Pastor's Column

DIFFICULTY, SURVIVAL, AND GLORY

In Revelation, John the Evangelist tells us what we can expect as followers of the risen Jesus: distress, endurance, and a kingdom. Although we are only eight days into our fifty-day Easter feasting, we cannot ignore the distress weighing down our daily lives. Jesus' resurrection does not erase individual suffering, but his glorious triumph over death cultivates endurance in our hearts. We remember that Jesus did not spare himself, and we ask for the strength to endure as he did. Imitating Christ helps us grow as members of God's royal family. As beloved citizens of the Kingdom of God, we recognize our kinship with all people. Peter demonstrates his care for others as he heals multitudes of broken, suffering people. In the Gospel, Thomas accepts his own spiritual healing when Jesus helps him to believe. In times of difficulty, survival, and glory, we borrow Thomas' declaration of faith: "My Lord and my God!"

Faith and Charity Catholic Appeal.

Commitment Weekend

April 30 & May 1

Diocesan Target:

$5,000,000.00

SJOB Target:        $ 230,000.00

The 2022 Faith and Charity Catholic Appeal will be conducted in parishes throughout the diocese next weekend. Once a year, our Bishop asks each of us to make a commitment to support the work of diocesan programs and ministries that provide services that no one parish can offer on its own. Your gift helps our Church to serve the poor, the sick, the distressed, our children and our elderly.

As parishioners of St. Joseph on the Brandywine we are being asked to serve others by sharing our resources. Your generosity enables us to accompany our brothers and sisters in need.

Please prayerfully consider your generous gift to this Faith and Charity Catholic Appeal. Kindly decide ahead of time the contribution you wish to make this year and come to church next week prepared to complete your pledge and offer your support to our parish, and the Diocese of Wilmington. To learn more about the Faith and Charity Catholic Appeal, visit www.cdow.org; click "Giving" then "Faith and Charity Catholic Appeal."

Special thanks for all those who made Holy Week and Easter such a prayerful experience for our community here at St. Joseph on the Brandywine. We are grateful for the beautiful music, cantors, lectors, altar servers, Eucharistic ministers, ushers and of course, those who made our church and Family Center look so beautiful!

A special thank you to those who participated in the washing of the feet for the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday. We are truly blessed!

Prayer of the Week

Second Sunday of Easter

Divine Mercy

God of everlasting mercy,
who in the very recurrence of the paschal feast
kindle the faith of the people you have made your own,
increase, we pray, the grace you have bestowed,
that all may grasp and rightly understand
in what font they have been washed,
by whose Spirit they have been reborn,
by whose Blood they have been redeemed.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

How can I come to grasp more fully
the meaning of my baptism?

Your heartfelt generosity in giving to the poor is very much appreciated by St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry at St. Catherine of Siena. Please continue to donate your gifts of food in the summer months. Suggested items are: whole grain breakfast cereals, old fashioned oats, add water pancake mix, coffee, tea, low fat evaporated milk, flour, protein bars, dried fruits, nuts, peanut butter, jelly, low sodium hearty soups, canned meats and fish, rice and beans, pasta and crushed or diced tomatoes, canned lite fruit, natural low sugar applesauce, canned low sodium vegetables, olive oil or canola oil, bar soap, shampoo, toilet paper and toothpaste. Our next collection is June 30th.

A Spring Concert: May 22nd @ 2 p.m.

Performed by St. Joseph on the Brandywine Choir

Diocesan Priests' Retirement Fund

The weekend of June 4/5 we will hold a special collection for the Diocesan Priests' Retirement Fund. This fund is becoming vital as more and more of our priests reach the age of retirement. Your donation will be used to support the many fine priests who have dedicated their lives to service of the faithful of Delaware and Maryland's Eastern Shore. Please be as generous as possible.

Religious Education

Dear Religious Education families,
Please pray for our sixteen Confirmandi as they receive the Sacrament this Sunday! These young men and women have worked hard and are prepared to serve as witnesses to our faith.

The focus of the Gospel Weeklies for Divine Mercy Sunday is Jesus' death and resurrection. Jesus' disciples and friends were the first witnesses to his suffering as well as his return, but we still experience what they did when we celebrate Easter each year. How do we, though we were not present as the disciples were to see the risen Jesus, still believe?

In His service, Jessie

*A Respect Life Program
Donations generously accepted.
May the Lord Bless & Keep You!*

Basket for Babies will be displayed during the month of May in anticipation of accepting lovely donations for babies. Your gifts will be provided to Birthright, which is a non-profit charitable organization that has been providing love and support to women facing unplanned pregnancies. The Baskets for Babies Program for Birthright is sponsored by the Respect Life Committee supported by devoted volunteers and private donations.

In the Know

Birthright of Delaware will host its Annual Mother's Day Rose Sale at St. Joseph on the Brandywine parish after Masses on the weekend of May 6th -8th. Please support Birthright's crisis pregnancy services by purchasing roses. $3/one Rose; $5/three Roses; $20/Dozen Roses; $40/Twenty-five Roses Bouquet.

You may also make a donation directly to Birthright of Delaware in lieu of roses, checks payable to Birthright of Delaware, mail directly to Birthright of Delaware, attention Tinisha Brown, Executive Director at 1311 North Scott Street, Wilmington, DE 19806 Questions, please call Tinisha Brown at (302) 656.7080

BULLETIN ADVERTISERS – Have you taken a look at the patrons listed on the back on the bulletin? It's because of their support that we can provide this bulletin at no cost to our parish. Please visit these businesses and don't forget to tell them where you saw their ad!

Pray for Ukraine — Rev. William Gore, OSFS, is an Oblate of St. Francis de Sales who ministers at St. Edmond Parish in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware. Fr. Gore has ministered for many years to the Ukrainian American community in the mid Atlantic region of the country. In the 1990s, after the fall of communism in Eastern Europe, Fr. Gore served as an English teacher at Ukrainian Catholic University in Lviv. Fr. Gore continues to keep in touch with many of his former students and their families in Ukraine. During this time of war, he has asked us to continue our prayers for peace. Below is a prayer he shared with us to remind us of the suffering and tragedy of war. Let us join our prayers with Christians from the East and West and people of goodwill around the world: "Lord, O Lord, look down from heaven! See and visit this vineyard and bring it to perfection, for your right hand has planted it. May your hand be upon your sons and daughters of Ukraine whom You affirmed for yourself. Amen." God bless you! You can help the people of Ukraine by making a secure on-line donation to Catholic Relief Services (CRS) at www.crs.org.

Pope Francis
@Pontifex

I would also like to thank the journalists who put their lives at risk to provide information. Thank you, brothers and sisters, for this service that allows us to be close to the tragedy of that population and enables us to assess the cruelty of a war. #Ukraine #Peace

*Each year, on the Second Sunday of Easter
The last day of the Easter Octave—the Church celebrates the Sunday of Divine Mercy.*

On this day, we contemplate the fullness of the Paschal Mystery—Christ’s Passion, death, and Resurrection. The basis of the whole Easter Mystery is the merciful love of God. From the beginning of creation, throughout Scripture, and most perfectly in the life, Passion, death and Resurrection of his Son, Jesus, God has been revealed as love itself. In His infinite love for us, God desires nothing more than to forgive our sins and offer us His mercy. Our world’s need for the message of Divine Mercy took on new urgency in the 20th century. It was during this time that the world witnessed the rise of Nazism and communism and experienced the horrors of the world at war. Civilization was losing the understanding of the sanctity and inherent dignity of every human life. As these evil ideologies were taking shape, Jesus appeared to a humble Polish nun, whom we know as St. Maria Faustina Kowalska. As Jesus continued to appear to St. Faustina, she recorded His messages to her in her Diary. On one such occasion, Jesus said to St. Faustina: My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy (Diary 699). RESPECTLIFE.ORG/ACTION-GUIDES | 7 SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY Jesus appeared to the humble Faustina and asked that we celebrate the gift of His mercy today. Our celebration of this Easter Octave is a celebration of the mercy and forgiveness that are now available to all of us, by virtue of Christ’s Resurrection. We must only run toward the outstretched arms of Christ. While God wants nothing more than to give us His mercy, in order to receive it, we have to admit that we are sinners in need of God’s forgiveness. In order to be saved, we must first admit that we are in need of saving. We must be willing to look at the ways we have failed to love God and our neighbor, so that God can raise us to the heights of His love through His great mercy. For, as the psalmist writes, “His mercy endures forever” (Responsorial Psalm, Psalm 118:2). We may often feel that we are unworthy of God’s love and mercy. We can fool ourselves into believing that God’s mercy is for everyone else. We might believe the lies of the Evil One as he tries to convince us that our sins are too great, that our sins are unforgiveable. But God desires to take the greatest of sinners and transform them into the greatest saints. No sin is beyond His mercy. He makes “all things new” (Revelation 21:5). No matter how we have failed, the Resurrection of Christ is an assurance of hope. Christ’s mercy is constantly available to us, if only we reach out in faith and confidence. In the Gospel, we hear the story of Jesus’ appearance to the disciples after His death. Jesus comes to them and exposes the wounds of His hands and His side—the wounds He endured for our salvation. And as the Resurrected Lord stood in their midst, the first words He spoke to them were, “Peace be with you” (John 20:19). Many of these disciples had abandoned Jesus during His Passion. During Christ’s moment of greatest need, they scattered, leaving Jesus alone in His sacrifice. Many might think what the disciples had done was unforgiveable. Yet Jesus appears to them and offers them His peace. And then He breathed on them and gave them the power to forgive sin, to extend His own mercy. Now, Thomas was not present when Jesus appeared, and he refused to believe the disciples when they told him the Lord had appeared to them. Thomas needed to see to believe, and so Jesus returned and revealed himself eight days later, on the Octave of Easter. Jesus showed Thomas His hands and His side, saying, “do not be unbelieving, but believe” (Gospel, John 20:27). How often have we doubted the Lord like Thomas? How often have we hidden in fear, unable to bear the shame of our mistakes and failures? What sins have we painfully buried in our hearts rather than exposing them to the healing light of God’s mercy? Have we failed to confess and seek reconciliation for sins of adultery, violence, hatred, or participation in an abortion? Have we rejected the Church’s teachings on contraception, sexuality, or marriage? Have we hardened our hearts, giving ourselves over to envy, greed, or dishonesty? No sin is unforgiveable, and no sinner is beyond redemption. We have all failed and we are all in need of God’s mercy. It is for this very reason that Christ suffered, died, and rose again. Christ came to offer us His infinite love and mercy, and we can receive it in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. When we enter the confessional and seek God’s forgiveness, in a way, Christ breathes on us as He did the disciples, wiping away our sins and offering us His peace. We don’t need to hide in fear or shame. Christ’s mercy is freely given to a repentant heart. He will reveal to us the saving wounds of His hands and feet. He will take away our pain and replace it with His peace. And as we receive the gift of His Divine Mercy, may our hearts cry out with the joyful words of Thomas, “My Lord and my God!” (Gospel, John 20:28). May we “not be unbelieving, but believe” (Gospel, John 20:27). St. John Paul II, who canonized St. Faustina, said in his 2001 homily for the Sunday of Divine Mercy, “Divine Mercy! This is the Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ and offers to humanity.” Today we celebrate that Easter gift of God’s unending, merciful love for all his children. This is at the heart of the Gospel. Let us never fail to seek the mercy that God desires to freely give us. Jesus, we trust in you
