

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest. And on earth, peace to people of goodwill.

We praise You. We bless You. We adore you. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory. O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father almighty.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world and receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are holy. You alone are the Lord. You alone are most high, Jesus Christ (bow). With the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen"

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Weekly Reflection

What a joy it is to see our new church home taking shape before our eyes.

Each week, and sometimes each day, brings visible signs of progress. Paint is going on the walls. Flooring is being prepared. Liturgical furnishings are being sanded, stained, polished, and renewed. What was once only a hope, a prayer, and a vision is becoming a real and sacred place where our community will gather to worship, pray, welcome, serve, and grow.

This move is about far more than a change of address. It is a moment of renewal in the life of our parish. God is opening a new door before us, and with that door comes the holy responsibility to build not simply a beautiful chapel, but a living, breathing community of faith where all people may encounter the unconditional love of Jesus Christ.

I am deeply grateful for the many hands and hearts already making this possible. From our building search team, finance team, worship design team, volunteers, donors, and parishioners who have prayed and encouraged us along the way, this new chapter is being built by the faithfulness of the whole Body of Christ.

There is still work ahead, but the energy is real, the Spirit is moving, and the future of Good Shepherd is bright.

As we continue preparing for this move, I invite each of you to pray for our parish, to stay engaged, and to begin imagining who God may be calling us to welcome through these doors. A new home gives us new opportunities for hospitality, evangelization, service, and community. We are not simply moving into a building; we are stepping forward in faith.

Thank you for believing in this community, for investing in its future, and for helping Good Shepherd become a place where people are known, loved, welcomed, and sent forth in the name of Christ.
