Gospel Reflection

January 16, 2022 • The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the Wedding

Scott Hahn Reflects on the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Think of these first weeks after Christmas as a season of “epiphanies.” The liturgy is showing us who Jesus is and what He has revealed about our relationship with God.

Last week and the week before, the imagery was royal and filial—Jesus is the newborn King of the Jews who makes us coheirs of Israel’s promise, beloved children of God. Last week in the liturgy we went to a Baptism.

This week we’re at a wedding.

We’re being shown another dimension of our relationship with God. If we’re sons and daughters of God, it’s because we’ve married into the family.

Have you ever wondered why the Bible begins and ends with a wedding—Adam and Eve’s in the garden and the marriage supper of the Lamb (compare Genesis 2:23–24 and Revelation 19:9; 21:9; 22:17)?

Throughout the Bible, marriage is the symbol of the covenant relationship God desires with His chosen people. He is the groom, humanity His beloved and sought after bride. We see this reflected beautifully in today’s First Reading.

When Israel breaks the covenant, she is compared to an unfaithful spouse (see Jeremiah 2:20–36; 3:1–13). But God promises to take her back, to “espouse” her to Him forever in an everlasting covenant (see Hosea 2:18–22).

That’s why in today’s Gospel, Jesus performs His first public “sign” at a wedding feast.

Jesus is the divine bridegroom (see John 3:29), calling us to His royal wedding feast (see Matthew 22:1–14). By His New Covenant, He will become “one flesh” with all humanity in the Church (see Ephesians 5:21–33). By our Baptism, each of us has been betrothed to Christ as a bride to a husband (see 2 Corinthians 11:2).

The new wine that Jesus pours out at today’s feast is the gift of the Holy Spirit given to His bride and body, as today’s Epistle says. This is the “salvation” announced to the “families of nations” in today’s Psalm.

Sunday Collection

The totals for the January 9, 2022 collection were not available by the print deadline of this bulletin.

"You have saved the best wine until now!" The passage in this week's Gospel, the Wedding at Cana, is an excellent metaphor for renewing marriages in our church and in society. This is how will we stop abortion – by renewing and building up marriages according to God's design. Only with committed marriages between one man and one woman will we be open to and bring forth new life and we will never choose something as horrifying as killing the pre-born child in the womb.

And we look to Jesus Christ for the way to do this. He attended a wedding at Cana in Galilee. The Twelve Apostles tagged along and drank a lot of wine. They ran out. And it was Mary, our Lord's Mother, who first noticed the potentially embarrassing situation. She told the servants to do what Jesus tells them. So, they begin to draw out water into the large stone jugs. Suddenly, their faces light up and with widened eyes they fill the jars to the very brim. Why? Because wine was coming out of the pump. A miracle! And the headwaiter makes his comment about saving the best for last.

Christ is concerned about the state of marriage these days. He wants us to know what marriage truly is – a covenant of authentic love which should reflect God's love. By His mystical marriage to the Church, He shows us how marriage should be. He gave His life for His spouse, the Church, as He hung upon the Cross. It was there where He pronounced His wedding vows. That's how spouses are to love one another – totally, unconditionally, faithfully. It's not what you get out of a marriage; it's what you give to a marriage.

And Jesus' self-offering on the Cross brings forth life. The rebirth of Baptism, the new life that it gives, bought with the price of His blood on Good Friday and renewed at every Mass, is the eternal life Christ engenders with the Church. The same with marriage. A marriage can't be just mutual self-giving. If so, the spouses would spend themselves into oblivion. It must also be mutually self-restoring. The new life engendered in children is the answer. So, to destroy this new life through abortion is a negation of the spousal covenant and a deadening of the authentic love of marriage.

We wonder why marriages fall apart? I wouldn't doubt that abortion is the hidden factor in many of them. The same can be said of artificial contraception, which prevents that new life from even happening; a kind of preemptive abortion. Being "open to life" in marriage then becomes essential to the meaningful union of the spouses. Without life, there can be no union. With death, there is division.

Our society needs to re-learn this fundamental truth in order to survive. Without strong marriages, families fall apart. Without families, society will not last. The fight against abortion then is the battle to save our world from destruction.

Iffert from the Diocese of Covington and University of Cincinnati head football coach Luke Fickell. Tickets are on sale now at cincinnati mensconference.com.

Catholic Customs Corner - Holy Water

Water is the lifeblood of the living world. We can't live without water. Water is used to cleanse our bodies. So also, our souls. Creation began with the Spirit of God over the waters, bringing out the land from them. Later, God washed the earth with the waters of the great flood. The Israelites were set free from slavery in Egypt, passing through the waters of the Red Sea, parted by Moses.

Water has played an important part in religious practice. The Jews had their ceremonial washings before worship. So too in the Catholic Church. We use water for our spiritual re-creation or rebirth in Baptism. We are cleansed from sin and are set free from the slavery of sin and death by the waters of Baptism, given the gift sanctifying grace. In Baptism we are "buried" in the water and we rise out of it to new life.

Every Catholic Church has a baptismal font for this purpose, or even a baptismal pool as at St. Susanna. Also, churches have small fonts at the doors with Holy Water, to remind ourselves of our Baptism before we enter into divine worship, which is made possible by our Baptism.

The custom of blessing oneself with Holy Water with the sign of the cross is an ancient tradition of Church. We use sensible signs to express spiritual realities. And we often call these realities to mind by an action like sprinkling Holy Water.

This can be done at home as well. Having Holy Water available at home to bless family members is a custom that makes the faith real for families and keeps our attention on the important things in life. Small bottles of Holy Water to take home are available in church, near the Blessed Mother shrine. A small donation to cover the cost of the container is all that's asked.

Small Holy Water fonts can be installed in the home at the door to every bedroom. Babies can be blessed every night using the small bottle of Holy Water provided at their Baptism. Parents can bless their children with Holy Water before they go to school. It a powerful protection against evil for them and a great sign of a parent's love for them in the domestic church of the home.

Registration is Open!

Our St. Susanna St. Vincent de Paul team is looking for your help as we start this new year. Our funds available to help our needy neighbors have reached an alarmingly low balance. Last year, due to your generosity, we were able to financially help over 250 local families that were in need. In addition, we received over 200 calls where our Vincentians were able to help needy neighbors by directing them to the Schuh Center food pantry, local clothing resources, and other county agencies that could help.

We all know the Covid epidemic has impacted so many financially and unfortunately it looks like it will continue for the foreseeable future due to the Omicron variant. Also, at this time of year, our neighbors heating bills are rising due to the cold weather. In addition, there are many in our community living from pay check to pay check. One small car repair, a few days off due to sickness, a few minor repairs or other unexpected bills that we might think are small, throw these neighbors into a very needy situation.

If our Vincentian team is to be able to continue to help our neighbors, we need you to help with your prayers and your financial support. We can be the hands and feet of Christ for our neighbors, but we cannot do it without financial help from all of you, our parishioners. Please consider a gift to our St. Susanna St. Vincent de Paul Society.

There is a fifth Sunday in January where you can make a donation or you can always do online giving anytime of the year via online giving: www.osvhub.com/stsusanna/funds, and scroll down to St. Vincent de Paul-St. Susanna Conference. Together we can have a huge impact for the needy in our community. Thank you so very much for considering a donation to this much needed parish outreach program.

2022 Parish Fish Fry

Mark your calendars! Our first Parish Fish Fry of 2022 is Friday, March 5th. We are planning on offering both IN PERSON and DRIVE THRU options this year! We will also be bringing back the very popular Young at Heart Room for our parish Seniors to enjoy a meal in quiet surroundings with fellow Seniors.

Our menu will feature our signature Grilled Salmon as well as our traditional Fried Fish and Colossal Fried Shrimp. Sides will include Fries, Mac & Cheese, Green Beans, Cole Slaw, Salad and Applesauce. Kids meals will include Pizza, Mac & Cheese, Grilled Cheese, Fried Shrimp or Fish. Finally, our massive dessert table will return along with Fr. Barry's famous Kettle Corn! We look forward to seeing everyone each Friday for an evening of fish, fellowship and fun!

This Week, from the St. Susanna Vincentians...

In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus reveals Himself to His disciples and they began to believe in Him. Everyday, God also gives us signs of His love and so we also can respond in faith and trust. Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

En la Boda

Scott Hahn reflexiona sobre el segundo domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Piense en estas primeras semanas después de Navidad como una temporada de "epifanías". La liturgia nos está mostrando quién es Jesús y lo que Él ha revelado acerca de nuestra relación con Dios.

La semana pasada y la semana anterior, las imágenes eran reales y filiales: Jesús es el rey recién nacido de los judíos que nos hace coherederos de la promesa de Israel, hijos amados de Dios. La semana pasada en la liturgia fuimos a un bautismo.

Esta semana estamos en una boda.

Se nos está mostrando otra dimensión de nuestra relación con Dios. Si somos hijos e hijas de Dios, es porque nos hemos casado con la familia.

¿Alguna vez te has preguntado por qué la Biblia comienza y termina con una boda: Adán y Eva están en el jardín y la cena de bodas del Cordero (compara Génesis 2:23-24 y Apocalipsis 19:9; 21:9; 22:17)?

A lo largo de la Biblia, el matrimonio es el símbolo de la relación de pacto que Dios desea con Su pueblo escogido. Él es el novio, la humanidad su novia amada y buscada. Vemos esto reflejado maravillosamente en la Primera Lectura de hoy.

Cuando Israel rompe el convenio, se le compara con una cónyuge infiel (Ve Jeremías 2:20-36; 3:1-13). Pero Dios promete llevarla de vuelta, "abrazarla" a Él para siempre en un pacto eterno (ver Oseas 2:18-22).

Es por eso por lo que en el Evangelio de hoy Jesús realiza su primera "señal" pública en una fiesta de bodas.

Jesús es el novio divino (ver Juan 3:29), que nos llama a Su fiesta de bodas reales (ver Mateo 22:1-14). Por Medio de Su Nuevo Pacto, Él llegará a ser "una sola carne" con toda la humanidad en la Iglesia (ver Efesios 5:21-33). Por nuestro bautismo, cada uno de nosotros ha sido prometido a Cristo como una novia a un esposo (ver 2 Corintios 11:2).

El vino nuevo que Jesús derrama en la fiesta de hoy es el don del Espíritu Santo dado a su esposa y cuerpo, como dice la Epístola de hoy. Esta es la "salvación" anunciada a las "familias de las naciones" en el Salmo de hoy.

"¡Has guardado el mejor vino hasta ahora!" El pasaje en el Evangelio de esta semana, las Bodas de Caná, es una excelente metáfora para renovar los matrimonios en nuestra iglesia y en la sociedad. Así es como detendremos el aborto, renovando y construyendo matrimonios de acuerdo con el diseño de Dios. Solo con matrimonios comprometidos entre un hombre y una mujer estaremos abiertos y traeremos una nueva vida y nunca elegiremos algo tan horrible como matar al niño antes de nacer en el vientre.

Y miramos a Jesucristo en busca de la manera de hacer esto. Asistió a una boda en Caná en Galilea. Los Doce Apóstoles lo acompañaron y bebieron mucho vino. Se les terminó. Y fue María, la Madre de nuestro Señor, la primera que notó la situación potencialmente embarazosa. Ella les dijo a los siervos que hicieran lo que Jesús les dijera. Entonces, comienzan a vaciar agua en las grandes tinajas de piedra. De repente, sus rostros se iluminan y con los ojos muy abiertos llenan las jarras hasta el borde. ¿Por qué? Porque era vino lo que salía de la bomba. ¡Un milagro! Y el mayordomo hace su comentario sobre guardar lo mejor para el final.

Cristo está preocupado por el estado del matrimonio en estos días. Él quiere que sepamos lo que realmente es el matrimonio: un pacto de amor auténtico que debe reflejar el amor de Dios. Por Medio de Su matrimonio místico con la Iglesia, Él nos muestra cómo debe ser el matrimonio. Él dio su vida por su esposa, la Iglesia, mientras colgaba de la cruz. Fue allí donde pronunció Sus votos matrimoniales. Así es como los cónyuges deben amarse uno a otro, totalmente, incondicionalmente, fielmente. No es lo que obtienes de un matrimonio; es lo que le das a un matrimonio.

Y la ofrenda de Jesús en la Cruz brinda vida. El renacimiento del bautismo, la nueva vida que da, comprada con el precio de Su sangre el Viernes Santo y renovada en cada Misa, es la vida eterna que Cristo engendra con la Iglesia. Lo mismo con el matrimonio. Un matrimonio no puede ser solo una entrega mutua. Si es así, los cónyuges pasarían al olvido. También debe ser mutuamente auto-restaurable. La nueva vida engendrada en los niños es la respuesta. Por lo tanto, destruir esta nueva vida a través del aborto es una negación del pacto conyugal y una reducción del auténtico amor al matrimonio.

Nos preguntamos por qué los matrimonios se desmoronan. No dudaría de que el aborto es el factor oculto en muchos de ellos. Lo mismo puede decirse de la anticoncepción artificial, que impide que esa nueva vida suceda; una especie de aborto preventivo. Estar "abierto a la vida" en el matrimonio se vuelve esencial para la unión significativa de los cónyuges. Sin vida no puede haber unión. Con la muerte hay división.

Nuestra sociedad necesita volver a aprender esta verdad fundamental para sobrevivir. Sin matrimonios fuertes, las familias se desmoronan. Sin familias, la sociedad no durará. La lucha contra el aborto es entonces la batalla para salvar a nuestro mundo de la destrucción.

AmazonSmile

AmazonSmile gives 0.5% percent of each eligible order to the charity of your choice at no cost to you or the charity. We now have this for St. Sue! To set this up on a computer:

- Go to Smile.Amazon.com (with "smile." in front of "amazon.com")
- In the upper left corner, it will say "Supporting" - select this option
- Select the "Change Charity" button on the right hand side
- In "Or pick your own charitable organization" enter "St Susanna Church Mason"

Once this is set up, you can also set up your Amazon mobile app to use smile.amazon as well! To set this up:

- Go to settings
- Select AmazonSmile
- Click "Turn on AmazonSmile"
- You do have to enable notifications (this is the only downside)
- Go back to the Amazon App to click "Turn on AmazonSmile"

When you shop at smile.amazon.com
Amazon donates to us.
