GOSPEL REFLECTION

THE SOLEMNITY OF OUR CHRIST THE KING

WHO IS THE KING OF YOUR LIFE?

We finally come to the end of the Liturgical year and this Sunday is the Solemnity of Our Lord, Christ the King of the Universe. In the 1920's after the First World War, many strong rulers like Hitler, Mussolini and others emerged on the world scene to control the affairs of the World. In most cases, their word was final, and many people surrendered their lives to fate. The Church was more concerned with this situation and in 1925, Pope Pius XI established the feast of Christ the King, as a reminder to the world, that actually, Christ was the only eternal King, in charge of the whole universe, and not those mortal men of the time. The concept of a King may be foreign to many in the US but like in many communities in Africa and the middle East, a King was seen as next to God. He was in charge of everything on earth, including life. He had ultimate authority and was not answerable to any human being but was born with all that authority.

However, most of the Kings misused their powers knowing that they were not answerable to anyone, and this led to the collapse of many Kingdoms in the world because people lost confidence in their kings and rebelled against them simply because of their injustices.

But the Kingship of Jesus is a unique one. He is a King that turns our worldly view of Kingship to a different direction, from a king who is to be served, to a King who came to serve especially those who are marginalized. His authority is based on the rule of justice, love and mercy, and His Kingdom is an everlasting one. Even amidst the chaos that is going on in the world, Christ still reigns forever. This weekend, Ezekiel gives us the message of hope that even in times of such troubles, the King of the universe will rescue the scattered sheep and bring them back to the fold. This means that, no matter what is happening in our world and in our own lives, God is in charge. He protects us and He shall judge all of us with Justice and reward each one of us according to our deeds. And so, our focus now as Christians must be on the heavenly Kingdom which our King assumed the throne through suffering on the Cross. He established His Kingdom with values that are at odds with the world and invites us also to be part of those values by denying ourselves certain pleasures and sharing what we have with those in need.

He invites us to use our power, authority and blessings to serve others, build a just society and not to manipulate them. Jesus shows us how to bring about His kingdom, by feeding the hungry, welcoming the strangers, visiting the sick and those in prison and above all, serving others above self, following His own example. He is the King who came to serve and not to be served. May we imitate His example as we prepare ourselves to begin the season of Advent so that our hearts may be ready to recognize Him in the lives of our brothers and sisters. For the Kingdom and the power and the Glory are His, now and Forever. Amen.

Wishing you a Fruitful Advent Season.
Fr. Elias

AMEN! Yes, I believe!

At Mass, several times we are saying "Amen." For instance, after the Sign of the Cross and after each of the prayers lead by the priest, the Opening Prayer, the Offertory Prayer, and the Concluding Prayer, we respond out loud with our "Amen." We also say Amen after the prayer for peace after the Our Father and before we receive the Holy Communion.

As well, there are some definite high points in the Mass where we give special interest to what is going on. We stand for the Gospel reading; we kneel for the Consecration; we receive Jesus Himself in Holy Communion. These are major moments we should all be especially tuned into.

But there is another moment during Mass which is the highest point, the apex of the whole liturgical celebration at which we respond "Amen." And that is the Great Amen. Coming at the end of the Eucharistic Prayer, after Christ has been made present in the Bread and Wine, in a re-presentation of His saving sacrifice instituted at the Last Supper and realized on Good Friday on the Cross, we as a priestly people, give our "yes" and our assent to what is taking place by exclaiming in a bold and usually sung manner, "AMEN!"

This is a profound, timeless moment of our lives. Time is enveloped in eternity, the divine is present among us, we are transported across time and space to Heaven itself, where we take part in the redemptive offering of the God-Man for our sake. Salvation is not left to a past event that we think back on and remember. At Mass, we actively participate in that sacrifice which is made present in our now. It is an active and effective memorial. And so, we say "AMEN!" to what is happening in our midst on the altar.

Therefore, at Mass, when we come to the end of the Eucharistic Prayer and the priest intones the Great Amen, while holding the Host and Chalice up for us to see, we should be super attentive, with our eyes fixed towards the altar, offering this perfect sacrifice of praise to God our Father. And we should belt out that "Amen" with all our hearts and our voices, fully taking our part in what is happening on the altar with our ascent of faith. There is no other moment more important than this during the whole liturgical rite. It all comes to a head at this moment. Put your heart into this sublime act of faith and worship every time you attend Mass. Don't let it pass by with you not noticing it. Make this Amen really great!

AMEN! Yes, I believe!

STAFF SPOTLIGHT: SHAYNE RENO

St. Susanna's Staff Confirmation and Baptism Specialist

After graduation from Northern Kentucky University with a degree in Electronic Media and aspirations of making it big in Hollywood, Shayne Reno got very lucky. After working as a freelance production assistant in a variety of local commercials, she finally got her big break, a feature film that was being shot in Cincinnati. Working on the film was challenging for the Owensville, Ohio, native and graduate of McNicholas High School, and ultimately proved to be a pivotal moment in her life. She had finally gotten the thing she had been chasing, the thing that was supposed to make her happy. But God had other plans for her life.

On her first day of shooting, the illusion shattered all around her as she realized how empty it all was. Shayne was heartbroken. But God broke into her life in a dramatic way that day, and over the next few months of shooting, she had lots of time to pray and reflect on what He was calling her to do.... what He wanted for Shayne's life. From there, even though she was offered crew positions on a variety of other films and commercial sets, she decided to dedicate herself to service in the Church, especially with youth.

Shayne started volunteering as a CCD catechist and went to work with organizations focused on going into classrooms to speak to kids about chastity. She had always wanted to work for the Church, and some of her favorite time working in ministry was when she was given the opportunity to serve as a middle school and high school youth minister at St. Margaret of York Church in Loveland. Shayne loves working with youth and sharing the Gospel with them. In 2016, Shayne married her college sweetheart, Michael, and they welcomed their first child, Everly, in July of 2019.

Shayne started working at St. Susanna as a part-time pastoral associate overseeing infant Baptism, and 8th grade Confirmation, while she raises her family. She has become a valuable part of the parish staff, while continuing to serve St. Susanna families.

FAITH & FAMILY: MASS CARD

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST THE KING

Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17 • 1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28 • Matthew 25:31-46

Most people have never seen Christ in a physical way, where they could talk to Him and hear Him talk back to them. In today's scripture, however, Jesus tells us that He is present in the people who may be the hardest to look at.

Who are the "least" of our brothers and sisters? He might be the person at school who isn't very popular. She might be the person at work to whom no one reaches out. He may even be the person who lives next door to you. Jesus wants us to find ways to love Him through those who may not be easy to love, just as He did.

Dear Lord, sometimes I judge people by what they look like or by their possessions. Please give me the grace to love all people as you taught us through your example.

Is there someone at school or work who people shun? What can you do to be the face of Jesus for that person?

PRAY TO OUR GOD: OPENING PRAYER

The prayer of the Mass helps us to express to God what is in our hearts. The opening prayer is different each Sunday. As the people of God we should pray not only at Sunday Mass, but also during the week. Encourage your children to be people of prayer.

Encourage children to pray each morning. Offer the day to the God who created you and loves you and wants only the best for you. Each day is a gift and an opportunity to begin anew. Morning prayer gets each day off to a better start and gets us headed in the right direction.

Have family prayer partners this week. Put each person's name on a paper heart in a bowl. Then each family member draws a name and prays for that person throughout the coming week. Prayer unites us not only with God, but with one another.

Family Prayer: Lord of all, we know that You are always with our family. Help us to turn to You in prayer each day and pray for the needs of other people in our world. Send Your Holy Spirit to guide our hearts and our lives. Amen.

The month of November has been a busy one here in the preschool program! The little ones in each class session start their day by showing their love and respect to God through a special prayer and to our country by reciting "The Pledge of Allegiance" to our flag. Over the next few weeks, we will continue focusing on families, friends and being thankful as we learn more about how the 1st Thanksgiving came to be a very long time ago.

The Lord Is My Shepherd

The prominent image for God in today's readings is the shepherd. This might be an unfamiliar image for city dwellers, but it is a very rich religious image. The Bible tells us that early Israelites were herders, so they know a lot about shepherds. They knew that shepherds follow the wandering of their sheep and attended to their needs—not the other way around. They knew that shepherds lived with their sheep in the hills for long periods, away from family, friends, and the comforts of life. They knew that shepherds helped birthing and dying. They knew that all of this is a messy, smelly business, and no job for the fastidious.

Many nations of the ancient world, Israel included, thought of their kings as shepherds of the people—leaders who should be willing to do for their people what the shepherd does for the sheep. This explains why, on the feast of Christ the King, we represent our king as a shepherd rather than a victorious military commander, as many kings are. But more than this, throughout his life—at his passion and death, and now in his risen glory—Christ cares for us and leads us as a shepherd does. He embraces the messy, smelly reality of life. He is a shepherd-king, intent on our needs, searching for us when we seem to be lost. How comforting it is to know he carries us on his shoulders.

—Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

FOR Reflection

- ★ Recite today's responsorial psalm slowly and thoughtfully.
- ★ Which images of Psalm 23 touch you the most? Why?

*The lost I will search out,
the strays I will bring back,
the injured I will bind up,
and the sick I will heal.*
