HUMILITY

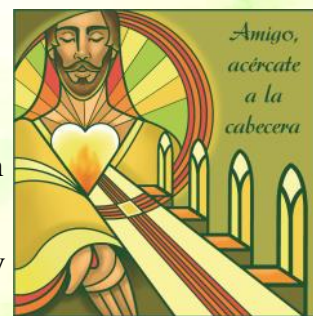

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.
Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Today's readings praise the virtue of humility and offer concrete ways for us to become more humble. The Book of Sirach suggests a practical reason for acting with humility: humble people are more likeable than the arrogant. Even God "finds favor" with those who humble themselves. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus provides real-world suggestions for growing in humility and teaches us never to assume we are better than others. His words change our outward behavior and expand our hearts and minds to care about people we might have dismissed before. This practical, almost "folksy" wisdom about humility helps us behave better in daily life and makes our lofty goal of eternal life more accessible. Our reading from Hebrews affirms that heaven is indeed approachable. The personal love and sacrifice of Jesus have opened "the city of the living God" to us. Humility prepares us for paradise.

LA HUMILDAD

Las lecturas de hoy alaban la virtud de la humildad y nos ofrecen formas específicas para que seamos más humildes. El libro del Eclesiástico sugiere una razón práctica para actuar con humildad: las personas humildes son más agradables que las arrogantes. Incluso Dios "encuentra gracia" con quienes se hacen pequeños. En el Evangelio de Lucas, Jesús ofrece sugerencias de la vida real para crecer en humildad y nos enseña a nunca asumir que somos mejores que los demás. Sus palabras cambian nuestro comportamiento exterior y expanden nuestros corazones y mentes para que cuidemos por las personas que antes habíamos desestimado. Esta sabiduría práctica, casi "popular", sobre la humildad nos enseña a comportarnos mejor en la vida diaria y hace más accesible nuestra meta noble de la vida eterna. Nuestra lectura de la carta a los hebreos afirma que el cielo es realmente accesible. El amor personal y el sacrificio de Jesús nos abrieron "la ciudad del Dios vivo". La humildad nos prepara el paraíso.

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

On the left are words that describe how people sometimes act to try to "exalt" themselves. Write them onto the blanks in the order that will make two new words. Then read the ruler from top to bottom to find what God wants us to do. And remember, don't try to compare yourself to other people—God loves you just as you are!

CATHOLIC CORNER

EMBER DAYS

Some older faith traditions that were once more meaningful might not be practiced regularly today. One of these traditions is the observance of Ember Days.

Ember Days are days set aside four times a year to mark the turning of the seasons. They are a time to pray in thanksgiving for all God's gifts. They remind us that we are called to be stewards of God's creation and not just consumers.

The fall Ember Days are the Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday of the week after September 14, the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. On these days we are encouraged to be more aware of the bountiful harvest of good things God has given us. We are encouraged to pray. In some countries, priests are invited to bless the harvests of the local farmers.

Choose a day this week to celebrate the changing of the seasons from summer to fall. This year fall begins on September 22. Your family might shop together to buy some of the abundant foods that are available at the end of the harvest season. If a farmers' market is nearby, consider visiting the stalls and talking with the farmers. Use the food you buy to prepare a festive family meal.

As a family, create a meal blessing prayer. You might already say a family prayer; you can choose to use that one or the traditional grace before meals. Cut a piece of cardstock or poster board to use as a placemat. Decorate the edges with pictures of harvest foods. In the center very neatly write your family prayer. You might want to laminate the paper or cover it with clear contact paper so it won't get stained.

Jesus has taught us never to act or treat others as though we are better than they are. Amy is thinking of a word that means this. Put her thought bubbles in correct number order to spell it.
