WEEKLY LETTER

June 25, 2023

Dear Friends,

Our Gospel this weekend offers us some very comforting and important advice. Jesus is speaking to his Apostles, and he tells them plainly “Fear no one,” in many ways that is a tall order especially in our world today where it seems as if there is constantly someone or something to fear. The truth is however that when it comes to Jesus and his love for us, “Even all the hairs of your head are counted” that is how loved we are, that is how well our God knows us and cares for us. We can go through our lives being fearful and in truth there are many things that would bring us to that point however when all is said and done, if we put our hope, our faith and our trust in Jesus and his love for us then we can be sure that he knows and loves us so well that he will take care of us. Not being afraid seems like an impossible task, however, in our relationship with the Lord it is essential, the truth is that he has us, and he will take care of us, he always has, he always will.

As summer settles on us I pray that these days will offer all of us time to relax and renew. It is always a good time to recharge our hearts and souls and to perhaps allow a little more time for reflection with the Lord. The Sisters of St. Joseph that taught my brothers and sisters and I always told us that summer vacation is not a vacation from Jesus. Let us take him along with us as we live these days of summer, that way we can be sure that we will have days blessed by our God and safe with is love.

Join me as we welcome and pray for all our young parishioners who will be with us for Vacation Bible Adventure this coming week. VBA is always a wonderful time filled with fun and laughter, and the goodness of our God who draws our young parishioners close during these days. A great big thank you to our adult volunteers who help to make our VBA experience possible.

Thank you to everyone who volunteered to make our 2023 Parish Festival so wonderful. You know by now that it takes a great many people working many hours to bring about the days of our Festival. I am grateful to all who worked at the Festival as well as everyone who attended the Festival. It is always one of the best weeks of the year here at Saint Joseph’s and I am once again humbled by the generosity of so many of our parishioners. We could not do any of what we do without you and your goodness.

*Peace,
Fr. Steve Leva*

SCHOOL SUPPLIES FOR DREXEL NEUMANN ACADEMY

It is time to collect schools supplies again for our sister school, Drexel Neumann Academy (DNA) in Chester, PA. They will soon be beginning their 17th year of service to the children of Chester. DNA offers students a safe environment to learn and a challenging curriculum, which will prepare them not only for their academic future, but also for life. DNA is giving the children of Chester the opportunity to be models of peacemaking in a violent environment and the educational foundation for a bright and successful future.

As a parish, St. Joseph has helped DNA in their mission by providing needed books and supplies for their students for the past seven years. On July 1st, tags will be available in the narthex with items on their wish list. Please choose a tag and bring the item/items by July 16th to the narthex. If you have any questions please call Peg or Tim Cassidy at 610-873-1641, or email at ptcassidy1980@gmail.com.

DREXEL  NEUMANN
ACADEMY

Dear Saint Joseph Parish Family
(for that is what you are),

Eighteen years ago, you welcomed and embraced an outsider from Delco, gave me room to grow, and showed me how to bring Jesus to others. It has truly been a wonderful journey!

Together we have seen the changing of the guard with pastors, priests, and school principals. We have also been able to watch trees come down, the rectory be moved, and our beautiful church building emerge from the rubble like a butterfly from its cocoon.

It has been rewarding to assist you and your families with faith formation and preparation for Sacrament reception through the years. It has additionally been a joy to journey in faith with many adults and teens seeking to become Catholic.

Thank you for the beautiful pen and ink drawing of Saint Joseph Church. It will be a lovely reminder of all of you and the many graces we have all received as a vibrant community of faith.

Thank you also for all the kind words and generous gestures I have received these past few weeks, as well as Saturday evening at Mass and the parish picnic. It all has been very humbling and affirming.

Keeping you all in prayer.

God bless,

Kathy Thomas

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Being part of the prayer shawl ministry means being open to the urgings of the Holy Spirit and following through on them. There are a few guidelines we follow, but generally each member is free to make as few or as many shawls as she is prompted to do. The idea behind a prayer shawl is to pray while making them for the comfort, safety and love of the unknown recipient. How often or how long a person works on one is strictly between her and the Spirit. Once finished, all shawls are put together for the blessing, with no recognition being given to one more than the other. After being blessed, each member at the meeting lays hands on each shawl and sends it along with additional silent prayer.

We often say that when the shawl is given, it becomes the work of the Holy Spirit to look after the recipient. From the notes and conversations received, the Holy Spirit has been very busy at St. Joseph's Parish.

We welcome anyone needing one, to take one, along with the mini prayer shawls available in the St. Katherine Drexel Room. We have some repeating donations such as the monthly visits to St. Martha's as well as individual requests. We have never worried about whether we would run out, as whenever the supply seems low in the cupboard, women talk of getting the nudge from the Holy Spirit to start a new one.

The ministry is open to all knitters and crocheters. We meet on the first Thursday of the month at 9:45 am in the St. John Neumann Room. But meeting attendance is not mandatory to be part of the ministry. For more information, contact Carol Grigson, 610-269-5413 or email carol.k.grigson@gmail.com

RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE

PREP NOW ENROLLING

Registration for the Parish Religious Education Program (PREP) 2023-2024 is now open. Please check the PREP page on the parish website for full details. Contact the PREP Office with questions or concerns – prep@stjosephrc.org or 610-873-8798.

Homeschool families are asked to register their children with the PREP Office for the purpose of maintaining current information. Please email PREP Office for a hard copy of the registration form.

As always, we recommend registering now for the session that best fits your schedule. In most cases, adjustments can be made more easily as schedules change if your children are already registered.

THE SOUND OF FREEDOM: LOCAL SCREENING

Human trafficking is a primary violation of human freedom. It is the slavery issue of our modern day. Please educate yourself by attending a viewing of "Sound of Freedom" based on a true character played by Jim Caviezel. The trailer can be viewed and tickets purchased at www.angel.com or www.regmovies.com. It premieres July 4 at Regal in Downingtown.

GOOD WORKS IS CALLING YOU

Good Works extends the love of Jesus Christ to low-income homeowners by making their homes warmer, safer, and drier. Since starting this ministry in 2001, St. Joseph parishioners have completed numerous homes under the direction of Good Works. We try to involve the homeowner in every way possible and make them a part of the home repair team.

Skills of all levels are encouraged to participate! St. Joe's holds their work days every 3rd Saturday of the month. For more info, please contact Becky Kopec at gwpartnerchurch@gmail.com.
