Reflections From the Pastor

Corpus Christi Sunday

This Sunday the Church celebrates the Feast of Corpus Christi. This feast has special meaning for me because it is through receiving the Eucharist “by accident” at a high school retreat that I joined the Catholic Church because I felt the power of God enter my body like I never had before. It is through spending time in Eucharistic adoration that I heard the call to be a priest. The first Mass I celebrated as a priest was on this feast of Corpus Christi in 2002. Celebrating the Eucharist daily is my greatest joy!

The connections between the Old Testament and New Testament are amazing! On the Day of Atonement, or Yom Kippur, a priest entered the Holy of Holies, the most sacred place of the temple, with a goat and a bullock. They sacrificed the bullock and sprinkled its blood on the people and on the goat. They placed their sins upon the goat and sent it out to die in atonement for the sins of the people. This became known as the scapegoat.

The feast of Passover commemorates the Jews’ escape from Egypt. On this day, they sacrificed an unblemished lamb, ate the meat and sprinkled the blood on the doorpost so that the angel of death would pass over their house.

This background is important because the night before the feast of Passover, Jesus had his last supper with His disciples. He took the bread, blessed it, broke it and gave it to them saying, “Take it; this is my body.” Then He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them saying, “This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.” The next day, Jesus offered His body as a sacrifice for all of us to seal the covenant of love with us. This sacrifice would never have to be repeated. At Mass, we remember this sacrifice and make it present; we do not re-sacrifice Jesus.

When Jesus was teaching about the Eucharist in the synagogue in Capernaum (John 6), many of His followers left. They thought He was talking about cannibalism and they all left except the Twelve. Jesus didn’t call them back by saying, “I’m just kidding. I didn’t mean that literally. I was only speaking metaphorically.” He let them walk away, and He looked at the Twelve remaining and asked, “Will you leave me too?” In other words, “I know this is hard to understand, but do you trust me?” Peter spoke up and said, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You alone have the words of everlasting life.”

Jesus entrusted the ministry of priesthood to His apostles and their successors. In the Gospel today, Jesus tells His apostles, “Give them some food yourselves.” Priests around the world continue to feed the people of God through the Eucharist – the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ.

God bless,

Fr. Burke

TO THE PARISHONERS OF ST. ISAAC JOGUES PARISH

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With a heart full of gratitude and emotion, I write to you today as I prepare to say farewell to this beloved St. Isaac Jogues Parish. I will, on July 1, 2025, begin a new chapter in my ministry at Saints Peter and Paul Church in Naperville. Although I am excited for what lies ahead, the thought of parting from you brings both sadness and deep appreciation.

Serving as your Associate Priest with Fr. Burke Masters for the past four years has been one of the greatest privileges of my priesthood. Together, we have celebrated the sacraments, mourned our losses, rejoiced in new life, and supported one another in faith. I have seen the love of Christ shine in your generosity, your compassion, and your commitment to each other.

From baptisms to funerals, from Sunday and daily Mass to quiet moments of prayer, each experience has left an imprint on my heart. You have welcomed me into your lives and allowed me to walk with you on your journey with God. For this, I am deeply thankful.

I leave with countless memories of laughter, challenges overcome, faith renewed, and friendships formed. Please know that I carry each of you with me in prayer, and I ask that you pray for me as I continue to serve the Church at Saints Peter and Paul in Naperville.

Thank you for the love, patience, and trust you have given me. May God bless you abundantly, and may this St. Isaac Jogues Church continue to be a light of hope and faith in the community.

*In Christ,
Fr. Raed Bader*

ST. ISAAC JOGUES
CATHOLIC CHURCH AND SCHOOL

Dear Friends in Christ,

As pastor of St. Isaac Jogues, I am continually humbled by the generosity and faithfulness of our parish family. Your gifts of time, talent, and treasure allow us to fulfill our mission of sharing Christ's love, celebrating the sacraments, and forming disciples of all ages.

Through the centuries, the Church has been blessed by those who have planned for the future by remembering their parishes in their wills and estate plans. Planned giving is a profound way to ensure that St. Isaac Jogues continues to thrive for generations to come.

I invite you to prayerfully consider how your legacy can support our parish's mission. Whether through a bequest, charitable trust, or other planned giving option, your gift will help us continue our vital ministries, maintain our beautiful church, and provide faith formation for years to come.

Thank you for your continued faith and support. May God bless you and your loved ones abundantly.

Peace,

Fr. Burke Masters
Pastor

Leaving a Legacy of Faith

Planned giving is a way for you to leave a lasting impact on St. Isaac Jogues while achieving your own financial and philanthropic goals. By including our parish in your estate plan, you help sustain our ministries, support our school, and maintain our facilities for future generations.

Ways to Give

- Bequests: Include St. Isaac Jogues in your will or trust with a specific gift, percentage of your estate, or residual bequest after other obligations are met.
- Charitable Gift Annuities: Provide a steady income for yourself while benefiting the parish after your lifetime.
- IRA or Retirement Assets: Name St. Isaac Jogues as a beneficiary of your IRA, 401(k), or pension plan to maximize your legacy.
- Life Insurance: Designate our parish as a beneficiary of a new or existing life insurance policy.
- Stock & Appreciated Securities: Avoid capital gains taxes by donating securities directly to the parish.
- Donor-Advised Funds: Recommend St. Isaac Jogues as a recipient of grants from your fund.

Your Gift, Your Legacy

Your planned gift will help sustain:

- Liturgical & Sacramental Life – Ensuring the beauty and reverence of our worship.
- Faith Formation & Evangelization – Supporting religious education, youth ministry, and adult faith programs.
- Catholic Education – Strengthening St. Isaac Jogues School and tuition assistance.
- Parish & Facility Maintenance – Preserving our historic church and campus for future generations.

How to Get Started

1. Pray & Reflect – Consider how God is calling you to be a steward of His gifts.
2. Consult Your Advisor – Speak with an attorney or financial planner to determine the best way to include St. Isaac Jogues in your plans.
3. Let your family know of your wishes and intentions.
4. Contact Us – We are happy to discuss your options confidentially.

For more information, contact Mark Cummings, Director of Finance and Operations at (630) 323-1248 X 1223 or Mark@sjhinsdale.com.

"I would like this greeting of peace to resound in your hearts, in your families, among all people, wherever they may be, in every nation and throughout the world. Peace be with you!" - Pope Leo XIV, "Urbi Et Orbi" Message, May 8, 2025.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Throughout centuries of history, Catholics have supported the Church's mission of evangelization and charity by giving to the annual Peter's Pence Collection. This collection, which began as a way for Catholics around the world to express their unity with the Pope, continues to the present day.

This tangible expression of unity with Pope Leo XIV has a dual purpose set by the Holy See. "(1) To support the Holy Father's mission, which extends throughout the entire world, from the proclamation of the Gospel to the promotion of integral human development, education peace, and brotherhood among peoples: thanks also to the many activities of service carried out by the dicasteries, bodies and organs of the Holy See that assist him every day; and (2) To support the numerous charitable works in aid of people and families in difficulty, populations afflicted by natural disasters and wars, or who are in need of humanitarian assistance or support for development."

For more information on Peter's Pence, please visit the Vatican's Peter's Pence website: www.obolodisanpietro.va/en.html (English) or www.obolodisanpietro.va/es.html (español).

Please prayerfully consider supporting this year's collection as an act of mercy and charity on the weekend of June 28-29, 2025 in the Diocese of Joliet. Join our brothers and sisters in faith from around the globe to help Pope Leo XIV carry out his ministry to the Universal Church and reach out to the most marginalized in our world.

Thank you and may God bless you abundantly.

As I remain -

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Ronald A. Hicks

Saint John Paul II Eucharistic Adoration Chapel

Six candles burn perpetually around the Blessed Sacrament in the Saint John Paul II Eucharistic Adoration Chapel. This week's intentions are:

- ♦ For Bob & Norma, Manny & Betty
- ♦ Blessings for my family
- ♦ For the complete healing of my family and have mercy on Theresa
- ♦ For my son and daughter-in-law
- ♦ For my grandson's health

Your Generosity Makes a Difference

Thanks to faithful parishioners like you, we're supporting ministries that bring Christ to our neighbors in need, proclaim the Gospel, and care for the most vulnerable among us through the Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA).

If you haven't yet made your gift to the CMAA, will you join other parishioners in making a real impact today? Every gift, large or small, helps our parish and may even result in a parish rebate.

Please look for the CMAA mailing in your mailbox or visit jolietdioceseappeal.org to learn more and make your gift. Thank you for your faithful generosity!

Please Pray For

Please remember fellow parishioners

Michael and Liesl Tatarowicz and their family in your prayers.

The Tatarowicz's experienced a devastating house fire but through the grace of God, all family members were safe.

CALLING ALL TODDLER MOMS

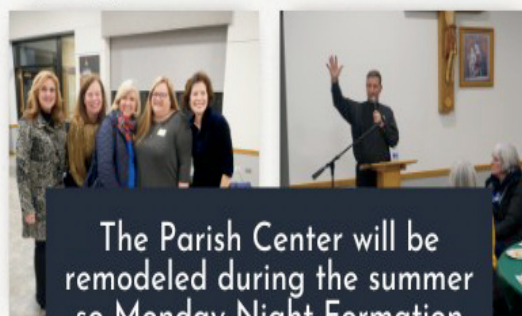

We are seeking moms to take turns and help facilitate meet-ups for the Mom & Toddler Ministry! This opportunity requires minimal time commitments and is a fantastic way to connect with other moms.

Meetings take place every other Tuesday or Saturday, at 10 a.m. in the Fireplace Room.

Come and enjoy playtime, snacks, crafts, and a sense of community. Scan the QR code to learn more.
