QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

Ezra and Nehemiah were the religious and political leaders of Judah in the mid-5th century BC. They grounded their leadership in Scripture ("the book of the law.") What role does sacred Scripture have in guiding your life?

Second Reading:

Paul used the human body as an analogy for the "many parts" of the Christian community in Corinth that should unite as the "one body" of Christ. In what ways do you find this a challenging vision for community?

Gospel:

Today's reading contains both the opening prologue to the Gospel of Luke and the initial reaction to Jesus' return to his hometown of Nazareth. Luke is the only Evangelist to provide us with a prologue outlining his motivation to write his Gospel. What details do you find most interesting from Luke's prologue?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God's special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God's word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that he is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God's timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God's word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit. We realize the truth in what God speaks and become open to God's love. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God's power. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means "beloved of God," a name that can be used by anyone who desires friendship with God. ©LPi

The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

Illness oftentimes reveals a person’s character. It can lead to self-absorption, despair, even rebellion against God. But it can also strengthen people and bring peaceful acceptance of the situation.

Jesus’ compassion brought healing to many during his life on earth. He even identified himself with the sick (“I was sick and you took care of me”—Matthew 25:36). Throughout history, Christians have dedicated themselves to care for the sick and the dying. Everywhere the Church has built and staffed hospitals to care for the ill and the afflicted.

More than that, the Church has a sacrament to bring comfort, strength, and peace to those who are being tested by illness: The Anointing of the Sick. It is attested to by St. James, who writes, “Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders [presbyters] of the Church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven” (James 5:14-15).

James does not speak of those at the point of death, but simply those who are sick.

Depending on the circumstances, Anointing of the Sick can take place in a home, a hospital, or a church. The liturgy begins with a reading from Scripture. The priest prays over the sick person, lays hands on the person and anoints him or her with the oil of sick (blessed by the bishop for the whole diocese near Holy Thursday). He prays: “Through this holy anointing may the Lord in his love and mercy help you...May the Lord who frees you from sin save you and raise you up.”

The principal effect of the sacrament is to give comfort, peace, and courage for facing serious illness, surgery, or the frailty of old age. People’s sins are forgiven, and they are united to Christ’s passion.

The last sacrament of the Church is not the Anointing of the Sick, but Viaticum: communion in the Body and Blood of Christ received at the moment of “Passover” to God, bringing our earthly pilgrimage to a close.

ATTENTION ALL SCOUTS AND SCOUTERS

The Scouting Family of SJA (Pack, Troop, and Crew 179) wish to invite all parishioners who may be members of other Scouting units to join us as we celebrate Scouting’s birthday on Scout Sunday, February 6, at the 9:15 Mass. ## Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Sr. Manners: If I am just a little bit late for Mass, is it acceptable to enter during the processional song?

Gentle Christian: Sr. Manners assumes that this is a rare occurrence, since she is sure you have such respect for the liturgy and your parish community that you would not habitually come late to Mass. If the entrance procession has begun, or is about to begin, the well-mannered Christian remains in the vestibule until the procession has gone up the aisle. It is never appropriate to cut in front of the cross and book bearers and the presider -- both out of respect for these people and for the sacred symbols of the cross and the Book of the Gospels. Once the procession has gone up the aisle, you may take a seat as unobtrusively as possible. Movement in the aisles during the proclamation of the Word of God is distracting to those who are trying to attend to the readings, and is disrespectful to the Word of God. So, in summary, arrive early and have time to pray!

Parish Support

Due to an early bulletin transmission deadline for the Martin Luther King holiday, the financial report for the week ending January 16 is not available. Your ongoing generosity and support is greatly appreciated.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Plant Your Works in the Word

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful – truly?

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God – giving it true spirit and life.

– Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Please pray silently: Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

CELEBRATING THE SACRAMENTS

Parishioners who are unable to walk in the communion line to receive the Eucharist during weekend Masses are asked to inform an Usher before Mass begins each week. This will ensure that the head usher directs the Deacon to your seat with the Host and that you do not miss the opportunity to receive Our Lord.

Anointing of the Sick If you or a family member are ill or facing surgery, and would like to be anointed, please contact the office. When it is not an emergency, please call the office before going to the hospital. Our number is 426-2180.

Baptism Infant baptisms (for children from birth to just before the 7th birthday) are scheduled throughout the year at various Masses. Baptisms are not performed during the solemn season of Lent (between Ash Wednesday and Easter Sunday). Before scheduling their child's baptism, parents are required to attend a baptism preparation class. Please visit our website (sjavb.org) for dates and times and then phone the office to register for the class of your choice. Parents are encouraged to pick up a copy of our brochure, "Having Your Child Baptized at St. John the Apostle," which is available online and in the office.

Next Class: February 1, 2022

Couples who would like to celebrate the Sacrament of Matrimony at St. John's must contact Carole Romanini, Office Manager, at the parish office (426-2180 or parish@sjavb.org). A minimum of six to nine months is normative for the preparation process after completing and submitting the parish wedding application and reviewing our policy booklet. We strongly encourage visiting the Marriage section of our website under Sacraments at www.sjavb.org prior to calling or emailing.

Flowers for the Blessed Mother and/or Saint Joseph can be requested in honor or memory of a loved one.
