Located in the vestibule; open before & after morning
Sunday Masses and Thursdays 12-3pm

O Risen Lord, be our resurrection and life:
for us and all whom you have made,
for those caught in the grip of sin and addiction,
for those who feel forsaken,
for those who live as if you do not,
for those who do not believe they need resurrection and life,
in churches that believe they are dying,
in successful churches who don't know they are dead, in us who know the good but fail to do it, who have not been judged but still judge, who know love but still live for self, who know hope but succumb to despair,
for those dying of malnutrition and hunger,
for those imprisoned unjustly and those imprisoned justly,
for those who live under regimes that seek to crush
all who proclaim Jesus' resurrection and life, for those in the throes of sickness that leads to death,
in marriages that are disintegrating, for women trafficked and enslaved by the forces of wickedness,
those whose lives are snuffed out in the womb,
for anyone anywhere who knows suffering and death in any form, and for Creation itself, which groans in travail,
in the life we share and the fellowship we enjoy that,
filled anew with the wonder of your love and the power of your grace, one day we will rise to eternal life with You.

Happy Easter to you and your loved ones!

April 12, 2020 Easter Sunday

Christ is risen! He is risen, indeed! This Paschal greeting is customary in Eastern Catholic and Orthodox churches on Easter Sunday. Then there is Saint Augustine's acclamation of joy: We are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song! However you express it, Easter is the time for rejoicing because Jesus Christ, our friend and brother, is risen from the dead. And yet today's scriptures are less joyful than one would expect for the most important feast in the Christian calendar. Perhaps we are being asked to look deeper into the mystery of the Resurrection, just as Peter went into the tomb to look deeper into the mystery of its emptiness.

Mary Magdalene, who loved the Lord so much that she risked everything, possibly even her life, to go to the tomb before daybreak, finds the stone rolled away and assumes that someone has taken Jesus' body. Frightened and sad, she runs to tell Peter and John. They all run back to the tomb, but what do they expect to see? Peter enters the tomb and sees. John enters, sees, and believes. But what does he believe? Scripture states, "For they did not yet understand the scripture that he had to rise from the dead" (John 20:9). They went home, not really knowing what had happened. But John "believed" something.

SOMETHING HAPPENED

What do we believe? Somewhere between that Easter morning and Peter's confident teaching about Jesus in the reading from the Acts of the Apostles, something (the Risen Christ) happened. Peter has evolved from his bewilderment into a witness to the Resurrection.

What are we to find in the empty tomb? Maybe the Colossians reading has an answer. By entering the empty tomb of our lives to seek the Lord, we see, we believe, we die, to be raised with Christ. "For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God" (Colossians 3:3). And we will rise in glory with him.

Today's Readings: Acts 10:34a, 37–43; Ps 118:1–2, 16–17, 22–23; Col 3:1–4 or 1 Cor 5:6b–8; Jn 20:1–9 or Mt 28:1–10

12 de abril de 2020 Domingo de Pascua

¡Cristo resucitó! ¡En verdad resucitó! Este saludo pascual es tradicional en la Iglesia católica oriental y ortodoxa y el Domingo de Pascua. Luego está la aclamación jubilosa de san Agustín: ¡Somos personas pascuales y el aleluya es nuestro canto! De la manera que lo exprese, la pascua es un tiempo para alegrarse porque Jesucristo, nuestro amigo y hermano, resucitó de la muerte. Y aun así las Escrituras de hoy son menos jubilosas de lo que uno esperaría para la celebración más importante en el calendario cristiano. Quizás se nos pide mirar más profundamente al misterio de la Resurrección, así como Pedro fue al sepulcro a ver más profundamente el misterio del sepulcro vacío.

María Magdalena, quien amaba mucho al Señor hasta arriesgar todo posiblemente su propia vida, para ir al sepulcro antes del amanecer, encontrando la piedra removida y asumir que alguien había robado el cuerpo de Jesús. Temerosa y triste, ella corre a decirle a Pedro y a Juan. Luego ellos corren hacia el sepulcro, ¿pero, que era lo que ellos esperaban ver? Pedro entra a la tumba y ve. Juan entra, ve y cree. Pero, ¿qué es lo que él cree? Las Escrituras lo dicen: "Y es que hasta entonces, los discípulos no habían entendido la Escritura, según la cual Jesús tenía que resucitar de entre los muertos". Fueron a casa, sin realmente saber lo que había pasado. Pero Juan "creyó" algo.

ALGO PASÓ

¿Qué creemos nosotros? En algún lugar entre esa mañana de Pascua y la enseñanza convencida de Pedro de la lectura del libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles, algo (Cristo resucitado) pasó. Pedro maduró de su desconcierto hacia hacerse un testigo de la Resurrección.

¿Quiénes somos nosotros en la tumba vacía? Quizá la lectura a los colosenses tenga una respuesta. Al entrar a la tumba vacía de nuestras vidas y buscar al Señor, vemos, creemos, morimos, para resucitar con Cristo. "Han muerto, y su vida está escondida con Cristo en Dios" (Colosenses 3:3) Y resucitaremos en la gloria con él.

Lecturas de hoy: Hch 10:34a, 37–43; Sal 118 (117):1–2, 16–17, 22–23; Col 3:1–4 o 1 Cor 5:6b–8; Jn 20:1–9 o Mt 28:1–10

SEEDS OF FAITH

There is a brevity, a certain terseness, in the scripture readings for Easter Sunday. Peter's speech in Acts is built of direct, pointed sentences. Paul's letters are based on straightforward creed-like statements. Even the Gospel story only briefly recounts what will turn out to be one of the most remarkable events in human history—the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Advertising agents call these encapsulated points of information "bullet points." Scripture scholars call them kerygmata, or "kernels" of our faith. Actually, "kernels" or "seeds" are good terms for these statements, since throughout the Easter season, we will hear in the Acts of the Apostles, the Letters of Paul, and the Gospel accounts of the days following the Resurrection exactly how these kerygmata began to flower, how they continued to grow through the life of the early church. May these Easter "seeds" of faith serve a similar purpose for us, too, so that the life of the Risen Christ will flourish in us and through our witness in the coming days. Copyright © J. S. To Our Dear Beloved Families,

We miss you so much!

The smiling faces of your children are so precious to us! We pray for your families' health and spiritual growth during this difficult time. We will not have classes this coming Sunday. Catholic school classes are suspended until April 19th. I have attached, once again, a link to the Archdiocese emergency website. The Archbishop sent out the guidelines for Holy Week in a document that is attached to the link below. Services, including Easter Vigil, will go on, but with the priest and assistants only, no attendees.

We await further instructions from our pastor, Fr. Joe Shea.

Thank you for your understanding and patience. Please keep us in your prayers, also, for courage, fortitude, and faith.

May God bless you and keep you.

May He make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you.

May He lift His countenance upon you and bring you peace.

Please share this message with any other family in the program you may know.

With great love and hope,

A nuestras queridas familias,

¡Los extrañamos mucho!

¡Las caras sonrientes de sus hijos son tan preciosas para nosotros! Oramos por la salud y el crecimiento espiritual de sus familias durante este momento difícil. No tendremos clases el próximo domingo. Las clases de la escuela católica están suspendidas hasta el 19 de abril. He adjuntado, una vez más, un enlace al sitio web de emergencia de la Arquidiócesis. El Arzobispo envió las pautas para la Semana Santa en un documento que se adjunta al siguiente enlace. Los servicios, incluida la Vigilia Pascual, continuarán, pero solo con el sacerdote y los que lo asistente.

Esperamos más instrucciones de nuestro párroco, el Padre. Joe Shea.

Gracias por su comprensión y paciencia. Por favor manténganos en sus oraciones, también, por coraje, fortaleza y fe.

Que Dios los bendiga y los guarde.

Que el rostro de Dios brille sobre sus familias y sea generoso con ustedes.

Que levante su semblante y les traiga paz.

Por favor de compartir este mensajes con otras familias en el programa.

Con gran amor y esperanza,

The 40 Days for Life Spring Campaign ran from Ash Wednesday to Palm Sunday. We had 37 new sign-ups. Thank you to the 95 prayer warriors who used the 40 Days for Life calendar to log-in 1,013 hours of prayer! We had more participation from men, more couples, more children under 18, and there were three or more people praying during many of the hours. We can't imagine how many clients did not pull-into the facility because of our presence. Abby Johnson, the former Planned Parenthood director, says that Planned Parenthood's statistics were that the no-show rate would go as high as 75% when there is a prayer presence out there.

40 Days for Life is non-denominational. We had more participation from members of at least seven non-denominational churches. Catholic do make up the majority of the volunteers. They came from the nine area parishes, with St. Rose, St. Paschal, and St. Peter Claver members comprising the majority of the volunteers. We also have a volunteer who is a member of the Polish Catholic Church, Our Lady of the Bright Mount in Los Angeles. Thus, one of our firsts were volunteers praying the Rosary together in Polish, Spanish, Romanian and English. We are truly an international group.

Our campaign began with a beautiful Mass celebrated by Fr. Luis Estrada on March 19. For the first time, three seminarians helped serve Mass. For the first time, the Legion of Mary participated by processing the beautiful statue of Mary and led a Rosary outside with lit candles after Mass. The Legion of Mary offered Rosaries outside for the first week or so of the campaign until the rains, winds and cold brought us back inside the church.

Tami of Godspcak Calvary Chapel and the group "Stand in Love," led a nondenominational worship and praise candlelit opening event, which was attended by over 40 people. A few of those attendees then gave a lot of hours of prayer at the vigil.

We had at least three unconfirmed turnarounds, or babies saved from medication abortions. It appeared that the couples changed their minds, but they did not stop to talk to us on the way out of the parking lot. Some of that is due to shame. I hope that those volunteers who witnessed those turnarounds will someday have the reward of a mom stopping by vigil to show them the baby their peaceful, prayerful presence helped save.

Due to the COVID-19, 40 Days for Life had to suspend their public vigil on Sunday March 22. By March 26, co-leader Janie Beach and I asked our volunteers to pray 24 hours from home instead of 12 hours. By the next day, they met the challenge with 100% coverage which went on for 10-days in-a-row to the end of the campaign. God bless them all!

We also want to thank Father Shea and the Knights of Columbus, Council 5803 for holding a teleconference Novena for Life Rosary from March 27 to April 4. This was another first caused by the unprecedented Corona Virus. There were from 31-40 phones connected, with many couples and families participating. Thanks to Joe and Lorraine Ferrall for requesting this, Lee Olson for hosting it each night, and Father Shea for leading and closing us in prayer.

Because of all this prayer, we started hearing about a no-show from the abortion doctor at Ventura (and no surgical abortions that day), an abortion pill reversal success involving the Life Centers of Ventura, and there was visibly less business at Thousand Oaks. Thanks be to Jesus!

Happy Easter!

Leonore Schuetz co-leader Thousand Oaks 40 Days for Life

RESPECT LIFE

They [John and Jesus] were both alive while still in the womb. Elizabeth rejoiced as the infant leaped in her womb; Mary glorifies the Lord because Christ within inspired her. Each mother recognizes her child and each is known by her child who is alive, being not merely souls but also spirits. De Anima 26.4

entonces también ustedes se manifestarán gloriosos, juntamente con él. — Colosenses 3:4

ANUNCIO: Todas las juntas de los ministerios y grupos en español han sido suspendidos hasta un nuevo aviso.

LA PRIMACÍA DEL DOMINGO

¿Por qué la Iglesia no celebra la memoria de los santos en domingo? Porque el domingo es el día en que resucitó el Señor; es el primer día de la semana, es el día en que los primeros cristianos, desde la tarde del sábado, comenzaron a celebrar la Eucaristía. La celebración del domingo es la inmersión en el “octavo día”, es decir, en el tiempo de Dios. Es el día que corona la semana en su más bello esplendor: la resurrección del Señor. Por tal motivo “se considera el domingo como el día festivo primordial”. La Constitución sobre la Sagrada Liturgia nos recuerda que el domingo es “la fiesta primordial que debe presentarse e inculcarse a los fieles” y las Normas Generales para el Calendario y el Año Litúrgico reafirman su importancia al estipular que, dada la importancia del domingo, sólo una solemnidad o fiesta pueden reemplazar su celebración. Cuando se habla de reemplazar su celebración, quiere decir, el uso de lecturas y oraciones propias que el Misal Romano contiene para la celebración de dicha fiesta. Miguel Arias, Copyright © J. S.
