With the observance of the Fifth Sunday of Lent we enter into the final two weeks of Lent. During this time, the liturgical readings focus on the suffering and death that Jesus is about to undergo in Jerusalem and the meaning of His death for the world. The daily readings unfold for us the growing tension between Jesus and the leaders of the Sanhedrin. Jesus is very much aware of what is happening and knows that the time is drawing near when He will hand over His life to the Father.

We are two weeks away from Easter Sunday. The greatness of the resurrection of Jesus is truly something to behold. However, the resurrection has little meaning if we fail to consider all that it cost Jesus. Without His suffering and death on the cross, there is no real victory. The greatness of the victory is measured through the obstacles and challenges that must be surmounted. Of course we would all rather stay focused on the resurrection. It is, of course, the prize; it is the light at the end of the tunnel. Nothing, however, can be fully appreciated without the difficulty we go through to achieve it. During these last two weeks of Lent, the Church will help us to appreciate all that Jesus had to face before his victorious resurrection.

Next Sunday is Passion Sunday, more commonly known as Palm Sunday. It is the beginning of Holy Week, during which we will solemnly remember the events that led to Jesus' death by crucifixion and, three days later, His resurrection from the dead. On Palm Sunday, palm branches will be blessed as we recall Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem and remember how the crowds, waving palm branches, hailed Jesus as the Son of David and the King of Israel. Also, because it is the Sunday before Easter, we will read about the tragic events of the passion and death of Jesus, as it is presented to us, this year, in the Gospel according to St. Luke.

Let us prepare for these last two weeks of Lent, so that we can more deeply experience the gift of salvation Jesus won for us through His Passion, Death and Resurrection.

This Sunday, St John presents us with a situation Jesus was put in when the scribes and the Pharisees brought to Him a woman who was caught committing adultery. The scribes and Pharisees wanted Jesus to say something about this. They knew very well what course of action needed to be taken. The Law of Moses commanded that such a woman should be stoned to death. Still, they wanted Jesus to make a public statement about this. Their purpose was to trap Jesus in his words. The scribes and Pharisees saw this as an excellent opportunity to finally discredit Him. Either way Jesus would answer the question of whether or not it was right to stone her, He would get Himself into trouble. It was their perfect setup.

If Jesus would answer that it was not right to stone her, he would be in defiance of the Law itself and the scribes and Pharisees could then bring that against Him. If he agreed that it was right to stone her, he would be in contradiction of His own teaching. So, they thought that Jesus had no way out.

Of course, Jesus was always ready for any challenge put before Him and his answer diffused the entire setup. "Let the one among you without sin cast the first stone." Brilliant! With that they all slowly dropped their stones and walked away.

Jesus was not by any means dismissing the sin of adultery as He told the woman to go and sin no more. His point was to correct and not condemn. Jesus told us that God sent His Son into the world, not to condemn it, but to save it. Sin is a big part of our world, which causes many problems and many hurts. And that is what needs to be corrected.

Jesus' compassion is good news for all of us, for we are all sinners and deserve condemnation. And there before the grace of God, go all of us.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading: Thus says the LORD, who opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters. (Is 43:16)

Psalms: The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy. (Ps 126)

Second Reading: Just one thing: forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus. (Phil 3:14)

Gospel: Then Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She replied, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more." (Jn 8:10-11)

PRAYER INTENTIONS OF THE HOLY FATHER

APRIL 2025

For the use of the new technologies – Let us pray that the use of the new technologies will not replace human relationships, will respect the dignity of the person, and will help us face the crises of our times.

COMMUNITY BOOK OF PRAYER

We have established a "Community Book of Prayer" which will allow parishioners to enter the names of those who are in need of our prayers. These names will not be announced at the Mass or published in the bulletin. However, at each weekend Mass, the following will be prayed within the Mass petitions: ...for all those names listed in our Community Book of Prayer...

The Community Book of Prayer is located behind the last pew in the church.

ALTAR FLOWERS SPONSORSHIP

Donating altar flowers is a wonderful way to honor a loved one or to commemorate a special event. The donation and purpose will be posted in the weekly bulletin. To make a donation, call or come into the Parish Office.

A suggested minimum donation is $200.00 to help offset our floral expense and costs.

Regarding your dedication: You may include the name of the person(s) you are honoring, the name of the person(s) making the dedication, and the event (if applicable) for which you are honoring them.
