FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parish Family,

I have found many people when they celebrate their milestone wedding anniversaries desiring to get a Papal Blessing. I want to share with you that I got a blessing recently not from our Holy Father but from Sr Rose Daly, who celebrated her 100th birthday on Friday last week. I was at the convent for my weekly Mass on last Tuesday. After Mass I was happy to go up to her room to wish her Happy Birthday. She was so happy and requested me to pray and bless her. After I did that, I asked her to bless me, and she gloriously leaned to me and blessed me like my mother. Every time I went home, I had to kneel down in front of my mom and dad and receive their blessing on my forehead before I leave them. It was the same feeling when Sr. Rose blessed me. It was more than a Papal blessing for me. I told her that I would convey it to all our parishioners. Please pray for the health and well being of Sr. Rose and all our religious in your daily prayers.

This month is Respect Life Month. There is no blessing better than a blessing of life. Saturday, January 22nd 2022 will be the 49th anniversary of the Roe v Wade decision. It is a day of particular prayer and fasting as declared by the US Bishops. On January 22nd we will have Blessed Sacrament Adoration from 2:30 pm to 3:45 pm to pray for the protection of the unborn.

Catholic School Week: This year we celebrate Catholic School Week from January 30th to February 5th. Catholic Education is very important in the formation of our Children in faith, morals and academic excellence. We have our Guardian Angel School. Please keep our Principal, teaching and non teaching staff, students and parents in your prayers. During Catholic School week days, please use this prayer to pray at home for our teachers and students.

Prayer For Teachers and Students

Almighty God, our heavenly Father,
you have committed to your holy Church
the care and nurture of your children.
Enlighten with your wisdom those who teach and those who learn, that rejoicing
in the knowledge of your truth,
they may worship you and serve you
from generation to generation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thanks to all who donate to our parish. Last Sunday Collection: $ 1533.00. Candles: $748.00.

Prayers and Blessings,
Fr. Pancrose

GOSPEL MEDITATION

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

Sunday Readings: Neh 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10/Ps 19:8, 9, 10, 15/1 Cor 12:12-30 or 12:12-14, 27/Lk 1:1-4; 4:14-21

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

3^{er} Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

"Canten al Señor un cántico nuevo, hombres de toda la tierra, canten al Señor. Hay brillo y esplendor en su presencia, y en su templo, belleza y majestad" (Salmo 95, 1,67). La esperanza de Jesús para su pueblo y para toda la humanidad empieza aquí con este pasaje de la Sagrada Escritura. Un mundo nuevo y diverso, sin divisiones ni estatus sociales que dividen y matan. Por el contrario una tierra redimida y armoniosa, sin tinieblas ni miedos. Esta sigue siendo la esperanza de Jesús por medio de su Iglesia, que siempre, domingo a domingo, nos invita a acoger el Evangelio de Cristo. Abrazar su mensaje y dejarlo penetrar en el corazón hasta que dé fruto. Esto significa también todas sus exigencias de amor que conlleva en el cumplimiento de sus mandamientos.

Buscar la paz y la reconciliación en la familia y en la sociedad requiere el esfuerzo de todos. ¡Nada es fácil sin el Espíritu del Señor! Para ser efectivos en la misión que él nos encomienda como bautizados, debemos de tener amor por los demás y saber reconciliarnos unos a otros, tomando la dirección apropiada que demuestre que somos discípulos suyos. Jesús pasó haciendo el bien, curando y haciendo milagros porque sabía que: "El Espíritu del Señor esta sobre mí. Él me ha ungido para llevar buenas noticias a los pobres, para anunciar la libertad a los cautivos y a los ciegos que pronto van a ver, para poner en libertad a los oprimidos y proclamar el año de gracia del Señor" (Lucas 4,18-19). ¿Qué buenas noticias llevas tú a los que te rodean?

Lecturas del Domingo:
Neh 8, 2-4. 5-6. 8-10/Sal
18, 8. 9. 10. 15/1 Co 12,
12-30/Lc 1, 1-4; 4, 14-21
