MOTHER CABRINI CIRCLE GIFT SHOP

Located in the vestibule; open before & after morning Sunday Masses & Thursdays 12-3pm

Dear friends,

Last week, I read an article written by Mark Shea (no relations to me)—a Catholic author and blogger. It was titled, Upside Down. Given the craziness of our world, I thought it worthwhile to reprint for you on this Feast of great hope—the Transfiguration of Jesus. I quote:

“Got a picture from a friend claiming to be in Oz the other day. There was the Opera House and the Harbor Bridge. But I knew it was a fake because everything was right side up. Har de har har!

It is a wonderful thing to live in a world where half the population is upside down in relation to the other half. There’s something magical about it. At any moment, half of us might fall off the earth but for the divine choice to make gravity a universal constant pulling all of us toward the heart of the planet as a mother pulls her wandering children to her breast and holds them close in a place of danger. G.K. Chesterton, perhaps the wisest man of the 20th century, because he was one of the humblest and most grateful of men, remarked of St. Francis of Assisi:

If a man saw the world upside down, with all the trees and towers hanging head downwards as in a pool, one effect would be to emphasize the idea of dependence... He would be thankful to God for not dropping the whole cosmos like a vast crystal to be shattered into falling stars. Perhaps St. Peter saw the world so, when he was crucified head downwards...In a...cynical sense...men have said “Blessed is he that expects nothing, for he shall not be disappointed.” It was in a wholly happy and enthusiastic sense that St. Francis said, “Blessed is he who expects nothing, for he shall enjoy everything.” It was by this deliberate idea of starting from zero...that he did come to enjoy even earthly things as few people have enjoyed them.

I am one of those sad slobs who enjoys St. Francis from afar because I lack his natural talent for gratitude: for seeing the world upside-down and realizing that it really really need not be at all. I so easily fall into taking the whole preposterous thing for granted—as though a cosmos 13 billion light years wide featuring kangaroos, the Space Needle, J.S. Bach, and pistol shrimp should of course be handed to me—along with my own hands, and me to boot! Duh! It’s just my natural due, ain’t it? Now let’s talk about what’s wrong! I have diabetes! And I had to change the tires on our car! And move the dishwasher when it’s really heavy! Why was I born for such an hour?

I really am such a whiner. Right now, a billion trillion trillion galaxies are all being held in being by God out of sheer gratuitous love, not one atom of which I have ever—or could ever—deserve or invent myself. And the preciousness of it is brought home by the fact that not only does none of it need to exist at all, all of it is going out of existence sooner or later. The hands that type this will one day be the hands of a skeleton. The faces of those I love most in this world will, perhaps in the next few minutes, be taken from my sight forever. My childhood home has been bulldozed. One day the North American continent will be gone. So will the planet. So will the sun. So will the Milky Way. So will all the galaxies.

The impermanence of things has birthed whole schools of philosophy that range from telling us to grab hold of as much stuff as you can for as long as you can since tomorrow you are dead, to telling us that everything is an evil illusion so ignore it.

St. Paul tells us something different:

“I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of him who subjected it in hope; because the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and obtain the glorious liberty of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning with labor pains together until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies”. (Romans 8:18–23).

The precariousness of things, the upside-downness of them, the fact that they could be dropped, smashed, lost is, for St. Paul, a strange sign of hope. This whole creation was subjected to futility by God so that we do not put our hope in it and miss the real deal: "Christ the God-Man who has brought the bit of nature called man through death to resurrection and glory so that, in due time, all of us and eventually the whole of creation will be transformed into the New Heaven and the New Earth, which will never pass away and in which we will finally see everything right side up."

Brothers and sister, let's never lose hope! Let's keep fighting the good fight; let's keep running the race; and let's all keep the faith. I don't know how God is going to do it, but I believe with all my heart that God will turn all things right side up!!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Joseph Shea

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Are You Interested in the Catholic Faith?

Have you been coming to Mass for a while, but are not Catholic, and wish to look deeper into the Catholic faith? Were you baptized Catholic as an infant but have not gone to church since childhood and are interested in learning more about the faith? We have begun a new "inquiry session" to help you with your questions and to share the richness of the Catholic Church and our parish family. We invite you to come and learn what the Church teaches, and be introduced to some of our parish members. These sessions also are opportunities for you, and others that you may wish to invite, to ask those perplexing and difficult questions you may have about the Church. The inquiry sessions are on Wednesday evenings. Feel free to come and join us. If you have questions or seeking further information, please call Julia at 805-915-4625 or email at julia@strosesv.com.

EVENING BIBLE & FAITH STUDY

Our new Thursday night bible study is on Ephesians and starts on Thursday, Sept. 6th at 7pm in Rm 8. A limited number of the accompany study sets are available at the rectory for $19.95. Some scholarships are available.

Discover Your Inheritance

Paul's letter to the Ephesians reveals many remarkable gifts that we as Christians are given in the Church. This letter tells us about the nature of the Church – as a body, as a household, as a mystery, as a communion, as a bride, and as an army. It shows us the great inheritance that awaits us as sons and daughters, adopted fully into the family of God. It reveals how God's great love for us can transform our daily lives if we allow it. Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance is an 8-part Bible study that will enrich your faith, and show you how to live it out. In this study, you will: Discover what it means to be not just a son or daughter of God, but an heir to all he has to give. Learn about the great mystery of how we can love one another as Christ loves the Church. Find out that you have a place in God's "plan of sheer goodness."

For more info: Dr. Neil Fanning 217-4300.

Back to School safety tips

There is a lot that goes into preparing for the new school year, and it’s important to remember to talk about safety. These are a few tips to consider: (1) meet all of your child’s teachers, (2) discuss school bathroom behavior (no one should go into a stall with a child for any reason), (3) occasionally walk your children to their class instead of using the carpool line. Consejos de seguridad para el regreso a la escuela

Hay mucho por hacer en la preparación para el nuevo año escolar, y es importante recordar hablar de seguridad. Estos son algunos consejos a considerar: (1) conozca a todos los maestros de su hijo/hija, (2) discuta el comportamiento en el baño de la escuela (nadie debe entrar a un urinario con un niño por ninguna razón), (3) ocasionalmente lleve a sus hijos a su salón de clase en lugar de usar la línea de carpool. Para solicitar una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® “Three Things that Simply Must Be Done” (Tres cosas que simplemente deben hacerse), escriba a bmelendez@la-archdiocese.org o llame al (213) 637-7508.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Esta semana celebramos la memoria del santo patrono de los cocineros, san Lorenzo. Este español del siglo tercero fue uno de siete diáconos del Papa Sixto II, en Roma. Su ministerio consistía en repartir limosnas a los pobres. En el año 257 se pronunció una nueva persecución a los cristianos en Roma y el día 6 de agosto unos soldados romanos asesinaron al Papa y a cuatro de sus diáconos. Lorenzo, cuyo nombre significa laureado o premiado, fue arrestado tras la batalla y llevado ante el alcalde de Roma. Este mandó traer todas las riquezas de la Iglesia, pero Lorenzo ya hacía tiempo que las había vendido para dar el dinero a los más necesitados. No obstante, se marchó de la presencia del alcalde para luego llegar con él, acompañado de gente pobre y enferma, insistiendo que ellos eran las verdaderas riquezas de la Iglesia. El alcalde, furioso, lo mandó quemar sobre brazas para que muriera lentamente. Según testigos de su martirio, Lorenzo, a cierto punto dijo a sus asesinos: "Ya estoy asado de este lado, voltéenme para asarme por completo". Eventualmente dijo: "La carne esta lista, ya pueden comer" y falleció orando por la conversión de Roma.

TRANSFIGURACION DEL SEÑOR

TESTIGOS

Hoy, la fiesta de la Transfiguración del Señor, es día de testimonios de testigo ocular. El primero, una visión que el profeta Daniel reporta, era muy conocido por Jesús y sus apóstoles. Es una poderosa y memorable visión del cielo. Tiene llamaradas de fuego, ruedas encendidas, el sabio anciano y el Hijo del Hombre. Es claro que Daniel vio algo. Pero, ¿fue un sueño? ¿Fue algo real? ¿O fue solamente un mito astuto? ¿Pedro no quiere que su visión sea confundida de igual manera! Nos cuenta el Evangelio de san Marcos lo que él y sus amigos Santiago y Juan vieron cuando subieron un día a la montaña con Jesús. Jesús les ordenó a los tres testigos que no dijeran nada hasta que "el Hijo del Hombre resucitara de entre los muertos" (Marcos 9:9). Por si los lectores del Evangelio dan por descontada la historia o simplemente la descartan como un mito piadoso, Pedro escribe su propia versión de la Transfiguración de Jesús en su segunda carta a la Iglesia. Escribe con autoridad, como testigo ocular. Reporta este mensaje de Dios referente a Jesús: "Este es mi Hijo muy querido, al que miro con cariño", y nos asegura que el mensaje es digno de "creer(se) firmemente".
