Alpha Program

LIFE. FAITH. MEANING. - FOR THOSE FARTHEST AWAY

We are still wishing all a Happy New Year and we all had a blessed Epiphany!!! The feast of the "great coming" of Emmanuel, God is with us, continues. Matthew concludes the story of the wise men with the phrase "they returned to their home by a different route." While acknowledging the need to avoid the treacherous Herod, commentators throughout history have seen a broader meaning to the comment. They see in the text, and expression of changed lives that would never be the same because they had met Jesus....their lives were forever 'on a different path'. This reading reflexively calls us to examine our own life and its path. How is our life different because we have seen Jesus? 2020 was quite a year. Many of us have seen memes that picture 2020 as simply a 'dumpster fire'....a year best just burnt and ignored. There is some truth there. But most of us, gifted with the eyes of faith, it has been more than that. It has been a time to ask, as we always do, "how has God been present to us" to show us what we might have otherwise missed. While we each will have our own answer or answers, I am drawn back to the story "What Men Live By" written by Leo Tolstoy. I first came across this short story years ago. You can access it here for your enjoyment -

<http://www.insideoutsidespa.com/archive/what-men-live-by-leo-tolstoy-inside-outside.pdf> (you may have to cut and paste into your browser) It is both charming and light, serious and profound, and at only 23 pages, brief enough not to be burdensome. Without giving too much away, in a theme that 'A Wonderful Life' was later to reverse, an angel, for its salvation, is sent by God to Earth to learn 'What Men Live By'. At the end of the story, here are the summary comments of the angel: I have learned that all men live not by care for themselves but by love...I knew before that God gave life to men and desires that they should live; now I understood more than that...I understood that God does not wish men to live apart, and therefore he does not reveal to them what each one needs for himself, but he wishes them to live united, and therefore reveals to each of them what is necessary for all." If you can, take 30 minutes and read it all. In 2020 I am certain that God used this awful pandemic to teach this truth, not just to us, but a lesson that much of the world would be able to see as truth. I am convinced this truth being so close to the heart of the Gospel, has left many open to the fullness of the word, now made flesh.

Alpha Program Postponement We are postponing the Alpha program until a bit later in the year, in the hope that the increased distribution of vaccine(s), may aid in allowing more to attend. As a final note please continue to pray for one another. It is a great gift. And as always, pray for those who have no one to pray for them. Those are the prayers of miracles. Jesus comes and is merciful.

DID YOU KNOW?

Why it is so important to tell the truth?

As parents, we teach our children that the truth is important. In fact, the truth is a critical part of the healing process for victim-survivors of abuse. When a victim-survivor tells the truth about abuse that has happened to him or her, it robs the secret of its power and begins to break down any fear surrounding it. This helps a victim-survivor on the path to being free from the effects of abuse and enables the church and other institutions to take appropriate action to keep others safe. For more information about the importance of truth-telling, visit <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.
