IN the worship and service of Almighty God, which Christ and His Apostles have left to us, we are vouchsafed means, both moral and mystical, of approaching God, and gradually learning to bear the sight of Him. . . . We approach, and in spite of the darkness, our hands, or our head, or our brow, or our lips become, as it were, sensible of the contact of something more than earthly. We know not where we are, but we have been bathing in water, and a voice tells us that it is blood. Or we have a mark signed upon our foreheads, and it spake of Calvary. Or we recollect a hand laid upon our heads, and surely it had the print of nails in it, and resembled His who with a touch gave sight to the blind and raised the dead. Or we have been eating and drinking; and it was not a dream surely, that One fed us from His wounded side, and renewed our nature by the heavenly meat He gave. Thus in many ways He, who is Judge to us, prepares us to be judged,—He, who is to glorify us, prepares us to be glorified, that He may not take us unawares; but that when the voice of the Archangel sounds, and we are called to meet the Bridegroom, we may be ready.

~ Saint John Henry Newman, “Worship, a Preparation for Christ’s Coming,” Parochial and Plain Sermons, Vol. 5, Sermon 1.

Particular Notes on the Liturgical Year of 2023-2024 for the Ordinariate

1. Upon the recommendation of the Governing Council on 9 June 2016, Bishop Lopes has decreed that the following Solemnities will be observed as Holy Days of Obligation in the Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter:

- 8 December, Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception
(of precept in the United States but not in Canada)
- 25 December, Solemnity of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ
- 1 January, Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God
- Thursday of the Sixth Week of Easter, Solemnity of the Ascension (kept on its traditional date forty days after Easter, nine days before Whitsunday)
- 15 August, Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary
- 1 November, Solemnity of All Saints

2. Whenever 1 January, 15 August, or 1 November fall on a Saturday or a Monday, the precept to attend Mass is abrogated. Mass attendance is always obligatory on Christmas (25 December), the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception (if observed on 8 December), and on the Solemnity of the Ascension. When the Second Sunday of Advent falls on December 8th, the Immaculate Conception is transferred to Monday, December 9th, but the obligation to attend mass does not transfer.

3. For the liturgical year of 2023-2024, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception falls on Thursday, December 8th, 2023, and is a Holy Day of Obligation. In calendar year 2024, the Solemnity is transferred to Monday, December 9th, 2024, but the obligation to attend mass is not transferred to Monday.

4. The Bishop further decreed that, within the Ordinariate, the Solemnity of the Epiphany will be celebrated on the Sunday between 2 January and 8 January and that the Solemnity of the Most Precious Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) will be observed on the second Sunday after Pentecost (in keeping with the Latin Rite dioceses of the United States and Canada and per the determinations of the Episcopal Conferences of both countries).

5. In 2024, since the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord is celebrated on Sunday, 7 January, the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord is celebrated on Monday, 8 January.

6. The Ordinariate's Solemnity of Title, the Solemnity of the Chair of Saint Peter, will be celebrated on its calendar date, Thursday 22 February, 2024, taking precedence over the Lenten Weekday.

7. The 2024 Chrism Mass for the Ordinariate will be celebrated by the Bishop at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Walsingham on Thursday, 21 March, which is Thursday in Passion Week. This is to accommodate the travel schedules of the clergy, allowing them to return to their parishes for Holy Week.

8. The Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord is transferred to Monday, 8 April, in the week following the Easter Octave.

9. The Solemnity of Saint Joseph, Spouse of the Virgin Mary, is on its usual date, Tuesday, 19 March.

10. The Feast of Our Lady of Walsingham, 24 September, falls on a Tuesday this year. At the Cathedral of Our Lady of Walsingham, since its Solemnity of Title outranks the Sunday after Trinity, the Solemnity is transferred to Sunday, 22 September, beginning with EP1 on Saturday and concluding with EP2. Elsewhere in the Ordinariate, the Feast is observed on Tuesday, and EP1 is not observed.

General Notes, Norms, & Explanations for the Use of this Ordo

1. This Ordo outlines the celebration of Holy Mass in the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter for each day of the ecclesiastical year according to Divine Worship: The Missal (Catholic Truth Society, 2015) and the Roman Eucharistic Lectionary in the Revised Standard Version, Second Catholic Edition (Ignatius Press, 2006). In conformity with the Rubrical Directory, Calendar, and particular rubrics of Divine Worship: The Missal, this Ordo has been compiled with due attention to the relevant norms of the Institutio Generalis Missalis Romani (General Instruction of the Roman Missal 2010), Missale Romanum, Editio typica tertia 2002 (The Roman Missal, English translation according to the Third typical edition, 2010), and the Ordo Lectionum Missae, Editio typica altera (Order of Readings for Mass, Second typical edition, 1981).

2. For each day of the year, liturgical observances for celebrating Mass are provided. Sundays and Solemnities are indicated by CAPITAL letters. The rank of each day's observance is given to the right (Solemnity, Feast, Memorial), except for Optional Memorials whose titles are indicated in italics.

3. The color of the liturgical vestments and antependia for each day's celebration is designated on the right hand side of each entry and is so indicated according to the norms laid out in Divine Worship: The Missal, Rubrical Directory, no. 43. The colors for Optional Memorials and alternative observances are given in italic type.

4. Observances proper to, or optional in, the United States are designated USA: whilst observances proper to, or optional in, Canada are designated Can: according to the Ordinariate's Particular Calendar and the relevant National Calendars issued by the USCCB and CCCB. Observances and their dates proper to the National Calendars which are not already inscribed in the Ordinariate's Particular Calendar are included in this Ordo and may be kept or not in the respective country according to pastoral needs and the custom of each community.

5. DWM = Divine Worship: The Missal. For each entry, DWM is followed by numbers referring to the pages of the Missal for the relevant Mass formularies and associated rites.

6. Lec = Roman Eucharistic Lectionary, RSV-2CE (2 volumes in the Ignatius Press edition). The citations may differ from the citations given in the Ordo Lectionum Missae (1981) due to differing versification. For each entry, "Lec:" is followed by numbers referring to the section numbers of the Lectionary containing the readings at Mass as appointed or permitted for each day and observance. When alternative numbers or ranges of such numbers are given, appropriate readings should be selected from those provided in the Lectionary as suited to the rank and character of each Mass. The relevant Lectionary cycle is indicated before the entries for the beginning of Advent:

Sunday Cycle: YEAR B (3 December 2023 to 24 November 2024)

Weekday Cycle: CYCLE II (9 January 2024 to 13 February 2024 &
20 May 2024 to 30 November 2024)

Sunday Cycle: YEAR C (1 December 2024 to 23 November 2025)

The cycles given above have been used in the preparation of this Ordo. The readings from the Proper of Time and Proper of Saints have been used for all Solemnities and all Feasts since they must take the place of the weekday readings for those respective days. The readings from the weekday cycle generally are to be used even on days on which a Memorial or Optional Memorial of a Saint occurs. The exceptions to this rule are those Memorials or Optional Memorials which have proper readings (usually only the Gospel) assigned to them in the Lectionary for Mass and which must be used on those days. Substitutions from the Commons or Proper of Saints may be made for the other readings suggested for those Memorials or Optional Memorials. The Priest Celebrant, however, should not omit “too often or without sufficient cause the readings assigned for each day in the Weekday Lectionary” (Introduction to the Lectionary for Mass, no. 83).

7. According to their kind and precedence, liturgical observances are to be celebrated at Mass as follows:

a) Sundays: Except in Advent, Pre-Lent, and Lent, and on All Souls’ Day when it falls on a Sunday, the Gloria is sung or said at each Mass, including anticipated Masses of the Sunday celebrated on Saturday evening. Ordinarily, there are three assigned readings (Lesson, Epistle, and Gospel) for Sundays, aside from the Lectionary’s Psalm or the Missal’s Gradual, except as otherwise appointed. The Creed is said or sung, unless replaced by another form of the Profession of Faith (as when Baptism or Confirmation is administered during Mass, or as on Easter Sunday when the Renewal of Baptismal Promises may replace the Nicene Creed).

b) Solemnities: The Gloria and the Creed are sung or said. The Lectionary appoints three proper readings (Lesson, Epistle, and Gospel), as indicated in this Ordo for each Solemnity. Some Solemnities have proper Vigil Masses appointed for celebration on the eve before the day, as indicated in this Ordo.

c) Feasts: The Gloria is said, but not ordinarily the Creed, for Feasts falling on weekdays. The Lectionary appoints two readings proper to each Feast, as specified in this Ordo.

d) Memorials: These are obligatory in character (as distinguished from Optional Memorials), unless impeded by a higher ranking celebration. The Gloria and the Creed are not said. For Memorials of Saints, the readings appointed in the Lectio Continuo for the weekdays are normally used as specified in this Ordo by the first listing for the day. In cases where there is pastoral benefit, readings selected from among the relevant Commons provided in the Lectionary may be used as indicated in this Ordo by the second, alternative listing for the day. However, proper readings assigned in the Lectionary for certain Memorials must be used instead of any Lectio Continuo or Commons readings. These are indicated in this Ordo in bold, and in the Lectionary by the specific reference “proper.” Memorials that occur on the weekdays of Lent have the status of Optional Memorials and may be commemorated, if at all, only by the use of the Collect. The other Mass texts, readings, and the color for the celebration remain as specified for the weekdays of the Lenten season. Ember Days and Rogation Days have the status of Obligatory Memorials.

e) Optional Memorials: The Gloria and the Creed are not said. The readings typically follow the weekday Lectio Continuo. When readings for the memorial are provided, either explicitly or from the relevant commons, and when the pastoral benefit of the faithful commends the option, these may be used instead of the Lectio Continuo. However, where the Lectionary provides proper readings for a given Optional Memorial, indicated in bold, these must be used. Optional Memorials falling on the weekdays of Advent from 17 December to 24 December, on days in the Octave of Christmas, and on the weekdays of Lent have the status of “commemorations” and may be observed, if at all, only by the use of the Collect. In this Ordo, references to Memorials and Optional Memorials impeded by higher ranking celebrations are omitted or set apart in brackets [] when they can be kept as optional “commemorations” (using the Collect only at Mass with the other texts coming from the appointed Mass of the weekday). Otherwise, where such Memorials, thus bracketed, are impeded at Mass, the relevant Collects may be said as optional commemorations after the designated Collect of the Day at Morning and/or Evening Prayer.

f) Feria: Days designated as ferial take for their Mass formularies the texts assigned to the previous Sunday, or in some cases from the previous Solemnity, as appointed in the Missal and designated in this Ordo. Ferial days also permit the celebration of a coinciding Optional Memorial or a Mass of Saint Mary (on Saturdays), if so indicated, or of a Votive Mass or appropriate Mass for Various Needs and Occasions, in those times when such Masses are allowed. (Divine Worship: The Missal provides five Masses of Saint Mary, for celebration over the course of the liturgical year. As appointed to different times of the year, these constitute privileged Votive Masses and may be celebrated on unimpeded Saturdays, even during Advent and Lent, when they are to be celebrated in violet vestments and with the appointed readings of the weekday.)

g) Votive Masses, Masses for Various Needs and Occasions, Ritual Masses, and Masses for the Dead: These Masses may be celebrated according to pastoral needs and for the benefit of the faithful, when allowed, according to the particular rubrics of the relevant Mass formularies in the Missal. See Appendix 4 of this Ordo for an outline of the occasions when the Mass texts of the day may be replaced with such Masses.

8) The symbol ¶ marks notes on special features of Divine Worship: The Missal which may be useful in liturgical planning and helpful in familiarizing clergy and those who assist with public worship with the distinctive character of this particular adaptation of the Roman Rite. These notes, however, are not exhaustive and do not substitute for acquired knowledge of the Missal's contents.

9) Divine Office: This Ordo includes citations for first and second Lessons at Morning and Evening Prayer for every day of the liturgical year, as found in Divine Worship: Daily Office (2020, Newman House Press). The Ordo also indicates a distribution of proper psalms for Morning and Evening Prayer each day. Alternatively, psalms may be read in sequence, over the course of each month, according to the traditional 30-day schema designated in the Psalter of Divine Worship: Daily Office. In addition, this Ordo indicates those days on which the Te Deum is said at Morning Prayer (most Sundays, Solemnities, and Feasts).

- ❖ designates notes on certain liturgical norms and decisions particular to the Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter as determined by the Bishop and his Governing Council
- † introduces entries in the Necrology of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter
- ◆ is also used on Sundays and Solemnities to separate the First Reading from the Citation for the Psalm in the 1928 Coverdale Psalter. This is a work in progress, undertaken to facilitate patrimonial Anglican Chant. The verses listed may differ from the verses in the responsorial psalm as given in the RSV-2CE lectionary due to any of the following: (a) inherent verse differences in the translations, (b) expansion to full verses to facilitate the use of Anglican Chant, (c) incorporation of the response as a verse, or (d) changes made to correspond to the more recent lectionary as used in other parishes of the Latin Church.

¶ The Penitential Office for the Blessing and Imposition of Ashes may be used before Mass (DWM 223), or ashes may be blessed and distributed during Mass (DWM 228).

¶ The Lent Prose may be sung during the distribution of Ashes (DWM 222).

¶ Note that DWM prescribes a genuflection at the Tract Domine, non secundum on Ash Wednesday and whenever else it occurs (on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays during Lent): "... for we are come to great misery. [Here genuflect] V. Help us, O God ..." (DWM 230).

¶ "Optional Prayers over the People are provided for the Sundays and weekdays of Lent. These prayers, which have a penitential character, implore a special gift of grace for perseverance in Lenten discipline, so as to reap their spiritual fruits. Following the Postcommunion prayer, the Priest introduces the Prayer over the People with the invitation The Lord be with you. The Deacon or, if necessary, the Priest himself then says Bow down before the Lord followed by the Prayer over the People. The Priest proceeds immediately to the blessing, omitting in this case The peace of God... and saying only ... and the blessing of God Almighty while imparting the blessing" (DWM 129, 231).

¶ “After the homily there may follow the ceremony of the Maundy. Twelve seats are prepared in a suitable place for the twelve men whose feet are to be washed. The servers lead the men who have been chosen to the place prepared. Then the Priest, removing his chasuble if necessary, goes to each one and, with the help of the Deacon and servers, pours water over each one’s feet and then dries them” (DWM 344).

¶ DWM propers for the Mass of the Lord’s Supper include the complete text of the Roman Canon with the proper formulas for the Communicantes, Hanc igitur and Qui pridie provided (DWM 348).

¶ After the Postcommunion, the Solemn Translation and Reservation of the Blessed Sacrament follows (DWM 353), after which the rites of Maundy Thursday may conclude with the Rite for the Stripping of the Altars and adoration before the Blessed Sacrament during the night at the Altar of Repose (DWM 354).

¶ “On this and the following day, by most ancient tradition, the Church does not celebrate the Sacraments at all, except for Penance and Anointing of the Sick. The altar should be completely bare, without a cross, without candles and without cloths. The celebration of the Passion and Death of Our Lord takes place on the afternoon of this day, unless a later hour is chosen for a pastoral reason. The celebration consists of three parts: the Liturgy of the Word, the Adoration of the Cross, and Holy Communion” (DWM 357).

22-23 [triple "Alleluia" before and after] ♦ Mk 16:1-7

¶ "Of this night's Vigil, which is the greatest and most noble of all solemnities, there is to be only one celebration in each church. The Easter Vigil consists of four parts. It is arranged in such a way that after the Lucernarium and Easter Proclamation (first part), Holy Church meditates on the wonders the Lord God has done for his people from the beginning (second part), until, as day approaches, with new members reborn in Baptism (third part), the Church is called to the table the Lord has prepared for his people, the memorial of his Death and Resurrection until he comes again (fourth part). The entire celebration must take place at night, beginning after nightfall and ending before daybreak" (DWM 391).

¶ "In this Vigil, nine lessons are provided, seven from the Old Testament and two from the New Testament (the Epistle and the Gospel), all of which should be read whenever this can be done so that the character of the Vigil, which demands an extended period of time, may be preserved. Where pastoral reasons suggest it, the number of lessons from the Old Testament may be reduced, always bearing in mind that the reading of the Word of God is a fundamental aspect of the Easter Vigil. At least three lessons should be read from the Old Testament, both from the Law and the Prophets; and their respective Psalms, or the equivalent texts from the Coverdale Psalter, should be sung. An appropriate hymn may replace one of the Psalms. Never should the reading of chapter 14 of Exodus with its canticle be omitted" (DWM 406).

The Introit may follow directly and Mass continues with the Kyrie” (DWM 124, 1044). Lessons: Dn 3:29-37 (Song of the Three Children 29-37) or Ez 1:4-5,26-end ♦ Mt 28:16-end or Mk 16:14-19

¶ The Song of the Three Children appears in the third Chapter of Daniel. The verse numbering differs in various editions of the Bible because of the Song being one of the deuterocanonical portions of Daniel. In the RSV-CE and RSV-2CE, the Song appears italicized between Daniel 3:23 and Daniel 3:24. It is numbered as verses 1-68 and is followed by verses 24-30. The appointed verses are numbered 29-37 within the italicized section, and correspond to the Cantic Benedictus es, Domine ("Blessed art thou, O Lord, God of our fathers...") plus the first three verses of the Cantic Benedicite, Omnia Opera Domine. In the Nova Vulgata, NRSV-CE, and some other bibles the appointed verses are Dn 3:52-59.

¶ The Paschal Candle remains illuminated until the conclusion of Eastertide after the dismissal of the last Mass of Pentecost Day (DWM 473).

¶ On the Solemnity of the Ascension, the first reading is the same in all years of the three year cycle. Options are provided for the second reading, which may be either the reading proper to Year B or the reading proper to Year A. The Gospel is always proper to the specific year. The second reading for Year B is cited first above in both a long and short form. It may be replaced with the reading for Year A, cited last. Sacristans and Readers should consult with the Celebrant or Homilist to ascertain the desired reading before setting the book and before reading.

❖ The Ordinariate will observe the Memorial of The Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, on the Saturday after Ascension Day. This Memorial has a precedence higher than any other Memorial, but lower than all Feasts, Solemnities, and privileged Octaves. The General Roman Calendar observes the Memorial on Whitmonday. The move within the Ordinariate to the Saturday after Ascension Day prevents the Memorial from being permanently occluded by the higher ranking day within the Octave of Pentecost.

¶ The proper readings are taken from the Lectionary as indicated above. For the Gospel reading, vv 25-28 are to be taken from the Lectionary, with vv 29-34 added from the RSV-2CE translation of the bible. The minor propers are taken from the Common of the Blessed Virgin Mary (DWM 913). The Divine Worship form of the Collect of the Day follows:

O God, Father of mercies, whose Only Begotten Son, whilst nailed upon the Cross,
did choose the Blessed Virgin Mary, his own Mother, to be our Mother also:
grant, we beseech thee, that, with the assistance of her charity, thy Church, made more fruitful day by day may exult in the holiness of her offspring, may draw to her embrace all the families of the peoples;
through the same Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

¶ At Morning Prayer, the Antiphon for the Benedictus is "The disciples devoted themselves with one accord * to prayer with Mary, the Mother of Jesus." At Mattins the Office hymn is "Quae caritatis fulgidum" or "O virgo mater, filia" taken from the Office of Readings.

¶ Because this Memorial is observed on Saturday in the Ordinariate, Evening Prayer is always EP1 of the Sunday following. The Antiphon for the Magnificat proper to this memorial will not normally be used, but is provided here for informational purposes: "The Lord said to his mother: * Woman, behold thy son. And to the disciple: * Behold thy mother." Likewise, the evening office hymns, "Virgo, mater Ecclesiae" or "Ave, Maris Stella" will also not normally be used.

¶ Fifty Days after the Easter Vigil, the Extended Vigil of Pentecost may afford a suitable occasion for administering the Sacraments of Initiation: “After the homily, if there is anyone to be baptised, received into full communion with the Catholic Church, or confirmed, the sacramental rites are administered as set out in Divine Worship: Occasional Services and as directed at the Easter Vigil” (DWM 465).

¶ “The extended form of the Vigil of Pentecost may be celebrated on the Saturday evening, either before or after first Evening Prayer of Pentecost Sunday. Red vestments are worn for the Masses of Pentecost, though the Priest may wear a white cope for the extended Vigil up to and including the sprinkling with holy water. The Paschal Candle and the candles of the altar remain lighted throughout the Vigil” (DWM 462).

On the Day:

DWM 471 Gloria, Creed

Lec 63: Acts 2:1-11 ♦ Ps 104:1, 24, 29, 30, 31, 34 ♦ Gal 5:16-25 or 1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13 ♦ Jn 15:26-27; 16:12-15 or Jn 20:19-23

¶ Note that DWM prescribes a genuflection at the Alleluia Emitte Spiritum: “Come, Holy Ghost, [Here genuflect] and fill the hearts of thy faithful people ...” (DWM 471), as also at the Alleluia through Whitsun Week.

¶ “The Sequence Veni, Sancte Spiritus may be sung or said” after the Alleluia verse (DWM 471).

¶ At the end of the last Mass of Pentecost Day: “With Eastertide now concluded, the Paschal Candle is extinguished. It is desirable to keep the Paschal Candle in the baptistery with due honour so that it is lit at the celebration of Baptism and the candles of those baptised are lit from it” (DWM 473).

¶ On Whitsunday, the first reading is the same in all years of the three year cycle. Options are provided for the second reading and the Gospel, which may be either the readings proper to Year B or the readings proper to Year A. The readings for Year B are cited first above. They may be replaced with the readings for Year A, which are cited last. ¶ “The Sequence Lauda Sion Salvatorem may be sung or said” after the Alleluia verse (DWM 553).

¶ “It is desirable that a procession of the Most Blessed Sacrament take place after the Mass in which the Host to be carried in the procession is consecrated. However, nothing prohibits a procession from taking place even after a public and lengthy period of adoration following the Mass. If a procession takes place after Mass, when the Communion of the faithful is over, the monstrance in which the consecrated Host has been placed is set on the altar. When the Thanksgiving and the Postcommunion have been said, the concluding rites are omitted and the procession forms” (DWM 555).

❖ By decision of the Governing Council, ratified by the Bishop, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ shall be celebrated on the first Sunday after Trinity, in keeping with the Latin Rite dioceses of the United States and Canada.

July 2024

¶ An interim Mass formulary has been approved by the USCCB for the Memorial of Saints Martha, Mary, and Lazarus for use at this time. It is presented according to DWM here. The Collect is taken from the Commons of Holy Men & Women (DWM 940); the Prayer over the Offerings and Postcommunion are adaptations of the Propers for St. Martha (DWM 790). The minor propers continue from the Common of Virgins, (DWM 938-939).

Collect

ALMIGHTY God, who willest to be glorified in thy Saints, and didst raise up thy servants Martha, Mary, and Lazarus to shine as lights in the world: shine we pray thee, in our hearts; that aided by their prayers we also in our generation may show forth thy praises, who hast called us out of darkness into thy marvellous light; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Prayer over the Offerings

WE beseech thee, O Lord, as we proclaim thy wonders in thy saints: and humbly implore thy majesty; that, as their homage of love was pleasing unto thee, so our dutiful service may find favour in thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Postcommunion

MAY the holy reception of the Body and Blood of thine Only Begotten Son, O Lord, turn us away from the cares of this fallen world: that, following the example of Saints Martha, Mary and Lazarus, we may grow in sincere love for thee on earth, and rejoice to behold thee for eternity in heaven; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ The shorter version of today's 2nd reading in the citation above is not provided in the RSV-2CE lectionary. The shorter version inserts verse 5:2a ("Walk in love, as Christ loved us") in place of the text from "Be subject to one another" through "let wives also be subject in everything to their husbands."

The OT reading is preferred as the first reading, but the rubrics allow the reading from Philippians to be used in its place. ¶ On the norms to be observed in celebrating Masses for the Dead, see the Rubrical Directory, no. 45 (DWM 130).

¶ "On All Souls' Day, the Sequence Dies irae may be sung or said" after the Tract (DWM 872).

¶ "On this day, any Priest may celebrate three Masses, observing, nevertheless, what was established by Benedict XV in the Apostolic Constitution, Incruentum altaris sacrificium, 10 August 1915: Acta Apostolicae Sedis 7 (1915) pp. 401-404" (DWM 871).

¶ The preferred readings for celebrating All Souls' Day in the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of Saint Peter are given above. These are the primary readings given in lectionaries and people's missals published under the direction of the USCCB. By using these readings, we read together with the wider Church nearby. These readings appear in Volume II of the RSV-2CE lectionary, as indicated. Other readings from Masses for the Dead, nos. 1011-1016, may also be used, including those on pages 963-965 of Volume I of the RSV-2CE lectionary. The readings in Volume I were selected from among the permitted readings at the recommendation of the Conference of Catholic Bishops of the Antilles, who published the RSV-2CE lectionary. Sacristans and Readers should consult with the Celebrant or Homilist to ascertain the desired reading before setting the book and before reading.

¶ This year the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception is transferred to December 9th, and the obligation to attend Mass is abrogated. Because the Immaculate Conception is the Patronal Feastday of the USA, the precept to attend Mass applies even in years where 8 December falls on a Monday or Saturday (general decree of the USCCB, December 13, 1991, and CIC 1246), but it does not apply in years when the Solemnity is transferred to Monday, December 9th.

If several celebrations fall on the same day, the one that holds the highest rank according to the Table of Liturgical Days is observed. However, a Solemnity impeded by a liturgical day that takes precedence over it should be transferred to the closest day not listed under nos. 1-8 in the Table of Precedence, provided that what is laid down in no. 5 is observed. As to the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord, whenever it falls on any day of Holy Week, it shall always be transferred to the Monday after the Second Sunday of Easter. Other celebrations are omitted in that year.

Should Evening Prayer of the current day's Office and First Evensong (Evening Prayer I) of the following day be assigned for celebration on the same day, then Evening Prayer of the celebration with the higher rank in the Table of Liturgical Days takes precedence; in cases of equal rank, Evening Prayer of the current day takes precedence.

4. Occasions when Mass texts of the day may be replaced¹

The following outline specifies when celebrations using the formularies from Ritual Masses, Masses for Various Needs and Occasions, Votive Masses, and Masses for the Dead are permitted within the liturgical year.

V1 = Ritual Masses (GIRM, no. 372).

Masses for Various Needs and Occasions and Votive Masses, in cases of serious need or pastoral advantage, at the direction of the Ordinary or with his permission (GIRM, no. 374).

V2 = Masses for Various Needs and Occasions and Votive Masses, in cases of serious need or pastoral advantage, at the discretion of the Pastor of the church or the Priest Celebrant (GIRM, no. 376). (The DWM provision for Masses of Saint Mary, celebrated over the liturgical year, constitutes a particular exception to this general norm in view of GIRM no. 378. See p. 6 of this Ordo, above).

V3 = Masses for Various Needs and Occasions and Votive Masses chosen by the Priest Celebrant in favor of the devotion of the people (GIRM, no. 373, 375).

D1 = Funeral Mass (GIRM, no. 380).

D2 = Mass on the occasion of news of a death, final burial, or the anniversary of death (GIRM, no. 381).

D3 = Daily Mass for the Dead (GIRM, no. 381). When D1 and D2 are not permitted, neither is D3.

5. Regarding “Ever One God” in the Divine Worship Collects

In May 2020, the Congregation for Divine Worship wrote to the English-speaking conferences of bishops regarding the concluding doxology of the Collects in the Roman Missal. Specifically, the Congregation modified the English translation of the doxology, omitting the word “one” so that the conclusion now reads: ...through Jesus Christ, your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. This change was effective in the United States on Ash Wednesday, 2021, for all Masses celebrated in English according to the Roman Missal.

The change does not apply to Divine Worship.

On the one hand, the change in the translation of the Roman Missal brings the English into greater conformity with the Latin [...Deus, per omnia saecula saeculorum, not “unus Deus”]. But this is not simply a matter of strict adherence to the Latin but of liturgical logic, and hence the difference between the Roman and Anglican liturgical traditions.

Theologically, the logic of the Roman ending to the collect is meant to be understood in a Christological context...it is a statement about Christ’s divinity: Per Iesum Christum Filium tuum, qui vivet et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti, [qui est] Deus, per omnia saecula saeculorum. Grammatically, the Deus appears as a second modifier of Iesum after his living and reigning. So, the whole prayer is made through Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit. And about Christ, we add that (1) he is the Father’s [your] Son; (2) that he lives and reigns with the Father in the communion of the Holy Spirit; and (3) and that this Jesus Christ is himself God for ever and ever.

The Anglican and Byzantine logic is different in that it is explicitly a Trinitarian affirmation. Having named the divine Persons, this logic then underscores the unicity of the Blessed Trinity as God. And it is noteworthy that this has been the case since the very first articulations of what we call now the Anglican liturgical tradition, since already the 1549 Prayer Book “doubles down” on the Trinitarian logic by adding ever one God.

Obviously these two readings of the conclusion of the Collect are not opposed or contradictory and can sit happily side-by-side. It is also a subtle and interesting example about how the Roman and Anglican logic differ, while each underscores an important aspect of the Mystery into which we have been baptized. Bottom line: when celebrating Mass according to the Roman Missal, it’s “God, for ever and ever.” When celebrating according to Divine Worship, it’s “ever one God, world without end.”
