Stewardship: Today we remember the three wise men from the East who came to pay homage to the infant Jesus, bringing Him rich gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. The gifts we bring—our time, service, and some share of what we earn for the work we do—are equally precious in His sight.

Dear Sisters and Brothers In Christ: Words cannot express my thankfulness to all of you for your prayers, your kind words of support and encouragement, and your generous gifts over these past months. It is truly a miracle how my health has improved considering what the neurosurgeon said after I had that fall in church. Prayers and good medical care certainly go hand in hand. I have been truly blessed with two fantastic parishes that have truly helped me grow as a priest. We've been together going on three years, and look where the Lord has brought us. The time ahead is exciting.

Also, I want to express for Fr. Ron his appreciation for your prayers and cards regarding his heart issues. He is doing extremely well. Both of us are so happy to be "back in the saddle" and doing what we love, serving the Lord by serving the People of God. Know that all of you are in the prayers of both Fr. Ron and I.

My Parish App: Have you downloaded our parish app yet? Download it for free today both Android and IOS. The app is full of information and a great way to keep up to date with parish happenings.

Mardi Gras Chicken Dinner: Mark your calendars for a delicious chicken dinner! This year's dinner is Saturday, February 25th. This dinner will be made by the St. Peter Parish Youth Ministry Program with all proceeds going to their Student Activities account to help offset the cost of youth opportunities throughout the year.

A Reflection of the Gospel from Living Liturgy

2017: Who is this newborn Child for whom the magi are searching, being led by a star? He is "the newborn king of the Jews." But in reality the One they seek is more: he is ruler, shepherd—the Christ. Do we ever ask, as did the magi, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews?" How diligently do we search? What star leads us? Whom do we find? How do we fit into this astounding story? How do we encounter the Light of the world?

The Light is a welcoming, peaceful warmth to which we surrender and are overjoyed. The Light entering the darkness makes the contrast between goodness and evil that much more magnified. Those who choose to recognize the Light are drawn to give homage and open the gifts of their hearts. Those who choose darkness enter a path of trouble and destruction. What does this Light reveal in our hearts? What part of the story do we embrace?

This feast of Epiphany celebrates the Light being manifested to all nations. This feast invites each of us to be among the seekers of the Light who do Christ homage. Our joy is found in the real surprise of the gospel message: we are "members of the same body" who are now the light that shines in the darkness. The story of the "newborn king of the Jews" being manifested to all nations is our own personal story. Our own shining forth hastens God's reign. With such grace given us, no wonder all we can do is set our hearts rightly, offer homage and gifts, and follow the Light wherever it leads.

Each fresh look at the Christmas story reminds us that all Christian living is paschal mystery living; that is, the rising (the Light) happens only when dying to self (darkness) is embraced. It ought not to surprise us, then, how much darkness accompanies these beautiful Christmas season gospels; nor should it surprise us that there is a cost in our own lives for living the gospel. We continue to choose self-giving, nevertheless, because God's star always guides us and fills us with joy as we surrender to God's will and follow the Light that has come into our midst.
