IS GREATER THAN HE, FOR THE PURE GIFT THAT THE FATHER GIVES. THE ATTRACTIVENESS AS WELL AS THE AUSTERITY OF JOHN, HIS FIERCE COURAGE IN DENOUNCING EVIL—ALL STEM FROM HIS FUNDAMENTAL AND TOTAL PLACING OF HIS LIFE WITHIN THE WILL OF GOD.

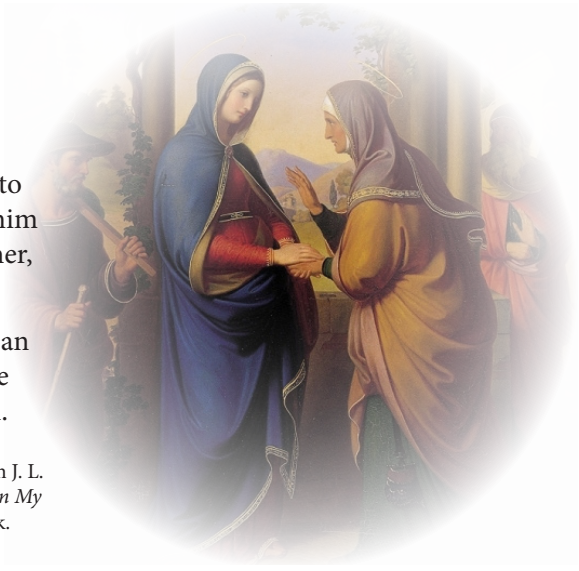
Mother Teresa: On Life



The first person in the world to welcome Jesus, to recognize him in the womb of his own mother, was a child: John the Baptist.

It is wonderful; God chooses an unborn child to announce the coming of his redeeming Son.

St. John the Baptist

Patron Saint of Converts, Baptism
Feast Day: August 29

John was a cousin of Jesus Christ and began his ministry around his twenty-seventh year. He gave up all worldly goods to spread the word of the coming Savior. He survived during his travels by eating locusts and wild honey. John brought many believers to the Christian faith. Later, he baptized into the Lord his cousin Jesus and then told his disciples to follow Christ. Herodias beheaded John because of the words of a jealous and wicked woman; his head was brought to her on a platter. John was then buried in Samaria.

Prayer to St. John the Baptist

Dear Baptizer of the Lord,
I ask for your strength as I try to spread God's word in my own small way. When I speak of my newfound love for the Lord to others, let them feel the dedication and respect in my heart. Give me the fortitude to be a good Christian and help me to help others come to know and accept Christ as well. Amen.
