

LYNNE EID RN, FCN

Lynne graduated from the University of California, Los Angeles with a BSN in Nursing in 1980. Upon graduation, she served in the United States Air Force as an RN, four years active duty and four years in the reserves. Upon leaving the military, she moved to Bakersfield, California, married, and raised four children. She and her husband Ron continue to live in Bakersfield, and attend St. Philip the Apostle parish. Lynne's nursing career has been in medical/surgical nursing, hospice, serving special needs students in a school setting, and faith community nursing, where she facilitated outreach to the elderly and homebound parishioners, support groups, health education, and more. Though currently retired, she continues to facilitate a grief support ministry in her parish, and volunteers in her community.
