Gospel Reflection

October 31, 2021 • The 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

You Must Love Your God and Neighbor.

As we come to the end of October, a month dedicated to our Mother Mary, we look forward to special events in the month of November in the Church cycle. This Monday, we celebrate the solemnity of All Saints, when we join our voices with the faithful departed who lived holy lives and are with the Lord, and we ask them to always pray for us on our faith journey. Then on Tuesday, we shall pray for all souls; those known and not known to us, but still going through a state of purification in purgatory, to rest in peace. In the same month, we shall also celebrate the Solemnity of our Lord Christ the King, in honor of Jesus Christ as Lord over all nations and creation as we conclude the Church calendar, which leads us to the season of Advent.

For us to celebrate these special events, we ought to prepare ourselves spiritually by living a life of prayer, united with our brothers and sisters both living and dead. This is why Jesus emphasizes the love of God and neighbor in this Sunday's Gospel. However, we know that loving God and one another is sometimes not easy to fulfil as we would have loved. Many people today tend to equate love with feelings towards a person. But the kind of love Jesus is talking about must involve actions from the bottom of our hearts without expecting a pay. It must involve some self-sacrifice for the sake of others, just as Jesus Christ did and inspired some men and women to practice the same and we now celebrate their lives as Saints. Love for God is a matter of giving Him our trust, time and total obedience to His will. That's why Jesus tells us "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." This is when our lives will produce fruits that can be exhibited in the way we treat those around us.

As we remember those who have gone before us, let us always know that the way we live on earth will determine how the next life will be. If we love God now and neighbor, then we shall be rewarded with His glory. We shall also be able to have others pray for us to be purified from any stain we may attain in our lifetime, so that we can quickly go to heaven. And so, as the Body of Christ, the high priest who offered one single sacrifice once and for all, may we always walk in His footsteps, living a life of prayer, love and above all avoiding sin to remain vigilant at the coming of our Lord. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and may they rest in peace.

Wishing you fruitful celebrations throughout this month.
Fr. Elias

If you ask anyone who has attended St. Susanna School about their experience of Catholic education, they will probably tell you of fond memories and gratitude for being able to go to their parish school. There is something about a Catholic elementary school that is really special. Maybe it's the common values of faith and virtue that the families share. Maybe it's the dedication of teachers and staff for the overall well-being of the students. Maybe it's the camaraderie and spirit that is all around a school like St. Susanna. Maybe it's the friendships that are formed which can last a lifetime.

I myself did not attend a Catholic school growing up…at least not officially. In my little hometown of Minster, we had small class sizes (I graduated with 64 in my class), and nuns taught in the public school; we were 90% Catholic out of the population of 2,600. But still it wasn't a Catholic school per se. Close, but nothing like a school like we have at our parish here in Mason.

A Catholic parish school can be the training ground for saints. It can be a great help in passing on the Catholic faith to our children. That's why I want to invite any and all parents of our parish to the Open House, scheduled for Monday, November 8th. You can get a firsthand look at what our Catholic school can do for your children and for your whole family, both academically and spiritually, not to mention other areas like the sports programs and other extracurricular activities.

I know that private education costs money. Because of support from the parish, St. Susanna's School is one of the least expensive schools in our area. But it's an investment that pays high dividends, maybe even the highest – eternal life – for your child.

So, if you are new to our parish or are looking for a school for the first time, or are a family who just has not considered Catholic school for your children and now see the great need there is of Catholic education for your kids, come out for the Open House and take a look at what we have to offer.

In this world, so torn by division and our values being challenged from every side in society, St. Susanna is the place where you can give your children what they truly need in order to face the future – where they can find Jesus Christ, the Way, the Truth, and the Life, and can give your children what they need today to grow in faith and love of God and neighbor, something we are called to do.

I hope to see you that night at school and I pray that you will consider St. Susanna School for your children's education and formation in the Catholic Faith. Maybe next year we will be shouting "Go Titans!" together.

Prayer of Adoration Before the Blessed Sacrament

My Lord Jesus Christ,
true God and true Man,
I adore You with every
fiber of my being!
I adore You at every instant of time.
I adore You in union
with the Immaculate Heart of our Blessed Mother, Mary, in union with the pure Heart Of St. Joseph, in union with all Your Angels and Saints in the Glory Of Heaven, in union with the Faithful on earth, and in union with the Souls in purgatory.
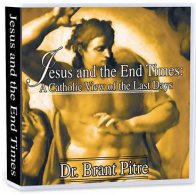
With this act of adoration
I wish to adore You for all who do not adore You,
to love You for all who do not love You,
to acknowledge You to be my Lord and God,
for all who refuse to acknowledge You.
Amen.



Sunday Café

Adults, join us Sundays after the 9:30am Mass in the St. Susanna Room. No cost or reservations required. Our topic starting now, and going through the Advent season, will be: Jesus and the End Times: A Catholic View of the Last Days.

Ask Father Barry!

Our kids ask a lot of questions, especially about church. In this section of the bulletin Father Barry will try to answer their questions!

A second grader recently asked Father Barry:
"Why do you always have black clothes on?"

Father Barry's answer:
"Priests wearing black clothes goes way back in history. First, it's kind of like a uniform that I wear to tell people my job, I am a priest. Just like a policeman or a doctor wear certain types of outfits. But why black, you ask. It has to do with the priest not being into the fashion of the times so much and a sign that he is not worried about fitting in to what's popular. A priest is a man of God, called to be both poor and detached from the world. He is a sign of heavenly things and doesn't need to wear flashy, stylish clothes. And practically speaking, it means that he doesn't have to fuss with what he has to wear each day... it's very simple to just have to wear black. But, priests do wear a white collar. That is a symbol of his purity and a reminder to live his vow of celibacy as best he can."

If your child has a question, please email it to Father Barry at stechschulteb@stsusanna.org.

St. Susanna Parish School

Join Our School Community!

St. Susanna Parish School, as an extension of our parish, strives to embody the core values and academic guidelines as set forth by our parish community and the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Cincinnati. Our community inspires students to learn to integrate their thinking and believing in ways that encourage intellectual excellence, faith formation and inspire a life of moral character, leadership and service to others. Please join us for Information Night - Monday, November 8th from 7:00-8:00pm in the School cafeteria to learn more about St. Susanna Parish School.

Despite a torrential downpour earlier in the morning, the 2s Class were still able to parade their not-so-spoooooky costumes in front of the Church for their families! In the classrooms though, there have been a whole lot of studies being done on some very creepy crawly creatures… spiders!

The Thanksgiving Meal Ministry Needs Support!

Our parish community is blessed in so many ways, and we now turn our attention to sharing our blessings by providing Thanksgiving meals to those less fortunate. Your contributions of time, talent and treasure are needed to provide fried-turkey dinners to families in need. The goal this year is to provide 400+ meals. It is estimated that each meal will cost around $50 even with donations of much of the non-perishable items.

"Turkeys" are now on display in the Gathering Space for you to "pluck a feather" to provide financial support and/or supplies for the dinners. In addition to the Thanksgiving Meal, a kid-friendly food bag will be given to the families for the children to enjoy. If you would like to participate in the actual preparation of the meals or to acquire more information, please contact Karen and Ricky Mathews, rkanj2005@yahoo.com or 513-755-7645.

If you would like to financially donate, you can do so via:

- Check: made out to St. Susanna Church with "Thanksgiving Meals" on the memo line. Place the check in an envelope marked Thanksgiving Meals, and:
  - Drop the check off to the Parish Office
  - Place in giving baskets at the Sunday Mass
  - Mail to: St. Susanna Church, Attn: Jodi Tucker, 616 Reading Road, Mason, Ohio 45040.
- Online Giving: www.osvhub.com/stsusanna/funds. If you have an account set up, log in or create an account. Click on Funds and scroll down to Thanksgiving Dinners.

Your financial gifts will be used for purchasing items for the Thanksgiving Meals. If we have any money in excess of what is needed for these meals, those funds will be used to meet the needs of the poor and vulnerable in our area and the surrounding area during other Holiday Seasons (Christmas and Easter). Thank you in advance for your support.

St. Susanna Service Fair

Join parishioners for a morning of service on November 13th, from 9:00am-12:00pm, in the Meyer Center. Various projects to work on will be provided by the Thanksgiving Meal, Giving Tree, and OLPH Twinning Ministries. We will also be making Prayer Books and Rosaries. Come serve and fellowship with us!

As Fall begins to approach, the Schuh Center volunteers begin to think about the cooler weather that will soon be coming. Many patrons of the Schuh Center cannot afford to keep their homes "toasty warm" due to the higher cost of utilities. Donations of new/gently used blankets, as well as, "no-sew" blankets are welcomely being accepted to help keep these families warm during the cold months ahead.

Blankets can be dropped off at the Peace and Justice Kiosk in the Gathering Space of church or at the Schuh Center during operation hours: Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday, 9:00-11:00am.

Debes Amar A Tu Dios Y A Tu Prójimo.

Al llegar al final de octubre, un mes dedicado a nuestra Madre María, esperamos con interés eventos especiales en el mes de noviembre en el ciclo de la Iglesia. Este lunes, celebramos la Solemnidad de Todos los Santos, que es cuando unimos nuestras voces con los fieles difuntos que vivieron vidas santas y están con el Señor, y les pedimos que oren siempre por nosotros en nuestro camino de fe. Luego, el martes, oraremos por todas las almas, las conocidas y no conocidas por nosotros, que aún atraviesan un estado de purificación en el purgatorio, para que descansen en paz. En el mismo mes, también celebraremos la solemnidad de nuestro Señor Cristo Rey, en honor a Jesucristo como señor de todas las naciones y la creación, lo cual nos lleva a la conclusión del calendario de la Iglesia, que a su vez nos lleva a la temporada de Adviento.

Para que podamos celebrar estos eventos especiales, debemos prepararnos espiritualmente viviendo una vida de oración, unidos con nuestros hermanos y hermanas vivos y muertos. Es por eso por lo que Jesús enfatiza el amor a Dios y al prójimo en el evangelio de este domingo. Sin embargo, sabemos que amar a Dios y a los demás a veces no es fácil de cumplir. Muchas personas hoy en día tienden a equiparar el amor, con los sentimientos hacia una persona. Pero el tipo de amor del que Jesús está hablando, debe involucrar acciones desde el fondo de nuestros corazones sin esperar un pago. Debe implicar algún autosacrificio por el bien de los demás, tal como Jesucristo lo hizo y con lo cual inspiró a algunos hombres y mujeres a practicar lo mismo y por lo que ahora celebramos sus vidas como santos. El amor a Dios es una cuestión de darle nuestra confianza, tiempo y obediencia total a Su voluntad. Es por eso que Jesús nos dice: "Si me amas, guardarás mis mandamientos". Aquí es cuando nuestras vidas producirán frutos que pueden exhibirse en la forma en que tratamos a quienes nos rodean.

Al recordar a los que nos han precedido, sepamos siempre que, la forma en que vivimos en la tierra determinará cómo será la próxima vida. Si amamos a Dios y al prójimo ahora, entonces seremos recompensados con Su gloria. También podemos pedir a otros que oren para que seamos purificados de cualquier mancha que podamos alcanzar en nuestro tiempo de vida, para que podamos ir rápidamente al cielo. Y así, como el cuerpo de Cristo, el sumo sacerdote que ofreció un solo sacrificio de una vez por todas, podamos caminar siempre tras sus pasos, viviendo una vida de oración, amor y sobre todo evitando el pecado para permanecer vigilantes ante la venida de nuestro Señor. Concédeles descanso eterno, oh, Señor, y que descansen en paz.

Deseándoles celebraciones fructíferas a lo largo de este mes.
Padre Elías

Si le pregunta a alguien que haya asistido a la escuela St. Susanna sobre su experiencia de educación católica, probablemente le dirán de buenos recuerdos y gratitud por poder ir a su escuela parroquial. Hay algo en una escuela primaria católica que es realmente especial. Tal vez son los valores comunes de fe y virtud que las familias comparten. Tal vez sea la dedicación de los maestros y el personal para el bienestar general de los estudiantes. Tal vez sea la camaradería y el espíritu que hay alrededor de una escuela como St. Susanna. Tal vez son las amistades que se forman las que pueden durar toda la vida.

Yo mismo no asistí a una escuela católica mientras crecía... al menos no oficialmente. En mi pequeña ciudad natal de Minster, teníamos clases pequeñas (me gradué con 64 en mi clase), y monjas enseñaban en la escuela pública; éramos 90% católicos en una población de 2,600. Pero aún así no era una escuela católica de por sí. Cerca, pero nada como una escuela como la que tenemos en nuestra parroquia aquí en Mason.

Una escuela parroquial católica puede ser el campo de entrenamiento para santos. Puede ser de gran ayuda para transmitir la fe católica a nuestros hijos. Es por eso por lo que quiero invitar a todos y cada uno de los padres de nuestra parroquia a la Casa Abierta, programada para el lunes 8 de noviembre. Puede obtener una visión de primera mano de lo que nuestra escuela católica puede hacer por sus hijos y por toda su familia, tanto académica como espiritualmente, sin mencionar otras áreas como los programas deportivos y otras actividades extracurriculares.

Sé que la educación privada cuesta dinero. Debido al apoyo de la parroquia, la escuela St. Susanna es una de las escuelas menos costosas de nuestra área. Pero es una inversión que paga altos dividendos, tal vez incluso el más alto, la vida eterna, para su hijo.

Entonces, si usted es nuevo a nuestra parroquia o está buscando una escuela por primera vez, o es una familia que simplemente no ha considerado la escuela católica para sus hijos y ahora ve la gran necesidad que hay de una educación católica para sus hijos, venga a la Casa Abierta y eche un vistazo a lo que tenemos para ofrecer.

En este mundo, tan desgarrado por la división y nuestros valores siendo desafiados por todos lados de la sociedad, St. Susanna es el lugar donde le puede dar a sus hijos lo que realmente necesitan para enfrentar el futuro, donde pueden encontrar a Jesucristo, el Camino, la Verdad y la Vida, y puede darles a sus hijos lo que necesitan hoy para crecer en la fe y el amor a Dios y al prójimo, algo que estamos llamados a hacer.

Espero verle esa noche en la escuela y rezo para que consideren la Escuela St. Susanna para la educación y formación de sus hijos en la fe católica. Tal vez el próximo año estemos gritando "¡Go Titans!" juntos.

Fr. Barry
