TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

VIGÉSIMO-SEGUNDO DOMINGO DEL
TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me will find it."

Entonces Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: "El que quiera ser mi discípulo debe negarse a sí mismo, tomar su cruz y seguirme. Porque el que quiera salvar su vida la perderá, pero el que pierda su vida por mí la encontrará."

Matthew 16: 24-25

Why do Catholics use statues and images?

Answer: Catholics use statues and sacred images to help them remember Jesus, Mary, the angels, and the saints and to remind them of the people and events of our faith. Catholics do not worship statues or believe that a statue is a god. Worship belongs to God alone. The Bible itself does not forbid every kind of religious image. In fact, God commanded the Israelites to make certain sacred images, including the cherubim on the Ark of the Covenant (Exodus 25:18–22). The important distinction is between worshipping an image and honoring what the image represents. For example, when a Catholic kneels before a statue of Mary, the Catholic is not worshipping the statue. The statue simply helps the person focus on Mary and remember her example of faith and her role as the Mother of Jesus. Likewise, an image of Jesus reminds Catholics of Christ Himself. The Catechism explains that the honor given to a sacred image is directed toward the person represented by the image—not toward the material itself. Sacred images can therefore help people pray, remember God's work, and grow closer to Him.

Por qué los católicos usan estatuas e imágenes?

Respuesta: Los católicos usan estatuas e imágenes sagradas para recordar a Jesús, a María, a los ángeles y a los santos, y para recordar a las personas y los acontecimientos importantes de nuestra fe. Los católicos no adoran las estatuas ni creen que una estatua sea un dios. La adoración pertenece solamente a Dios. La Biblia misma no prohíbe todo tipo de imágenes religiosas. De hecho, Dios mandó a los israelitas hacer ciertas imágenes sagradas, incluyendo los querubines sobre el Arca de la Alianza (Éxodo 25:18–22). La diferencia importante está entre adorar una imagen y honrar a la persona que la imagen representa. Por ejemplo, cuando un católico se arrodilla ante una estatua de María, no está adorando la estatua. La estatua simplemente ayuda a la persona a concentrarse en María, recordar su ejemplo de fe y reconocer su papel como Madre de Jesús. De la misma manera, una imagen de Jesús nos recuerda al mismo Cristo. El Catecismo explica que el honor que se da a una imagen sagrada está dirigido a la persona representada por la imagen, no al material de la imagen. Por eso, las imágenes sagradas pueden ayudar a las personas a orar, recordar las obras de Dios y acercarse más a Él.
