Gospel Reflection

February 6, 2022 • The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Into the Deep

Scott Hahn Reflects on the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Simon Peter, the fisherman, is the first to be called personally by Jesus in Luke's Gospel.

His calling resembles Isaiah's commissioning in the First Reading: confronted with the holiness of the Lord, both Peter and Isaiah are overwhelmed by a sense of their own sinfulness and inadequacy. Yet each experiences the Lord's forgiveness and is sent to preach the good news of His mercy to the world.

No one is "fit to be called an apostle," Paul recognizes in today's Epistle. But by "the grace of God," even a persecutor of the Church—as Paul once was—can be lifted up for the Lord's service.

In the Old Testament, humanity was unfit for the divine—no man could stand in God's presence and live (see Exodus 33:20). But in Jesus, we're made able to speak with Him face-to-face, to taste His Word on our tongue.

Today's scene from Isaiah is recalled in every Mass. Before reading the Gospel, the priest silently asks God to cleanse his lips that he might worthily proclaim His Word.

God's Word comes to us as it came to Peter, Paul, Isaiah, and today's Psalmist—as a personal call to leave everything and follow Him, to surrender our weaknesses in order to be filled with His strength.

Simon put out into deep waters even though, as a professional fisherman, he knew it would be foolhardy to expect to catch anything. In humbling himself before the Lord's command, he was exalted—his nets filled to overflowing; later, as Paul tells us, he will become the first to see the risen Lord.

Jesus has made us worthy to receive Him in the company of angels in God's holy Temple. On our knees like Peter, with the humility of David in today's Psalm, we thank Him with all our hearts and join in the unending hymn that Isaiah heard around God's altar: "Holy, holy, holy . . ." (see also Revelation 4:8).

This weekend, February 5th/6th, Heather Fleury is visiting our parish on behalf of Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS). FOCUS is a national organization serving college students on more than 180 campuses across the United States and five international locations. Almost 800 FOCUS missionaries on these campuses invite students into a relationship with Christ and His Church, while equipping them for a lifetime of Catholic evangelization. To learn more, please visit www.focus.org.

Heather's Story

As a missionary, my greatest desire is to lead all students to Christ. My life has been transformed by Jesus and I want nothing more than to bring this joy to others and introduce them to the life-changing message of the Gospel. I look to Jesus' own example to find the best method of reaching the world.

Jesus has impacted my life in ways that I can not describe. College is such a crucial time in our lives, and it's up to us whether or not to practice our Catholic faith in those four years. I graduated from Eastern Kentucky University, a non-FOCUS school, but it was through meeting missionaries that my friend and I started a FOCUS bible study at our Newman Center, attended conferences, and went on mission trips! In 2016, I had an incredible opportunity to go on a mission trip for a month and to spread God's endless love to the most generous, and loving people in Tanzania, Africa! My relationship with God is forever growing each day, I am so in love with Christ, He has poured His love into my soul, and it's a burning flame that will never burn out!

God has called me to serve college students with the Fellowship of Catholic University Students. I have served at the University of Rochester in New York, the University of Cincinnati, and will be going into my fifth year as Team Director at Bowling Green State University in Ohio! I'm grateful and amazed that the Lord has called me to this beautiful mission!

This Week, from the St. Susanna Vincentians...

In the Gospel today, the disciples decide to leave everything to follow Jesus. We are also called to follow Jesus, who tells us that "whatever you do to the least of mine, you do for me." Your gift to the poor can bring the love and peace of Jesus to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness, and dread.

En las profundidades

Scott Hahn reflexiona sobre el quinto domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Simón Pedro, el pescador, es el primero en ser llamado personalmente por Jesús en el Evangelio de Lucas.

Su llamado se asemeja al encargo de Isaías en la Primera Lectura: confrontados con la santidad del Señor, tanto Pedro como Isaías están abrumados por un sentido de su propia pecaminosidad e insuficiencia. Sin embargo, cada uno experimenta el perdón del Señor y es enviado a predicar la buena nueva de Su misericordia al mundo.

Nadie es "apto para ser llamado apóstol", reconoce Pablo en la Epístola de hoy. Pero por "la gracia de Dios", incluso un perseguidor de la Iglesia, como lo fue Pablo una vez, puede ser utilizado para el servicio del Señor.

En el Antiguo Testamento, la humanidad no era apta para lo divino: ningún hombre podía estar en la presencia de Dios y vivir (véase Éxodo 33:20). Pero en Jesús, somos capaces de hablar con Él cara a cara, de probar Su Palabra en nuestra lengua.

La escena de hoy de Isaías se recuerda en cada Misa. Antes de leer el Evangelio, el sacerdote le pide en silencio a Dios que limpie sus labios para que pueda proclamar dignamente Su Palabra.

La Palabra de Dios viene a nosotros como vino a Pedro, Pablo, Isaías y el salmista de hoy, como un llamado personal a dejarlo todo y seguirlo, a entregar nuestras debilidades para ser llenos de Su fuerza.

Simón se metió en aguas profundas, aunque, como pescador profesional, sabía que sería temerario esperar atrapar cualquier cosa. Al humillarse ante el mandato del Señor, fue exaltado: sus redes llenas hasta desbordarse; más tarde, como Pablo nos dice, se convertirá en el primero en ver al Señor resucitado.

Jesús nos ha hecho dignos de recibirlo en compañía de ángeles en el santo Templo de Dios. De rodillas como Pedro, con la humildad de David en el Salmo de hoy, le damos gracias con todo nuestro corazón y nos unimos al himno interminable que Isaías escuchó alrededor del altar de Dios: "Santo, santo, santo...". (véase también Apocalipsis 4:8).
